Westminster, 16th November, 1923.

This day the Lords being met a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod acquainting them that The Lords authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to the Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to:—

Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923.

Whitehall,

November, 1923.

The KING has been graciously pleased, by Royal Sign Manual Warrants, to give and grant unto George Frederick Montagu, of Ince Blundell Hall, Blundellsands, in the County of Lancaster, Esquire, Commander on the Retired List of the Royal Navy, and Mary Teresa, his wife, elder daughter of Charles Joseph Weld Blundell, of Ince Blundell Hall aforesaid, Esquire, J.P., and John Joseph Humphrey Weld, of Ince Blundell Hall aforesaid, Esquire, and Alice Mary, his wife, younger daughter of the said Charles Joseph Weld Blundell, His Royal Licence and authority that they respectively may take and use the surname of Weld Blundell instead of their own surname of Montagu or Weld, and that they may bear the arms of Weld Blundell quartered with their own arms, the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal Licences and permission to be void and of none effect. And to command that the said Royal Grants be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.
