FRIDAY, 18 MAY, 1923.

Privy Council Office, 18th May, 1923.

The following amendments to a Statute of Queen's College, Oxford, made by the Governing Body of the College, on the 27th day of March, 1923, and sealed on the 3rd day of May, 1923, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Whereas it is expedient to provide that Professorial Fellows may be elected without emolument, and that they shall not be counted in determining the total number of Fellowships at present allowed by Statute, and to make regulations.

The College, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and of any other power enabling it at a General Meeting of the Governing Body, specially summoned for the purpose, and after due notice, held upon the 27th day of March, 1923, by the unanimous vote of the persons present and voting, made the following amendments to a Statute made by the University Commissioners for The Queen's College, Oxford, and ordered them to be submitted to His Majesty in Council, to be dealt with as provided by the said Act.

In the College Statutes Title 1, Sectio ii, "The Fellows" after clause 8, insert the following new clause:—

8 bis. It shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes of those present and voting to elect any Professor of the University to an ordinary Fellowship without emolument.

Any such Professor who shall be so elected shall ipso facto vacate his Fellowship upon ceasing to be such Professor.

Such Fellows shall not be subject to any restrictions in regard to marriage, or private income, and they shall not be entitled to occupy rooms rent free in College, unless they be unmarried and resident in rooms in the College.

Any Fellowship held by a Professor under the provisions of this Clause shall not be counted among the number of Fellowships of the College for the purpose of Clause 1 of this Statute.

The College Seal was affixed upon the 3rd day of May, 1923, in the presence of:—

*E. M. Walker, Pro-Provost.
George B. Cronshaw, Bursar.
C. H. Thompson, Fellow.*
