

5. To authorise the Company to construct, lay down, repair, take up, alter, relay or renew within the limits of supply, mains, pipes, culverts and other works for the purpose of procuring, conducting and disposing of oil and other materials.

6. To make provision as to the declaration by the Company from time to time of the calorific value or values of the gas to be supplied by them and the alteration of such calorific value or values, and to make provision as to the pressure and quality of the gas to be supplied by the Company.

7. To prescribe prices or a standard price and rates or standard rates of dividend with a sliding scale or scales of dividend dependent upon the price charged for gas.

8. To authorise the Company to charge for gas supplied within such parts of the limits of supply as the Order may define such differential prices as the Order may prescribe and to provide that such prices shall not be taken into account in determining the dividend payable by the Company.

9. To empower the Company to vary the price of gas in different circumstances, and to make special charges in the case of stand-by supplies.

10. To make provision with reference to the construction, placing, specification and inspection of pipes and fittings, the cutting off of supplies, expenses of reconnecting supplies, entry on premises to which a supply of gas is laid on, removal of fittings, fittings let on hire, the period of error in defective meters, charges for special readings of meters, mains of insufficient capacity, the terms and conditions on which gas shall be supplied in certain cases, and the notices to be given to or by the Company, or their consumers.

11. To make special provision and to impose special obligations on consumers with respect to the construction, providing, repair, inspection, and use of anti-fluctuators in connection with the working of engines and of valves and other appliances in cases when air is used at high-pressure in connection with the consumption of gas and to impose penalties on consumers and other persons failing to comply with any such provisions.

12. To confer upon the Company all or any powers commonly conferred upon gas undertakers and not hereinbefore referred to; to define and limit the share capital of the Company for the purposes of the undertaking to be authorised by the proposed Order, and to enact all such provisions as may be deemed expedient for effecting or in connection with the purposes aforesaid or any of them.

13. To incorporate with the intended Order the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts and the Gasworks Clauses Acts with modifications and exceptions, and to exempt the Company from some of the provisions of those Acts.

14. The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with its purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1,
