

self offensively whilst in or upon any car or premises, or spit or commit any nuisance in or from or against any car or premises, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger. No person shall play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements or tracts of any kind; or beg or collect money, alms, or subscriptions, or sell any article, or play any game, or gamble, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car or premises.

OBJECTIONABLE PERSONS AND OFFENSIVE CLOTHING.

19. No person who is in a state of intoxication, and no person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the Conductor, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the car or the dress or clothing of any passenger, and no person who, in the opinion of the Conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall be allowed to enter or remain in or upon such car, and any such persons may be prevented from entering the car, and if found in or upon any car shall, on the request of the Conductor, leave the car upon the fare (if previously paid) being returned. Provided that on cars specially run for artisans, mechanics and daily labourers no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in or on a car, under the provisions of this Byelaw, on the ground of the condition of his dress or clothing, if such condition is solely due to the nature of his employment.

INFECTIOUS OR CONTAGIOUS DISEASE.

20. No person afflicted with any dangerous, infectious or contagious disorder or disease shall board, enter or travel on any car, or enter or remain on any premises, or attempt so to do, and no Driver or Conductor or other authorised officer of the Corporation shall suffer or permit any such person so to do.

No clothing or other article likely to spread any infectious or contagious disease or disorder shall be brought into or placed by any person on any car or premises, and any such person, clothing, or other article found in or upon any car or premises shall be removed from the car by or under the direction of the Conductor.

DAMAGING CARS.

21. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice or any advertisement in or on any car or premises, or mark, break or scratch any window, or place his feet upon or lie upon the seat of or otherwise wilfully damage any car or premises.

Any person acting in contravention of this Byelaw shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Byelaws, for the amount of any damage so done.

INTERFERENCE WITH THE DUTIES OF THE CONDUCTOR OR DRIVER.

22. No person shall wilfully obstruct, or impede, any Conductor, Driver or other servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any car or premises.

No person other than the Conductor or the Driver, or other responsible official, shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any other part of a car or its equipment, or ring or cause to be rung any of the signal bells in any car, so as to effect the unnecessary stoppage of any car, or signal a car to start by ringing the bell or otherwise.

PASSENGERS TO WAIT IN QUEUES.

23. On occasions when six or more persons being intending passengers by any cars are waiting to enter such cars or any of them at any stopping place or terminus at which the Corporation have erected barriers or posts for the purpose of regulating the formation of queues by intending passengers, they shall form up in a line or queue behind, within, or between such barriers or posts as the case may be, and no such intending passenger nor any other person shall take or endeavour to take any position in such line or queue when formed except in proper order behind the last person in such line or queue or shall enter or endeavour to enter any such car otherwise than in the order in which he was entitled to take up his position as aforesaid.

SPECIAL CARS.

24. No male person shall unless duly authorised by the Corporation mount or attempt to mount upon any car which is run and reserved by the Corporation for female persons only, and on which a notice to that effect is conspicuously exhibited.

In any case in which a car is run and reserved for any special purpose, which shall be indicated by a notice conspicuously exhibited upon such car, no person other than the person or persons for whose conveyance the same car is reserved shall mount or attempt to mount upon such car.

SHELTERS AND WAITING ROOMS.

25. No persons other than intending passengers and servants of the Corporation shall enter any shelter or waiting room provided for the accommodation of intending passengers and servants of the Corporation.

DISABLED CARS.

26. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way damaged or injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the Conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid, but shall have the right to complete their journey by the next available car. No person shall, except with the leave of the Conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

BYELAWS TO BE EXHIBITED ON CARS, &c.

27. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use and upon all premises a printed copy of these Byelaws.
