FREDERIC WILLIAM GARSTON, Deceased.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice dated the 24th March, 1924, made in an action in the matter of the estate of Frederic William Garston, deceased (late of 23, Finsbury Park-road, Middlesex, who died on the 19th April, 1922), Williams v. Dawe, 1924, G. 506, whereby an enquiry was directed to ascertain "Who upon the death of Frederic William Garston became beneficially entitled to any personal estate of his as to which he died intestate, and if more than one, in what shares and proportions, and whether any such persons are since dead, and if so, when they died, and who are their respective legal personal representatives." Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said enquiry are, on or before the 24th January, 1925, to send by post, prepaid, to Cecil John Rawlinson, 47, New Broad-street, London, E.C. 2, their full names and addresses and full particulars of their claims, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the said order unless the Court or Judge on application otherwise orders. Claimants are to attend personally or by their Solicitor before Master Hulbert, at the Chambers of the Judge, Room No. 315, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Friday, 30th January, 1925, at 12.30 in the afternoon, being the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims. A claimant not residing in England or Wales must send with particulars of his claim the name and address of a person in England or Wales to whom notice to the claimant can be sent.—Dated 4th December, 1924.

A. HULBERT, Master.

NOTE.—Frederic William Garston, the intestate, was the only child of Benjamin Broad Garston and his wife Ann, née Blakeman. Persons interested may be traced through his paternal and maternal grandparents. His father was a son of William and Catherine Garstone, of Hereford, and his mother was a daughter of John Blakeman, and his wife Anne (née Gerrard), of Melcombe Regis, Dorset. Amongst those sought are the issue, if any, of intestates, aunts Louisa Gerrard Blakeman and Eliza Blakeman.
