

duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 22nd day of November, 1923, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of one undivided moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘ the said Benefice ’) of Sedgford with Southmere, in the County of Norfolk and in the Diocese of Norwich:

“ Whereas the said undivided moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sedgford with Southmere is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Provost and Fellows of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton near unto Windsor (hereinafter called ‘ the Provost and Fellows of Eton College ’):

“ And whereas the Provost and Fellows of Eton College are desirous that the whole of the said undivided moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sedgford with Southmere, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich (hereinafter called ‘ the Dean and Chapter of Norwich ’) and their successors:

“ And whereas the Dean and Chapter of Norwich are willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such their willingness have executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Bertram, now Bishop of Norwich, is consenting to the transfer of Patronage which is hereinafter recommended and proposed and in token of such his consent which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Sedgford with Southmere which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parishes of Sedgford and Southmere:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Provost and Fellows of Eton College (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of Norwich (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole of the said undivided moiety of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sedgford with Southmere, now vested in them the Provost and Fellows of Eton College as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the Dean and Chapter of Norwich, and their successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Dean and Chapter of Norwich and their successors for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Norwich.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of December, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, and of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1921, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1922, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Act, 1919, and of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1921, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of two neighbouring Benefices, that is to say, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Peter, Stainforth, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint John the Evangelist, Langcliffe, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of York and in the Diocese of Bradford:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our
