TUESDAY, 21 OCTOBER, 1924.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 16th day of April, 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by certain Letters Patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bearing date at Westminster the First day of October, 1880, Her Majesty Queen Victoria did constitute the Office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Trinidad and its Dependencies (therein called the Colony), and did amongst other things provide for the establishment of a Legislative Council for the said Colony, and did further reserve to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, full authority, with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, from time to time to make all such laws as might appear to Her or them necessary for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony:

And whereas by an Order of Her said Majesty in Council, bearing date the Seventeenth day of November, 1888, it was ordered that from and after the First day of January, 1889, the Colony of Trinidad and its Dependencies and the Colony of Tobago should be united into and constitute one Colony, which should be called the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago, and that from and after the same day the said recited Letters Patent should, subject to the provisions of the said Order, apply to the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago:

And whereas by a further Order of Her said Majesty in Council bearing date the Twentieth day of October, 1898, the aforesaid Order in Council was amended:

And whereas His Majesty has this day, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, been pleased to direct that Letters Patent be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the purpose of providing for the Government of the said Colony of Trinidad and Tobago, as in the said Letters Patent more fully appears, and the draft of the said Letters Patent has this day been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Trinidad and Tobago (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924.

II. This Order shall apply to the Colony of Trinidad and Tobago (hereinafter referred to as the Colony).

III. In this Order "His Majesty" includes His Majesty's Heirs and Successors; "Secretary of State" means one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; "Governor" means the Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony and includes every person for the time being administering the Government of the Colony; "the Council" means the Legislative Council established by or under the provisions of the last hereinbefore recited Letters Patent, which Council shall be known as "the Legislative Council of Trinidad and Tobago."

IV. The Council shall consist of the Governor as President, twelve Official Members and thirteen Unofficial Members.

V. The Official Members of the Council shall be the persons from time to time lawfully discharging the functions of the respective offices of Colonial Secretary, Attorney-General and Treasurer of the Colony (herein referred to as ex officio Members), and such other persons holding Public Office under the Crown in the Colony, and not exceeding nine in number at any one time (herein referred to as Nominated Official Members) as the Governor may from time to time nominate and appoint by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony subject to confirmation or disallowance by His Majesty signified through a Secretary of State.

VI. The Unofficial Members of the Council shall be—

(1) Such persons not holding public office under the Crown in the Colony and not exceeding six in number at any one time (herein referred to as Nominated Unofficial Members), as the Governor may from time to time nominate and appoint by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, subject to confirmation or disallowance by His Majesty signified through a Secretary of State.

(2) Seven persons to be elected as herein-after provided (herein referred to as Elected Members).

VII. The Governor shall without delay report to His Majesty, for His confirmation or disallowance, to be signified through a Secretary of State, every appointment of any person as a Nominated Member of the Council. Every such person shall hold his place on the Council during His Majesty's pleasure.

VIII. The Nominated Members of the Council shall vacate their seats at the next dissolution of the Council after their appointment, unless previously removed by virtue of instructions or warrant or warrants under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, but may be reappointed by the Governor by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, subject to His Majesty's approval signified through a Secretary of State.

Provided that if any Nominated Official Member of the Council ceases to hold Public Office under the Crown in the Colony, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant.

IX. Any person holding a public office under the Crown in the Colony may be required to serve as a Nominated Official Member of the Council, and if any such person having been appointed by the Governor a Member shall decline to act in that capacity he shall ipso facto vacate his office.

X.—(1) Whenever the seat of a Nominated Member shall become vacant, or whenever any Nominated Member shall, with the permission of the Governor, resign his seat in the Council by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor, or shall die, or be suspended from the exercise of his functions as a Member of the Council, or be declared by the Governor by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony to be incapable of exercising his functions as a Member of the Council, or be temporarily absent from the Colony, or being a Nominated Official Member shall either permanently or temporarily become an ex officio Member of the Council or shall be on leave of absence granted by the Governor, the Governor may, by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, provisionally appoint in his place some person to be temporarily a Member of the Council.

(2) The Governor shall without delay report to His Majesty for His confirmation or disallowance signified through a Secretary of State every provisional appointment of any person as a Nominated Member of the Council. Every such person shall hold his place in the Council during His Majesty's pleasure and every such provisional appointment may be disallowed by His Majesty through a Secretary of State or may be revoked by the Governor by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony.

(3) Every person so provisionally appointed shall be to all intents and purposes a Member of the Council until his appointment shall be disallowed, or revoked, or superseded by the definitive appointment of a Nominated Member of the Council, or until the person in whose place he has been appointed shall be relieved from suspension, or declared by the Governor by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony to be capable of exercising the functions of a Member of the Council, or shall return to the Colony, or shall cease to be an ex officio Member, or shall resume the duties of his Public Office, as the case may be.

XI. If any Nominated Member of the Council, when duly summoned to attend, absents himself without sufficient cause, and persists in such absence, after being thereof admonished by the Governor, the Governor is to suspend such Member until His Majesty's pleasure therein be known, giving immediate notice thereof to His Majesty through a Secretary of State.

XII. If any Nominated Unofficial Member of the Council shall, without the leave of the Governor previously obtained, be absent from the sittings of the Council for three months, or shall make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance to any Foreign State, or Power, or shall become a citizen or subject of any Foreign State or Power, or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall be sentenced in any part of His Majesty's dominions to death or penal servitude, or to imprisonment with hard labour or for a term exceeding twelve months, or shall have any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any contract with the Government of the Colony for or on account of the public service otherwise than as a member and in common with the other members of an incorporated company consisting of more than twenty-five persons, or shall accept any office of emolument under the Crown or under the Government of the Colony, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant.

XIII.—(1) The Governor may, by an Instrument under the Public Seal of the Colony, suspend any Nominated Member from the exercise of his functions as a Member of the Council.

(2) Every such suspension shall be forthwith reported by the Governor to a Secretary of State, and shall remain in force unless and until either it shall be removed by the Governor by an Instrument under the said Seal, or it shall be disallowed by His Majesty through a Secretary of State, and such disallowance shall be published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette.

XIV. The Members of the Council shall take precedence as His Majesty may specially assign and, in default thereof, first the ex officio Members in the order in which their respective offices are above mentioned; secondly, the Nominated Official Members according to the priority of their respective appointments to the Council, or if appointed by the same Instrument, according to the order in which they are named therein; thirdly, the Unofficial Members in order of date of appointment or election, or if appointed or elected on the same day, according to the alphabetical order of their names. Provided always that every such Member re-appointed or re-elected on the termination of his term of office shall take precedence according to the date from which he has been continuously a Member of the Council.

XV.—(1) No Member of the Council shall sit or vote therein until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Council:—

"I, A.B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George the Fifth, His Heirs and successors according to law.

"So. help me God."

(2) Provided that every person authorised by law to make an affirmation or declaration instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration instead of the said oath.

XVI. The Elected Members shall be elected by persons duly qualified as electors as hereinafter provided.

XVII. For the purposes of the election of Members the Colony shall be divided into the following seven Electoral Districts:—

1. City of Port-of-Spain (as defined by the Port-of-Spain Corporation Ordinance, 1914, or any enactment amending the same).
2. County of St. George (exclusive of the City of Port-of-Spain).
3. County of Caroni.
4. County of Victoria.
5. County of St. Patrick.
6. Counties of St. David, St. Andrew, Nariva and Mayaro.
7. Ward of Tobago.

One Member shall be elected for each of the said districts.

XVIII. No person shall be qualified to be elected a Member of the Council or, having been elected, to sit or vote in the Council unless—

- (ii) A clear annual income of over 400*l.* arising from any source.

Provided that—

(1) A person shall not be entitled to be elected or to be a member of the Council for any electoral district unless he is resident in that district and has resided therein for the twelve months immediately preceding the date of election, or possesses in that electoral district real estate belonging to him in his own right of the value of at least 5,000*l.* above all charges and encumbrances affecting the same, or from which he derives a clear annual income of not less than 400*l.*

(2) A person shall not be entitled to be elected or to be a member of the Council if he is the holder of any office of emolument under the Crown or under the Government of the Colony, or is a Minister of Religion.

The term "Minister of Religion" in this clause and in clause XX. of this Order means any clergyman, minister, priest, or other person who exercises spiritual functions or performs the offices of religion for or in respect to any Christian or other church, community, or body within the Colony.

The term "office of emolument" in this clause does not include a pension or other allowance to an officer who has ceased to be in the service of the Crown or under the Government of the Colony.

XIX. Every person who, having been returned as an Elected Member of the Council, but not having been at the time of his election qualified to be an Elected Member, shall sit or vote in the Council, shall for every day on which he sits or votes, and every person who shall sit or vote in the Council after his seat has become vacant shall for every day on which he sits or votes after his seat has become vacant, be liable to a penalty of 20*l.* to be recovered by action in the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago by any person who shall sue for the same.

XX. If any Elected Member of the Council shall die, or shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Governor, resign his seat in the Council, or shall cease to possess a property or income qualification as required by clause XVIII. of this Order, or shall, without the leave of the Governor previously obtained, be absent from the sittings of the Council for three months, or shall make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance to any Foreign State or Power, or shall become a citizen or subject of any Foreign State or Power, or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall be sentenced in any part of His Majesty's dominions to death or penal servitude, or to imprisonment with hard labour or for a term exceeding twelve months, or shall have any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any contract with the Government of the Colony for or on account of the Public Service otherwise than as a Member and in common with the other Members of an incorporated company consisting of more than twenty-five persons, or shall accept any office of emolument under the Crown or under the Government of the Colony, or shall become a Minister of Religion, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant.

Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the seat of an Elected Member has become vacant, the Governor shall, as soon as possible, issue a writ for the election of a new member in the place of the member whose seat has become vacant.

XXI. All questions which may arise as to the right of any person to be or remain an Elected Member of the Council shall be referred to and decided by the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago.

(1) is in occupation, as owner, of premises assessed to any house rate, or taxes under section 3 of the Lands and Buildings Taxes Ordinance, 1920, at an annual rateable value of not less than 12*l.* 10*s.* in Port-of-Spain or any Borough and 10*s.* elsewhere, or is in occupation, as tenant, of premises in respect of which he or she really and bonâ fide pays rent at a rate not less than 12*l.* 10*s.* per annum in Port-of-Spain or any Borough, and 10*l.* per annum elsewhere; or

(2) is in occupation, as a lodger, of lodgings, and as such lodger has paid during the preceding twelve months not less than 12*l.* 10*s.* for rent alone, or not less than 62*l.* 10*s.* for rent and board combined; and has also resided in such lodgings during the whole of such period; or

(4) is in receipt of an annual salary of not less than 62*l.* 10*s.*

Provided that—

(a) When the qualifying property in (1) is jointly occupied by more persons than one, then each of such occupiers shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such property, if the annual rateable value at which the property is assessed to the house rate or taxes is an amount which, when divided by the number of occupiers, shall give not less than 12*l.* 10*s.* or 10*l.*, as the case may be, for each such occupier.

(b) When the qualifying property in (3) is jointly occupied by more persons than one, then each of such occupiers shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such property if the amount payable in taxes in respect of such property is an amount which, when divided by the number of occupiers, shall give not less than 10*s.* a year for each such occupier.

XXIII. No person shall be entitled to be registered as a voter if—

(c) he or she has been adjudged by a competent Court to be of unsound mind.

XXIV. As soon as possible after the coming into operation of this Order a register shall be made in each of the said electoral districts of the persons entitled to vote at the election of Members of the Council, and shall come into force at such time as shall be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation to be published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette. Thereafter a fresh register shall be made triennially in each such district, and every such register shall come into force at such time as shall be appointed by any law enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council.

No person who is not registered as a voter shall vote at any such election.

XXV. For the purpose of every general election of Members of the Council, and for the purpose of the election of members to supply vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise, the Governor shall issue writs of election under the Public Seal of the Colony, addressed to the returning officers of the respective electoral districts for which members are to be returned. Every such writ shall specify the day and place of election, and the day on which it is returnable to the Governor; upon receipt of such writ the returning officer shall proceed to hold the election thereby directed; and after such election he shall certify the return of the member elected by endorsement on the writ, and shall return the writ so endorsed to the Governor within the time for that purpose specified therein. He shall also, as soon as possible, give public notice of the candidate elected, and in the case of a contested election of the number of votes given for each candidate whether elected or not.

XXVI. In the case of a poll at an election of a Member of the Council the votes shall be given by ballot. The ballot of each voter shall consist of a paper (in this Order called a ballot paper) showing the names and description of the candidates. Each ballot paper shall have a number printed on the back, and shall have attached to it a counterfoil with the same number printed on the face. At the time of voting the ballot paper shall be marked on both sides with an official mark and delivered to the voter within the polling station, and the number of such voter on the register of voters shall be marked on the counterfoil, and the voter having secretly marked his or her vote on the paper, and folded up the paper so as to conceal his or her vote, shall place it in a closed box in the presence of the officer presiding at the polling station after having shown to him the official mark at the back.

Any ballot paper which has not on its back the official mark, or on which a vote is given to more than one candidate, or on which anything except the said number on the back is written or marked, by which the voter can be identified, shall be void and not counted.

After the close of the poll the ballot boxes shall be sealed so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers and shall be taken charge of by the returning officer, who shall, in the presence of such agents (if any) of the candidates as may be in attendance, open the ballot boxes and ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes given to each candidate, and shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidate to whom the majority of the votes have been given.

The decision of the returning officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final, subject to reversal on petition questioning the election or return.

XXVII. Whenever there is an equality of votes between candidates at any election of a Member of the Council, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer, if he is a registered elector of the electoral district for which the election is held, may give such additional vote, but the returning officer shall not, in any other case, be entitled to vote at an election for which he is the returning officer.

XXVIII. A petition complaining of an undue return or undue election of a Member of the Council, in this Order called an election petition, may be presented to the Supreme Court by any one or more of the following persons, that is to say,—(1) some person who voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates, (2) some person claiming to have had a right to be returned at such election, (3) some person alleging himself to have been a candidate at such election.

XXIX. Every election petition shall be tried before the Supreme Court in the same manner as a suit commenced by a writ of summons. At the conclusion of the trial, the Chief Justice shall determine whether the Member of Council whose return or election is complained of or any and what other person was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify such determination to the Governor, and, upon such certificate being given, such determination shall be final; and the return shall be confirmed or altered, or a writ for a new election shall be issued, as the case may require, in accordance with such determination.

XXX. At the trial of an election petition the Chief Justice shall, subject to the provisions of this Order or of any Proclamation to be made by the Governor, have the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority, and witnesses shall be subpoenaed and sworn in the same manner, as nearly as circumstances will admit, as in a trial of a civil action in the Supreme Court, and shall be subject to the same penalties for perjury.

XXXI. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the election of Members of the Council shall be held and the registration of voters for the election of such members shall be effected at such times, in such places, and in such manner and form, and by such officers, and with such provisions for ascertaining the qualifications of voters and candidates, and all questions and disputes arising with regard to any such matters shall be determined by such tribunals and in such manner, as may from time to time be ordained by any law or laws enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council, and in the meantime, and until provisions have been made for the purposes aforesaid by the enactment of any such law or laws as aforesaid, as shall be directed by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by the Governor and published in the Trinidad Royal Gazette. Every Proclamation made in pursuance of this clause shall from the publication thereof have the same force and effect as if it had been a Law enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council as aforesaid.

XXXII. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of bribery within the meaning of this Order:—

(1) Every person who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, gives, lends, or agrees to give or lend, or offers, promises, or promises to procure or to endeavour to procure, any money or valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person in order to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting, or corruptly does any such act as aforesaid on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election.

use of any other person, with the intent that such money, or any part thereof, shall be expended in bribery at any election, or who knowingly pays or causes to be paid, any money to any person in discharge or repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any election.

(6) Every voter who, before or during any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person in his behalf, receives, agrees, or contracts for any money, gift, loan, or valuable consideration, office, place, or employment for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any election.

(7) Every person who, after any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any election.

XXXIII. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of treating within the meaning of this Order:—

(1) Every person who corruptly, by himself or by any other person, either before, during, or after an election, directly or indirectly, gives or provides or pays wholly or in part the expense of giving or providing any food, drink, entertainment, or provision to or for any person for the purpose of corruptly influencing that person, or any other person, to vote or to refrain from voting, at such election, or on account of such person or any other person having voted or refrained from voting at such election.

(2) Every voter who corruptly accepts or takes any such food, drink, entertainment, or provision.

XXXV. Every person who at an election applies for a ballot paper in the name of another person, whether that name be the name of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person, or who, having voted once at any election, applies at the same election for a ballot paper
