

Birmingham, Cardiff, Chatham, Edinburgh London, Plymouth and Portsmouth on the 22nd April, 1927.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 10th March, 1927, an application, in the handwriting of the candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

CHORLEY.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chorley, being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said Borough, have made application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

(1) Partially to repeal the Chorley Improvement Act, 1853, and the Chorley Improvement Act, 1871, and in particular the undermentioned sections which interfere with or overlap the provisions of the general law or any byelaws which may be made thereunder with respect to new streets and buildings:—

Chorley Improvement Act, 1853.

Section 27 (in so far as it incorporates section 33 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to sewers).

Section 30 (which incorporates sections 35 to 46 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the drainage of houses).

Section 36 (in so far as it incorporates sections 57 to 60 and section 63 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to laying out new streets).

Section 39 (in so far as it incorporates so much of sections 84 to 86 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, as relates to procedure consequent upon the fixing of the level of new streets).

Section 50 (which incorporates section 109 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the construction of houses for prevention of fire).

Section 52 (which incorporates sections 110 to 115 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to supplying buildings with fresh air).

Chorley Improvement Act, 1871.

Section 3 (in so far as it may be deemed to incorporate any provisions of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, which are mentioned above).

Sections 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 124, 125, 126 and 129, with respect to buildings, area, height and ventilation of rooms, drainage and ventilation of buildings, water closets and privies, conversion of buildings, and building on ground filled up with offensive matter.

(2) For the several purposes of the Application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Act, or of any other Local Act or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said Borough as may be necessary or desirable.

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application.

Notice is hereby given that A. E. H. Goddard, Esq., one of the Inspectors of the Ministry of Health will attend at the Town Hall, Chorley, on Thursday, the sixteenth day of December, 1926, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

E. H. Rhodes,
Assistant Secretary.

Ministry of Health,
Whitehall, S.W. 1.
30th November, 1926.

BOOTLE.

Whereas the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Bootle (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said Borough, have made application to the Minister of Health for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, partially to repeal, alter or amend the Bootle Corporation Act, 1890, as amended by the Bootle Order 1914, which was confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 6) Act, 1914, so as:—

(1) To authorise the Corporation to require the owner or occupier of any premises in the Borough (a) to provide portable receptacles for refuse of such number, size, material and construction as may be prescribed by the Corporation in substitution for ashpits or ashtubs or other receptacles for refuse already in use; and (b) to remove or fill in any fixed ashpit for which a portable receptacle is substituted;

(2) To enable the Corporation to pay the whole cost or to contribute towards the cost of the provision of portable receptacles provided as aforesaid;

(3) To authorise the Corporation to require the owner or occupier of any premises to provide such additional receptacles for refuse as may be necessary in consequence of the sub-letting of the premises;

(4) To provide that the owner or occupier by whom receptacles for refuse are provided shall maintain the same in good order and condition, or shall pay to the Corporation annually such sum not exceeding five shillings as the Corporation may from time to time determine for or towards the maintenance repair and renewal by them of such receptacles;

(5) To provide that the receptacles shall be used only for the deposit of dust ashes or other house refuse intended for removal by or on behalf of the Corporation;
