FRIDAY, 15 JUNE, 1923.

Whitehall, 13th June, 1923.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on the 12th instant on the occasion of Their visit to Ilford and Becontree:—

ILFORD URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

We, the Chairman and Members of the Urban District Council for the Urban District of Ilford, humbly beg to offer Your Majesty, in the names of the inhabitants of this loyal Parliamentary Borough, an expression of our devotion to Your Royal House and our whole-hearted and respectful welcome on the auspicious occasion of Your Majesty's presence here to-day.

As loyal and devoted subjects we are well aware of the deep interest Your Majesty displays in all matters concerning the welfare of the community, and it is in consequence of Your Majesty's particular interest in the housing accommodation which is being provided on such an extensive scale in this eastern district of Greater London that we, the citizens of this Parliamentary Borough, have the honour, privilege, and happiness of welcoming Your Majesty this day.

The town of Ilford, as Your Majesty is aware, has on a previous occasion been honoured by Your presence when, as Prince of Wales, you declared open the Hainault Playing Fields. On that occasion the population of this district was approximately 60,000. It is now estimated at 100,000, and is still rapidly increasing by reason principally of the provision of new housing estates within its confines.

Within the area of this township, not only the London County Council at Becontree, but the Corporation of the City of London, have recently established large housing estates, and, in addition the Council of this town have completed four building estates, comprising three hundred and fifty-six houses in different parts of their district.

It is particularly gratifying that Your Majesty is accompanied to-day by Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, who so fully shares Your Majesty's deep solicitude for all that tends to provide the high ideal of home life, with its resultant happiness and contentment amongst all classes of Your Majesty's subjects.

We devoutly pray that Your Majesties, secure in the affection of Your people, may long be spared to preside over the destinies of this great Empire, in whose prosperity and happiness every loyal subject of Your Majesties evinces such justifiable pride.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

On behalf of the Queen and myself I thank you very sincerely for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the enthusiastic welcome which you have given Us. We recall with pleasure Our visit to Ilford fourteen years ago for the purpose of opening the Fairlop Oak Playing Fields, and we are gratified to observe the advance made by the Urban District Council since that time in all branches of the work of local government.

The Queen and I are very glad to have the opportunity of visiting the London County Council's estate at Becontree, which, I understand, is the largest housing estate hitherto developed by municipal enterprise. The London County Council have for many years shown their zeal and activity in the work of housing; and in these days the large scheme at Becontree is a most welcome contribution to the public need. The liberal planning of the estate, with its gardens and open spaces, is proof of the progress made in recent years towards a solution of the housing problem.

I note with satisfaction that your Council have not been behindhand in carrying out their obligations for the housing of the workers in their own district, and that four building estates have already been completed by your Council themselves.

I shall watch with interest the future of your town, confident that the same care will be devoted towards its development as has been shown in the measures taken for improving the social conditions of the people in your district.

BARKING TOWN URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTIES.

We, the Chairman and Councillors of the Urban District of Barking Town, in the County of Essex, humbly beg to offer Your Majesties, in the name of the inhabitants of this loyal and ancient district (which has grown up around the Benedectine Abbey of Barking, founded in 666 A.D. by St. Erkenwald), our whole-hearted and respectful welcome on the auspicious occasion of Your Majesties presence here to-day.

We are well aware of the deep interest Your Majesties display in all matters concerning the welfare of the inhabitants of Your Kingdom, and it is in consequence of that consideration that the inhabitants of this district have the honour, privilege and happiness of welcoming You this day.

We take this opportunity of assuring Your Majesties that Your visit here to-day is highly appreciated by the inhabitants, giving, as it does, an opportunity to them to display their loyalty and devotion.

We pray for Your Majesties a long, happy and glorious reign, and beg to assure you of our unbounded affection and loyalty.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you very sincerely for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the enthusiasm with which you have welcomed us. It gives the Queen and myself much pleasure to avail ourselves of this opportunity of visiting your ancient town, and of receiving the greetings of the Council and inhabitants of Barking.

Ever interested as the Queen and I are in the people and their well-being, we are fully alive to the paramount importance of increasing the supply of houses; and it has, therefore, been a source of special satisfaction to us to inspect the housing scheme which the London County Council are carrying out on their Becontree Estate. I am glad to learn that in respect of the needs of your own District, your Council have already built more than three hundred houses, and that schemes for further building are in preparation.

It is my earnest hope that the town of Barking and its industries may continue to grow and prosper.
