

mitted to England divers Bills to be laid before the Parliament, which is to meet here the 27th of this month. We have an account from Armagh, by Letters of the 17th Instant, that notice being brought thither, that one Maconally and other Rapparees, who had for a long time infested that Road, and lately murdered Capt. Groves after being several days their Prisoner, were got together in a House about 3 or 4 miles from Armagh; Capt. Macblin, with about 12 of his Company, went out in order to surprize them, but the Rapparees being informed thereof by a Spy they had placed at some distance, they got to their Horses, and made away as fast as they could; Capt. Macblin pursued them, and the Rapparees fired many Shots, but after an hours pursuit, Maconally and Mushans, two of the Chiefest of them, were killed, and their Heads were brought to Armagh, and fixed upon the Sessions House there.

Newcastle, July 20. On Sunday last came to our Bar the Diligence of London from Virginia, having on Board above 600 Hogheads of Tobacco; She came in Company of 3 more, from whom she was separated in bad Weather.

Yarmouth, July 21. Yesterday came into this Road about 80 Sail of Light Colliers from the Southward, and passed through our Road with a fair Wind, but it changing this morning they are all put back again; Here are now above 150 Sail of Light Colliers. The Oxford and Dreadnought Anchored this day off of Lowestoff, being to convoy a Fleet of Laden Ships to Holland.

Yarmouth, July 23. Yesterday sailed out of this Road about 200 Sail of Light Colliers, with their Convoy the Henry-Prince; as also the Fleet for Holland under Convoy of the Oxford and Dreadnought. The Sweetshakes is come into this Road.

Westminster, July 22. The Parliament met this day, and was again Prorogued to the 26th day of August next.

Whitehall, July 24. By Letters from the Fleet under the command of Sir George Rooke, dated the 21th of this month about 18 Leagues N. E. from the Lizard, we are informed, that they were then sailing towards Torbay; and that Rear-Admiral Benbow had left the Fleet, and was gone in His Majesties Ship the Newarke, towards Dunkirke, to command the Squadron that lies before that place.

There are Two Mails due from Holland besides that of Friday last.

Advertisements.

Of the 13 Instant between Old Street and Barnes, 107 Old Pocket Book, Velum Cover, with several Receipts, and other Accounts. Whoever brings it to Mr. Wheeler at the Horseshoe Inn at the Corner of Old Street, shall have 10 s.

Practical Discourses upon several Subjects. Vol. 1. By John Scott, D. D. late Rector of St. Giles in the Field. Printed for Walter Kentiby at the Bible and Head in St. Pauls Church Yard, and Samuel Massey at the Ship near the Royal Exchange in Octavo. Price 5 s.

A Plain Introduction to the Art of Physick; containing the Fundamentals and Necessary Preliminaries to such, whereby the reading Practical Authors will be rendered more intelligible to the young Students. To which is added the Materia Medica contracted. Also a Collection of Choice Medicines Chyrical and Galenical. Together with a different way of making the most useful Complications in the Apothecaries Shop. By J. Pechey of the Coll. of Physicians in London. Printed for H. B. Wicks at the Red Lion in St. Pauls Church Yard.

The Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Saucygood, deceased; containing a curious Collection of Greek and Latin Authors, Commentaries, Histories, and all the best Poets, Orators, Lexicographers, &c. also an excellent Collection of English, French, Italian, and Spanish Books in all Faculties, will be sold by A. at Gray's Inn in Hallgon, this present Week-day, at 3 o'clock, and continue the following days till all be sold. Catalogues may be had gratis at Mr. George Waddleton's at the Black-Hoof in the Strand, and at the Place of Sale.

All Persons that have any Plate, Rings, or Jewels, in the Hands of Mr. John Palfrey, Goldsmith, at the Red Lion, 195 at the Cooks-Street-Market, London, are desired to fetch them away before 16th day of August next, or they will be disposed of.

John Palfrey, born at Torp about 2 miles North of Leeds in Yorkshire, went from his Relations about 9 years since, and did not see them for 30 years. A Captains Widow in London since which he has not been heard of. If he finds or comes to Fra. he will give notice to the said Fra. Benly, or to Mr. Churchill, Solicitor in Peter-Nolles-Know, when and where he died, he shall give Guinea Reward.

Of the 7th Instant between the Royal Exchange and the Alley Ground near Sunhill-Fields, a Talley of Fra.ys Buck Aug. 6. 1696. in the Name of Edward Nicholas Esq. for 1. in part of 50000 l. by him lent the 2d of July 1694 to the said, and Temp. Exche. Whoever brings the said Talley to James Williams at the 3 Black-Lions in the Strand North Street, shall have 10 s. Reward.

Whereas George St. Quintin late of London, Merchant, being deceased above Two thirds in Number and Value his Creditors to Subscribe an Instrument of Composition, and by desire that all his Creditors should subscribe, does hereby notice, that Attendance will be given every day from 10 o'clock in the afternoon, at Lloyd's Office house in Lombard Street, till the 2d of August, and they shall do not subscribe, or being present, or in that time, will be excluded the Benefit of the said Composition.

A Thirteen Stone Plate of about 40 l. value, will be sent Winchester Down on the left Water-way in August. Notice is put in a House, for who contribute to the cost, and the hands of Mr. Mayor of Winton, a week before the said Plate is sent. Every House, &c. to be in hand at the Stamp the week-day next before the said day of August, or else to run. The next day is designed a to Stone Plate, and Sun in the Winter will be a very good Ordinary on each.

Of the 9th of July last out of a Ground near Newport Black-Gelding full aged, about 14 hands high, had a white spot over the near Eye, several feet behind the Ear, and near the Flank, and several other places. Whoever gives notice of him to the said, and Mouth near Aldersgate, shall have 10 s. and all reasonable Charges.

Of out of the Ground adjoining and belonging to the House near Bredford in the County of Westchester, there was with a cut Tail a Star in her Forehead, about 6 or 7 years old. Whoever gives notice thereof at Ozerley House, shall have 10 s. Reward.