Whitehall, 27th December, 1924.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to John Krull and Frederick Oliver, employed by Messrs. G. E. Weston & Sons, of 42, Welcome Square, London, E.C., in the following circumstances:—

On September 27th, 1924, while workmen were engaged on sinking shafts at the Electrical Engineering Works of Messrs. Johnson and Phillips, at Charlton, one of them named Timpson descended a shaft which was about 26 feet in depth. He was overcome by gas and lay unconscious at the bottom. A fellow worker named Bass attempted to reach him but was affected by the gas before reaching the bottom of the shaft and was compelled to return to the surface. Oliver, a foreman, then attempted a rescue. He tied a handkerchief over his mouth and descended the shaft but was overcome on reaching the bottom and collapsed. Krull, knowing that Timpson and Oliver were unconscious in the shaft, dipped a muffler in water and tied it round his mouth and nostrils. With a rope round his body he descended the shaft and succeeded in bringing up Timpson. He then went down a second time and brought Oliver also to the surface. Timpson unfortunately was beyond aid but Oliver, though unconscious when he reached the surface, eventually responded to treatment.

Both Krull and Oliver performed a very brave action. Krull had been a miner and was well aware of the risk he was running. He knew that three men had been overcome by the gas and he was undoubtedly the means of saving Oliver's life. Oliver, too, showed great courage in his attempted rescue of Timpson at the risk of his own life.

COMMISSION FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGE SUFFERED IN TURKEY.

By a Convention, between the United Kingdom, France, Italy and Japan, signed in Paris on November 23, 1923, it was agreed, to devote jointly, to the reparation of the damage, suffered by their nationals, the sums in gold referred to in Article 58 of the Treaty of Lausanne, and, by the same Convention the British Government agreed to devote, to the same purpose, the 5 per cent Turkish Treasury Bills (1911) of the nominal value of £846,100 which the British Treasury had purchased from the holders in 1914, and, by the same Convention, it was further agreed, that a Commission should be set up, within one month of the coming into force of the Treaty of Lausanne, to assess damages suffered by the nationals of the Contracting Powers, i.e., as follows:—

(a) Direct damage in respect of persons or property (other than that referred to in sub-section 2 of Article 6 of the Convention) suffered on territory which was Ottoman on the 1st August, 1914 or at sea, between the 1st August, 1914, and 6th August, 1924, as the result of any act or negligence of the Turkish Government including damage resulting from measures of requisition, sequestration or confiscation and, also, direct damage suffered on the same territory between the dates named as the result of any acts of war whatever party may have been the author of such acts:

(b) Direct damage caused by the fire of Smyrna, to the rights and property of the nationals of the Contracting Powers (but subject to the terms of para (b) of sub-section 1 of Article 6 of the Convention);

(c) The damage referred to in paras. (a) and (b) suffered, on territory remaining Turkish, at the date of the coming into force of the Treaty of Lausanne, by Ottoman Companies in which the nationals of the Contracting Powers had a preponderating interest on the 1st August, 1914, (but subject to a deduction of the value of advantages of an economic character referred to in sub-section 1 of Article 6 of the Convention).

By the same Convention the Commission is precluded from dealing with claims in respect of the following categories of damage:—

(a) Indirect damage, including deprivation of the use of property and loss of profits.

(b) Claims relating to amounts payable by the Hellenic Government in accordance with the Convention of the 24th July, 1923;

(c) The claims of concessionary companies, on account of the utilisation by the Turkish Government, of their property, or of their services, which are to be settled by the Turkish Government, as provided in the Protocols and Declarations forming part of the Turkish Peace Settlement.

This Commission was duly set up on the 6th August, 1924, and has established its headquarters in Paris, where it is now prepared to receive claims from nationals of the Contracting Powers (including persons protected by the Contracting Powers in cases where the patent of protection is of a date prior to the 1st August, 1914).

Such claims together with all documents and evidence in support thereof should be sent to the Commission, addressed to the Delegate of the nationality concerned, at the headquarters of the Commission, 66, rue Boissière, Paris (XVI ème) France, and should reach the delegate concerned not later than the 6th August, 1925 (the last day for the reception of claims provided by Article 5 of the Convention).
