His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned rewards for distinguished service in the Field with the Waziristan Force:—

Awarded the Distinguished Service Order.

Maj. Arthur Edward Broadbent Parsons, O.B.E., 2nd Bn., 12th Frontier Force Regt., I.A.

As Political Officer he volunteered to fly as a passenger with the Royal Air Force Squadrons in bombing operations against the hostile Mahsuds, whose location in difficult country it was hardly possible to find except under his personal guidance. This he has done on several occasions with complete success, and has shown conspicuous daring and initiative in finding the targets. While guiding the raid on the Jelal Khel on 24th December, 1922, he was severely wounded in the arm while flying at a low altitude.

His gallantry has been of the greatest value to the Royal Air Force in enabling them to find and deal with their objective.

Awarded the Military Cross.

Lt. Arthur Hancock, 9th Jat Regt., I.A.

Near Katkai, on the 18th December, 1922, when a mixed column had moved out to co-operate with the Royal Air Force, he displayed conspicuous bravery, coolness, and judgment under fire, when with three platoons of his company he seized and held a hill in advance of the main position. He was under close enfilade fire from the enemy the whole time. His senior Indian Officer had been killed and fourteen other ranks wounded during the three hours he held the hill.

During the whole time, by his coolness and judgment he set a splendid example to his men. Finally, when ordered to retire, still under very accurate fire, he removed the remainder of the wounded and all Lewis guns and arms.
