THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1894.

SAFFRON WALDEN FAIRS.

Whereas a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department by the Saffron Walden Town Council to the effect that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the Fairs which have been held annually on the Saturday before and the Monday following Mid-Lent Sunday and on the first Saturday in November and the Monday following at Saffron Walden in the County of Essex should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I would take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1871:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

Now therefore, I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1871, do hereby order that the Fairs which have been held annually on the Saturday before and the Monday following Mid-Lent Sunday and on the first Saturday in November and the Monday following at Saffron Walden in the County of Essex shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of September, 1924.
