The Superannuation System which by this clause is incorporated into and forms part of these Statutes shall extend and apply to all the dividends and stipends from time to time received by any person appointed to some or one of the pensionable offices in respect of the following offices

(2) When any Fellow not holding nor having held any of the pensionable offices shall after the date of the making of this Statute be appointed to some or one of the offices of Tutor Assistant Tutor or College Lecturer and shall while holding some or one of the last mentioned offices attain the age of sixty years he shall at the beginning of the next annual meeting after he attains the age of sixty years vacate any of the last mentioned offices held by him. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Statute a Fellow who under this Statute becomes subject to the Superannuation System shall subject to the provision hereinafter made in this Section become a Supernumerary Fellow at the next annual meeting after he attains the age of sixty years. Provided that no Fellow who shall at the next

(7) Neither the vacation of a Fellowship under Chapter IV nor the deprivation of a Fellowship under Chapter VII of the Statutes in force at the date of the making of this Statute shall operate so as to cause the vacation or forfeiture of any pension or superannuation allowance actually being received by or due to a Fellow under the Superannuation System or of any claim to or interest in the realisable value at the date of such vacation or deprivation of any provision being made for his pension or superannuation allowance by way of insurance or otherwise under the Superannuation System. In the event of suspension from the emoluments of a Fellowship under Chapter VII the College shall nevertheless continue during the period of the suspension to make all contributions that may be necessary to preserve unimpaired the benefits accruing under the Superannuation System.

(8) Nothing contained in the Statutes in force at the date of the making of this Statute shall operate to prevent the Mastership from being held together with any pension or superannuation allowance which has accrued or may accrue under the Superannuation System.

INSTRUCTIONAL CIRCULAR.

TO ACCOMPANY THE TRADE BOARDS (STAMPED OR PRESSED METAL-WARES) ORDER, 1924.

1. It has been represented to the Minister of Labour that it might prove of assistance to employers and workers and others concerned in the application of the Trade Boards Acts if, in suitable cases, when he makes an Order applying the Acts to a trade for the first time, or when he makes an Order varying the existing description of a trade contained in an Order made under the said Acts, some information were given by a departmental Instructional Circular as to his understanding of the scope of the Order.

2. An authoritative interpretation of the Trade Boards Acts and/or of Orders made thereunder can be given only by the Courts of Law. For this reason, as the Department has always indicated, the views of the Minister in every case of this kind must necessarily be regarded as of a provisional character since the scope of his authority in this respect is confined to the institution of proceedings, with a view to obtaining the decision of the Courts, in cases in which it seems to the Minister that a breach of the Trade Boards Acts or Orders has occurred. Subject to this reservation, and on the understanding that any views which he may express provisionally as to the inclusion within, or exclusion from, the scope of the Acts and/or Orders made thereunder of any trade, process, operation, article or of any class of worker, are given on the information at the time in his possession and are subject to revision in the light of further information, the Minister makes the observations which follow in paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 below, for the guidance of all concerned in the application of the Trade Boards (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order, 1924.

3. Under the Order of 1924, of which a copy is given below, the description of the trade contained in the Order of 29th October, 1919, is varied by the substitution therefor of the description set out in the Appendix. The following illustrations (which must not be taken as exhaustive or complete) are given of the terms therein employed:—

In paragraph (1) of the Appendix to the Order, the phrase "metal small wares" may be held to include the following articles:—

Cabinet, etc., fittings.

(i) blind, cabinet or window fittings; curtain accessories; shop fitters' sundries:

Door, etc., fittings.

(ii) door or door-lock fittings or furniture (including escutcheons, finger-plates, handles, key-hole plates, knobs, knockers, letter-plates, number-plates, numerals, roses and any other door or door-lock fittings or furniture whether or not similar to the articles specified);

Light fittings.

(iii) brackets, chandeliers, electroliers, pendants or standards for electric or gas light; gas burners;

Bag fittings, etc.

(iv) fittings or frames for attache cases, hat-boxes, suit cases, trunks; trunk furniture; fittings or frames (including locks which are part of such fittings) for cutlery cases, jewel cases, purses, betting bags, brief-bags, cash-bags, cricket-bags, hand-bags, kit-bags, tennis-bags, or similar bags

Umbrella fittings, etc.

(v) ferrules; sunshade or umbrella furniture, namely, caps, ferrules, notches, runners, tip-cups, tips, mounts for sunshades, umbrellas or walking-sticks; whip mounts;

Clothing fittings, etc.

(vi) badges, fittings, letters, numerals and ornaments (other than medals and other similar orders and decorations) for use on belts, clothing or headgear; braces or suspenders used as articles of clothing; buckles; corset busks, steels and tips;

Bedstead mounts, etc.

(vii) mounts or ornaments for bedsteads or fenders; fender supports;

Toilet sundries, etc.

(viii) druggists' or toilet sundries (including bath fittings, lids for non-metal jars or other non-metal receptacles, screw stoppers, shaving stick cases, soap boxes, ointment boxes, and any other druggists' or toilet sundries, whether or not similar to the articles specified); safety razors (excluding the blades); shaving sets;

Smokers' sundries, etc.

(ix) smokers' or tobacconists' sundries (including ash-trays, automatic lighters, cigar cutters, cigarette cases, fittings for pipe-racks, smokers' cabinets or tobacco jars; match-box covers, match-stands, match-strikers, pipe-covers, pipe-scrappers and any other smokers' or tobacconists' sundries, whether or not similar to the articles specified);

Stationers' sundries.

(x) stationers' sundries (including drawing pins, fountain pen clips, ink-bottle covers, letter or paper clips, or fasteners, mathematical instruments wholly manufactured or stamped or pressed parts, pencil cases, pen holders, pen tips, shelf clips, ticket suspenders and any other stationers' sundries, whether or not similar to the articles specified);

Cycle or motor-cycle accessories.

(xi) cycle or motor-cycle accessories (including bells, brake-cable clips, lamp-brackets, luggage carriers and clips, oil-cans, pump-clips, spanners, toe-clips, trouser-clips, watch-holders, and any other cycle or motor-cycle accessories, whether or not similar to the articles specified).

Miscellaneous articles.

4. It will be noted that the description of the Trade, after enumerating in seven paragraphs processes or operations included in the scope of the Order, proceeds to enumerate certain exclusions. It may be convenient if the scope of Exclusion (i) is illustrated by the following examples:—

(a) A cabinet maker who manufactures his own fittings is outside the scope of the Order as regards the production of any fittings which are incorporated with or fitted to the cabinets made in his own establishment, but if any fittings (produced by the processes, etc., defined in paras. 1-6) are sold by him as fittings, then their manufacture is within the scope of the Order.

(b) The same remarks would apply to the manufacturer of made-up leather goods (attaché cases, etc.) making fittings for incorporation with his products.

(c) Similarly, these remarks would apply in the case of an umbrella maker who also manufactures fittings for the umbrellas he makes.

It should be carefully noted, however, that exclusion (i) is subject to provisos (a) and (b) thereof, which are self-explanatory.

5. In addition to exclusions covered by the general terms of Exclusion (i), note should be taken of the specific exclusions in paras. (ii) to (xv); these require no explanation.

In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service, and will consult, so far as possible, the wishes of Departments for the assignment of particular candidates who have served under them. Subject to these conditions, the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be respected.
