

excused from this requirement in consequence of his having received a dispensation under this clause.

9. All applications for dispensations under clause 8 must be sent in to the Registrar of the University, for the Committee, through the Society to which the applicant belongs or intends to belong. The decision of the Committee in regard to any such application shall be final. All dispensations granted by the Committee shall be published in the usual manner.

10. Any person who has been given dispensation from the requirements of cl. 3 or cl. 4 only after he has come into residence shall be permitted to reckon as part of his statutory residence any period, not exceeding one Term, during which he has resided before his Matriculation within two and a half miles of Carfax under conditions approved by his Society.

11. The Committee shall consist of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, together with six members of Congregation, each of whom shall hold office for three years and be re-eligible. Of these six, three shall be appointed by Congregation, and three (of whom two at least shall be members of the Hebdomadal Council) by the Hebdomadal Council. One of the members to be appointed by Congregation, and one of the members to be appointed by the Hebdomadal Council, shall be appointed in Trinity Term of each year, and shall come into office on the first day of the succeeding Michaelmas Term.

12. The Committee shall make Regulations governing its action, subject to the approval of the Hebdomadal Council and of Convocation.

If any such Regulation is not approved by the Hebdomadal Council, and if after consultation between the Committee and the Council agreement is not reached, the Committee shall have power nevertheless to require the Council to submit the said Regulation to Convocation, provided that at least six members of the Committee concur in such requisition; and the Regulation, if approved by Convocation, shall thereupon take effect as though it had been approved by the Hebdomadal Council also."

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Oxford concerning the University Entrance Examination, the said Statute being a Statute wholly for the University within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, Section 30. as set out in the Schedule to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923.

Given under our Common Seal this Eleventh day of June, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

(L.S.)

Privy Council Office,
26th June, 1925.

The following Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners, and sealed on the 11th day of June, 1925, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923."

A STATUTE for All Souls College, concerning the form of Accounts of the College and the Audit and Publication thereof: and concerning other matters.

1. The Warden and Fellows shall cause proper books of account to be kept, in which shall be entered:—

i. All receipts and payments on account of or authorised by the College, whether from and to persons being members of the College or from and to any other person whomsoever;

ii. All debts and liabilities contracted by or to the College or by or to any person on account or by authority of the College;

iii. A statement in detail of all property of every kind or description held by or in trust for the College.

2. The books shall include:—

(a) A register of all the property of the College, showing the description, situation, amount, rental or other annual value, of every property; the fixed charges on it (if any); and in the case of stocks or other securities the names in which and the accounts to which the same are standing;

(b) A roll of rents, rentcharges, dividends, and other annual income, showing the amounts receivable and those actually received during the year, and the arrears (if any) at the beginning and at the close of the account;

(c) A cash book or cash books containing a record of all cash transactions;

(d) A ledger or ledgers.

And also such other books as may be necessary or convenient for regularly recording all such receipts and payments and other matters and things as aforesaid, and for enabling the several accounts to be duly checked and balanced, and the correctness of the abstracts, for the publication of which provision is hereinafter made, to be ascertained and verified.

3. Separate accounts shall be kept of all property held in trust for any purpose other than the general purposes of the College, and of receipts and payments in respect of such property.

4. The College accounts shall be audited once at least in every year. The Warden and Fellows shall appoint for that purpose an Auditor or Auditors. One person so appointed shall be a professional Accountant carrying on business in London or Westminster. The Auditor or Auditors shall report in writing to the Warden and Fellows whether the accounts of the College are duly kept in proper books of account in conformity with the provisions of this Statute, and whether the Abstracts and Balance Sheets prepared pursuant to the provisions of this Statute contain a full and true account of the financial condition of the College. It shall be lawful for the Auditor or any Auditor to report specially as to any payment which they or he may judge to have been made without sufficient authority. The expense of the audit (including payment to any clerk or clerks whose assistance the Auditor
