

STATUTE IV.

ASSISTANT MASTERS.

1. The number position and rank in the School of the Assistant Masters shall be subject to such directions as may be given by the Governing Body from time to time.

2. All the Assistant Masters shall be appointed by and hold their offices at the pleasure of the Headmaster; provided that in case he dismiss a Master he shall forthwith notify the fact and the reason for it to the Governing Body; provided also that in case of dismissal for misconduct an Appeal shall be allowed to the Governing Body, whose decision shall be final.

STATUTE V.

LICENCES TO TAKE IN BOYS.

No person other than a Master of the School approved by the Governing Body as a House-Master shall be entitled to take Boys to board and lodge in his house in order that they may attend the School without having previously obtained the express sanction of the Governing Body.

STATUTE VI.

YEARLY EXAMINATIONS.

There shall in every year be a competitive examination, conducted by such person or persons, other than Masters of the School, as the Governing Body may appoint, of the boys in the School who may be candidates for any such Scholarships and Exhibitions, tenable after quitting the School, as shall be under the control or subject to the directions of the Governing Body or of the Headmaster and may be then vacant or about to become vacant; and the result of this examination shall be reported to the Governing Body.

STATUTE VII.

THE FOUNDATION.

Subject to the rights reserved by section 14 of the Public Schools Act 1868 to persons being Burgesses of Shrewsbury at the time of the passing of that Act to send their children to the School, the Governing Body shall make such arrangements as, having regard to the income of the School, they shall from time to time determine for providing Scholarships Exhibitions or other Emoluments tenable in the School, or instruction in the School free of charge.

STATUTE VIII.

SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS
TENABLE IN THE SCHOOL.

Scholarships and Exhibitions tenable in the School which are provided out of the income of Funds held upon specific trusts shall be awarded and held in accordance with the conditions laid down in the trusts affecting the same respectively, whether declared by deed or by resolution of the Governing Body.

STATUTE IX.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS TENABLE
AFTER QUITTING THE SCHOOL.

i. The Scholarships or Exhibitions founded by Dr. John Millington, the Scholarship or Exhibition founded by Mr. James Millington, and the two Scholarships or Exhibitions founded by Deed dated the 27th of September, 1656, in respect of which the yearly sum of £70 was formerly paid from the funds of the School to the Master, Fellows and Scholars of St. John's College in the University of Cambridge, shall be tenable by boys from Shrewsbury School proceeding to any College or Hall in the University of Oxford or Cambridge or otherwise becoming members of either of these Universities. The Governing Body may, if they think fit, consolidate the two Scholarships or Exhibitions founded by Deed dated the 27th of September, 1656, as above mentioned, and make them into one Exhibition of the yearly value of £70 tenable for four years.

ii. The two Exhibitions founded by the Reverend Oswald Smyth, and the Exhibition founded by the Reverend John Taylor, D.D., and regulated by his will, shall be open to the competition of all boys who have been or shall have been at the School for two years, and shall be tenable for four years.

iii. All Scholarships, Exhibitions and Emoluments tenable after quitting the School by boys educated thereat shall, so far as they are under the control or subject to the directions of the Governing Body or the Headmaster, be conferred according to the result of the Examination for Scholarships and Exhibitions to be held in accordance with Statute VI, but if it appears to the Governing Body unfitting that any successful Candidate should receive the aid of an endowment (either on the ground that his own or his parents' income render him independent or for any other reason), it shall be lawful for them to withhold or cause to be withheld the emoluments of the Scholarship or Exhibition to which such Candidate shall have become entitled. In such a case and in case of the resignation of the Emoluments of any Scholarship or Exhibition by the successful Candidate, he shall be elected an Honorary Scholar or Exhibitioner, as the case may be, and the moneys thereby set free may be applied in providing another Scholarship or Exhibition to which one of the other Candidates may be elected, or in any other manner which may be authorised by the trusts of the Scholarship or Exhibition Fund in question.

iv. In all future elections to Scholarships or Exhibitions tenable by boys proceeding from Shrewsbury School to any University no regard shall be paid to the place of birth or to the parentage or lineage of any Candidate, but every such Scholarship or Exhibition shall be tenable by any boy proceeding to the University of Oxford or of Cambridge, or to any other University at which his Scholarship or Exhibition may be tenable, provided that he has been at the School for two years immediately preceding the end of the School-term in which the election takes place, and provided that he shall have obtained from the Headmaster a certificate of good morals and behaviour.

v. The Governing Body may from time to time vary the length of time during which any Scholarship or Exhibition may be tenable, and the time at which the election to any Scholarship or Exhibition shall take place.

vi. The Governing Body shall from time to time require every Scholar or Exhibitioner whose stipend is payable out of moneys under
