

this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said New Parish of Chapeltown and of the said Parish of Tankersley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate District or New Parish for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The New Parish of Saint Saviour, Mortomley.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the said Church of Saint Saviour, Mortomley, shall as from the day last mentioned be, and for that purpose we hereby specify the same Church as, the Parish Church of the said New Parish of Saint Saviour, Mortomley.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District or New Parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the said Leonard Hedley, Bishop of the said Diocese of Sheffield, and his successors, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The New Parish of Saint Saviour, Mortomley, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the New Parish (sometime District) of Chapeltown, in the County of York and in the Diocese of Sheffield, which is bounded upon the north-east by the Parish of Tankersley, upon the north-west by the Parochial Chapelry of Wortley, both in the said County and Diocese, upon the south-west partly by the said Parochial Chapelry of Wortley and partly by the New Parish of Saint Mark, Grenoside, in the said County and Diocese, upon the south by the Parish of Ecclesfield, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Ecclesfield from the said New Parish of Chapeltown at a point in the middle of the road leading from Penistone to Rotherham opposite to the middle of the footpath leading from Bracken Hill to Housley Hall, and extending thence first northward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of 36 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading from Burncross to Mortomley, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last mentioned footpath for a distance of 10½ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the footbridge which carries such footpath across Charlton Brook, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions along the middle of Charlton Brook for a distance of 10½ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 187 upon the Ordnance Survey Map of the Civil Parish of Ecclesfield published in the year 1905 upon the scale of 25 inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this Scheme from the close numbered 188 upon the same maps, and extending thence first northward to the said fence and then first westward and then in various directions along the fences which divide the said close numbered 187 and the closes numbered 177 and 179 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 188 and the closes numbered 173, 176, 175 and 178 upon the same maps for a distance in all of 27 chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 179 from the said close numbered 178 meets the southern side of the road leading from Chapeltown to Mortomley, and extending thence first north-eastward to and then north-westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of 1½ chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Thorncliffe Lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Thorncliffe Lane for a distance of 15½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway running along the south-western side of the main building of the Thorncliffe Iron Works, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such roadway for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern wall of the said building, and extending thence north-eastward to and along such wall and in a straight line in continuation thereof for a distance in all of 2½ chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Chapeltown from the said Parish of Tankersley.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said Parish of Tankersley which is bounded upon the south-east and upon the south-west by the said New Parish of Chapeltown and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Greaves Lane at a distance of 15 yards or thereabouts north of Westwood Bridge where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Chapeltown from the said Parish of Tankersley turns southward along the middle of Greaves Lane, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of Greaves Lane for a distance of 20½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading to New Biggin, and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward and then again north-eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of 18½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading from Westwood Station, across New Biggin Plantation and Tankersley Park, to Tankersley, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such footpath for a distance of 14 chains or thereabouts to the wall forming the south-western boundary of Tankersley Park, and extending thence south-eastward along the said wall for a distance of 60 chains or thereabouts to the
