BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

Made by the Railway Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") with the approval of the Minister of Transport.

For regulating the travelling upon and using and working of and for maintaining order in and upon the Company's Railways (hereinafter referred to as "the Railway"), which expression means and includes all and each of the Railways, Railway Stations and approaches thereto, and all and each of the works and premises belonging to or leased to the Company, and with respect to which the Company has power to make regulations by Bye-laws, and also all and each of the works by the Company's Special Acts authorised to be constructed.

1. Any person offending against any of the following Bye-laws numbered 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 respectively, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for a first offence, and not exceeding five pounds for any subsequent offence; and any person offending against either of the following Bye-laws numbered 16 and 18 respectively shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

2. No person shall enter any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, for the purpose of travelling, unless and until he or someone on his behalf shall have obtained from the Company, or from some other Company or person duly authorised in that behalf by the Company, a ticket entitling him to travel therein. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to leave the carriage or vehicle immediately on request by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent.

3. At all intermediate stations fares will be received and tickets issued conditionally only on there being room in the train for which such tickets shall be issued. In case there shall not be sufficient room for all the Passengers to or for whom such tickets shall have been issued, the holders of such as shall be for the longest distances shall, as far as reasonably practicable, have the preference, and the holders of such as shall be for the same distance shall, as far as reasonably practicable, have priority according to the order in which such tickets shall have been issued, as denoted by the numbers stamped thereon. The Company are not, however, to be deemed to undertake that such order of preference or priority shall be adhered to.

4. When the fare to an intermediate station exceeds the fare to a more distant station, no person shall, for the purpose of travelling to such intermediate station, take or use or attempt to use a ticket for the more distant station, with intent to avoid payment of the additional fare to such intermediate station. The liability to or infliction of any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law shall not prejudice any right of the Company to treat such ticket as forfeited and to recover the full fare for the distance actually travelled by the offender.

5. No person shall alter, deface, mutilate or destroy any passenger ticket, season ticket, dog ticket, or bicycle ticket after it has been issued and whilst it is available for use, with intent to enable the Company to be defrauded or prejudiced; or knowingly and wilfully use or attempt to use any such ticket which shall have been in any respect materially altered, defaced or mutilated.

6. No person shall sell or buy or attempt to sell or buy any ticket (which expression in this Bye-law includes any passenger ticket, season ticket, dog ticket, bicycle ticket, book of passenger tickets, and any portion detached from the remainder from any such ticket or book) or transfer or receive any partly used ticket or any season ticket to or from any other person with intent that any person shall use the same for the purpose of travelling or conveyance upon the Railway, unless the ticket shall at the time of issuing thereof purport to be transferable, and no person shall knowingly and wilfully use or attempt to use any ticket which has been sold, bought transferred or received in contravention of this Bye-law.

Provided that the sale or attempted sale by or the purchase or attempted purchase from a duly authorised servant or agent of the Company is excepted from the provisions of this Bye-law.

7. When a carriage or compartment of a carriage upon the Railway contains the full number of Passengers which it is constructed to carry, no additional person shall enter or remain therein if requested by a guard of the train or any servant or agent of the Company not to do so. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit such carriage or compartment immediately on request by such guard, servant, or agent, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such guard, servant, or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

8. Except by permission of a guard of the train, no person of the male sex above the age of eight years shall travel or attempt to travel or remain in any carriage or compartment of a carriage marked or notified as being reserved or appropriated for the exclusive use of persons of the female sex. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit such carriage or compartment immediately on request by a guard of the train or any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of any such guard, servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

9. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to desist immediately on request by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed from the engine, van, wagon, carriage or vehicle, or from the Railway, by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

10. No person except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty shall open or attempt to open any gate or door of any lift-shaft or lift, or enter or leave, or attempt to enter or leave any lift which is in motion or otherwise than at the place appointed for passengers to enter or leave the same.

11. No person, except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty, shall open the door, or stand, or attempt to stand on the step or footboard of any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway whilst it is in motion or (except in case of accident or other emergency) between stations: or enter or leave or attempt to enter or leave any such carriage or vehicle whilst it is in motion or (except as aforesaid) between stations or otherwise than at the side of the carriage or vehicle adjoining the platform or place appointed for passengers to enter or leave the train; and where in any such carriage or vehicle one door is indicated by notice for entrance thereto and another door for exit therefrom no person shall (except in case of accident or other emergency) enter or leave or attempt to enter or leave such carriage or vehicle except by the door indicated for entrance or exit respectively.

12. Except by permission in writing of a stationmaster or other officer of the Company, duly authorised in that behalf, no person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or disorder shall enter or remain and no person having the custody, charge or care of any such person shall cause or permit such person to enter or remain in or upon the Railway or in any carriage upon the Railway, and the Company may refuse to receive or carry any such person, or to permit any such person to enter, remain, or be in or upon the Railway, or in any such carriage, or to travel on the Railway. Any person suffering as aforesaid, and any person having the custody, charge or care of any such person may be removed from any such carriage or from the Railway, by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company, and shall be liable to the Company for the cost of disinfecting the Company's premises and any carriage in which such person shall have been, and to make good any other damage to the property of the Company through the infraction of this Bye-law, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by such infraction.

13. No person in a state of intoxication, or otherwise in an unfit or improper condition for being a passenger, or whose dress or clothing might in the opinion of any guard of the train soil or injure the linings or cushions of any carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall enter or remain in or upon the Railway or in any carriage upon the Railway. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit the Railway or any such carriage immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

14. No person shall at any time while in or upon the Railway or in any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway use any threatening, abusive, indecent, obscene, profane, or offensive language to the annoyance or hindrance of any other person, or behave in a riotous, disorderly, indecent or offensive manner, to the annoyance or hindrance of any other person, or write, draw, or affix any abusive, indecent, obscene, profane, or offensive word, representation, or characters, or commit any nuisance in, upon, or against any part of the Railway or of such carriage or vehicle, or molest or wilfully interfere with the comfort or convenience of any passenger or person on the Railway. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit the Railway or such carriage, or vehicle immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

15. No person shall take or cause to be taken into, or cause or allow to remain in any passenger carriage upon the Railway, if requested not to do so by a guard of the train, or any servant or agent of the Company: (a) any dog, bird, reptile or other animal; or (b) any article or thing which by reason of its nature is in the opinion of such guard, servant or agent calculated to cause, or, in fact, does cause, annoyance to any passenger or damage to any property.

If any person in charge of any such animal, article or thing fails when requested by such guard, servant or agent immediately to remove the same from the carriage, then the same may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such guard, servant or agent without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

16. No person shall take into, or place in or upon or cause to be taken into or placed in or upon, the Railway or any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, any loaded firearm, loaded gun, or loaded weapon of any kind; nor shall any person, except by permission in writing of an officer of the Company duly authorised in that behalf, take into or place in or upon, or cause to be taken into or placed in or upon the Railway or any such carriage or vehicle, any inflammable explosive or corrosive gas, spirit, liquid, substance or matter, or any article or thing which is or may become dangerous to any passenger or property. But nothing in this Bye-law shall apply to small quantities of spirit or liquid carried for the personal use of such person, and not for the purpose of trade or business, provided that all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accident or injury therefrom.
