TUESDAY, 17 JUNE, 1924.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of February, 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Treaty, Capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in Bahrein:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890 (53 & 54 Vict. c. 87), or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Bahrein (Amendment) Order in Council, 1924," and shall be read as one with "The Bahrein Order in Council, 1913" (S.R. & O., 1913, No. 891), in this Order referred to as "the Principal Order," and with any Order amending the same.

2. The following provisions are respectively substituted for Articles 21 (1) and 22 (1) and (4) of the Principal Order:—

21.—(1) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the District Court, that any person to whom this Order applies has committed, or is about to commit, an offence against this Order, or is otherwise conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of Bahrein and His Majesty, or is intriguing within the limits of this Order against His Majesty's power and authority, the Court may, if it thinks fit, by Order under its seal, prohibit that person from being within the limits of this Order, during any time therein specified, not exceeding two years.

22.—(1) If any person to whom this Order applies fails to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace when lawfully required to do so, or fails to comply with an order of prohibition made under this Order, the Chief Court or the District Court may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from any place within its jurisdiction as prescribed by this Order.

22.—(4) The place shall be a place in that part of His Majesty's dominions, or in the British Protectorate, to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order, or in the country of which the person deported is a national, as the Court may think fit.

3. From and after the commencement of this Order Articles 21 (1) and 22 (1) and (4) of the Principal Order are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not prejudice any rights, obligations or liabilities accrued thereunder.

4.—(1) This Order shall take effect as soon as it is first exhibited in the office of the Political Agent, and that date is in this Order referred to as the commencement of the Order.

(2) For that purpose the Political Agent shall, on the receipt by him of a certified printed copy of the Order cause the same to be affixed and exhibited conspicuously in that
