

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of July, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council of the 18th October, 1854, made under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, it was ordered that burials in (amongst other places) Maldon, in the County of Essex, should be discontinued as in the said Order in Council directed:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under the Burial Act, 1853, as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Maldon, Saint Mary, ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has made a Representation to His Majesty in Council, that, for the protection of the public health, so much of the said Order in Council of the 18th October, 1854, as relates to burials in the Parish of Maldon, Saint Mary, aforesaid, should be varied as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 31st May, 1923, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 9th July, 1923, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the Burial Act, 1853:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred upon Him by the said Acts, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 18th October, 1854, as relates to the Parish of Maldon, Saint Mary, aforesaid, shall be varied, so as to provide that except as hereinafter provided burials shall be discontinued in the Parish of Maldon, Saint Mary, as follows, viz.:—

MALDON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Mary and in the Churchyard attached thereto, except as follows:—In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard in which space remains for further interment the burial of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of July, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Aldbrough with Cowden Parva, in the East Riding of the County of York, 10 days previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Aldbrough in the said East Riding of the said County of York, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

ALDBROUGH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Bartholomew, Aldbrough, in the said Parish, and in the Churchyard attached thereto.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 10th day of September next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation, one month before the said 10th day of September.

M. P. A. Hankey.

Privy Council Office, 30th July, 1923.
