In the High Court of Justice—Companies (Winding-up).

Mr. Justice Astbury.

No. 00152 of 1923.

In the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and in the Matter of the ECON MANUFACTURING COMPANY Limited.

BY an Order made by His Lordship Mr. Justice P. O. Lawrence in the above Matter, dated the 10th day of April, 1923, on the petition of Nettlefold & Sons Limited, whose registered office is situate at 54, High Holborn, in the county of London, it was ordered that the voluntary winding-up of the said Econ Manufacturing Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of this Court; and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding-up may be adopted as the Court shall think fit; and it was ordered that the Liquidator appointed in the voluntary winding-up of the said Company should, on the 10th day of July next, and thenceforth every three months, file with the Registrar a report, in writing, as to the position of and the progress made with, the winding-up of the said Company, and with the realisation of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding-up as the Court may from time to time direct; and the persons hereinafter named by their Counsel consenting to act in manner hereinafter mentioned and without remuneration. This Court doth direct that the Liquidator appointed to conduct such winding-up may exercise all the powers conferred upon him by the above mentioned Act without the sanction or intervention of this Court, in the same manner as if the Company were being wound up altogether voluntarily, subject until further Order to the restrictions hereinafter imposed upon him, that is to say:—

(a) The Liquidator shall not, without the sanction of a majority of the following persons, viz.:—James Nunn (representing Nettlefold & Sons Limited, the above mentioned Petitioner),

James Alfred Bush (representing the Telephone Manufacturing Company Limited), of 2, Norfolk-street, Strand, London, and William Osborne (representing Burton, Dolingpole & Company Limited), of 17, Balfour House, Finsbury-pavement, in the city of London (being the persons nominated by the creditors of the Company to act as a committee of inspection), or of the Court, carry on the business of the Company or bring or defend any legal proceedings or exercise any of the powers conferred by section 214 of the above mentioned Act.

(b) The Liquidator shall not, without the sanction of a majority of the aforesaid persons or of the Court, sell or enter into any contract for the sale of the Company's business.

(c) The Liquidator, except in cases of urgency, shall not, without the sanction of a majority of the aforesaid persons or of the Court, employ a Solicitor or other Agent to take any proceedings, or do any business which the Liquidator is unable to take or do himself; and the Liquidator is to be at liberty to pay out of the assets of the Company the actual out of pocket expenses necessarily incurred by the aforesaid persons acting as aforesaid, subject to the approval of the Judge in Chambers; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company; and the creditors, contributories and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply generally as there may be occasion; and the time for the advertisement of the said Order in the London Gazette was by the said Order extended to the 1st day of May, 1923.

Dated 26th April, 1923.

STONES, MORRIS and STONE, 41, Moorgate, E.C. 2, Solicitors for Nettlefold & Sons Limited, the Petitioners.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
