

as the Southern Rhodesia (Annexation) Order in Council, 1923, it was provided that, from and after the coming into operation of that Order, the Protectorate of Southern Rhodesia should be annexed to and form part of His Majesty's Dominions and should be known as the Colony of Southern Rhodesia, which Order came into operation on the 12th day of September, 1923:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council and in virtue of the authority committed to Him by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, doth order that the said Acts shall apply in the Colony of Southern Rhodesia in the case of Germany in accordance with the Treaty concluded with that country on the 14th day of May, 1872, and in the case of the Powers and States set forth in the schedule to the Order of the 30th day of July, 1923, in accordance with the Treaties therein described, as supplemented by the Convention of the 4th May, 1910, for the suppression of the White Slave Traffic. This Order may be cited as "the Extradition (Southern Rhodesia) (White Slave Traffic) Order in Council, 1923," and shall come into operation from and after the 1st day of January, 1924.

Provided that where one of the Powers and States set forth in the said schedule has not notified its intention that the said Convention shall come into force in any of its Colonies, Possessions or Consular Judicial Districts by a declaration to that effect deposited in the archives of the Government of the French Republic, the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended in respect of any such Colonies, Possessions or Judicial Districts until such declaration shall have been so deposited, and no longer.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of December, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before his Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 8th day of November, 1923, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Newington, in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Canterbury:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Newington is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Provost and Fellows of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton near unto Windsor (hereinafter called 'the Provost and Fellows of Eton College'):

"And whereas the Provost and Fellows of Eton College are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Newington, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, now Archbishop of Canterbury, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Newington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Newington:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Provost and Fellows of Eton College (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Archiepiscopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Newington now vested in them, the Provost and Fellows of Eton College as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors in the same Archbishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us
