

such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

" 7. That a portion of the sum of £12,757 4s. 9d. Four pounds per centum per annum Funding Stock now held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as part of the endowments of the said Benefice of Knaptoft shall be transferred to the United Benefices of Kimcote with Walton and Arnesby with Shearsby respectively, that is to say, a sum of £250 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Kimcote with Walton as from the date of the union of the said Benefice of Kimcote and the said Chapelry of Walton, and if under the provisions of Clause 5 of this Scheme the said Decimus Albert Gay Taylor shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Mowsley with Laughton and Knaptoft then

" (1) a further sum of £6,875 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Arnesby with Shearsby as from the date of the union of the said Benefice of Knaptoft and the said Benefice of Laughton, and

" (2) a further sum of £2,150 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Arnesby with Shearsby and a further sum of £1,000 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Kimcote with Walton as from the date of the avoidance of the United Benefice of Mowsley with Laughton and Knaptoft by the said Decimus Albert Gay Taylor;

but if the said Decimus Albert Gay Taylor ceases to be Incumbent of the said Benefice of Knaptoft before the union of the said Benefices of Knaptoft and Laughton then, in lieu of the foregoing provision:—

" (1) a further sum of £4,300 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Arnesby with Shearsby as from the date of the union of the said Benefice of Arnesby and the said Chapelry of Shearsby, and

" (2) a further sum of £4,725 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Arnesby with Shearsby, and a further sum of £1,000 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice of Kimcote with Walton as from the date of the union of the said Benefice of Knaptoft and the said Benefice of Laughton.

" Provided always that all the endowments of the said Benefice of Knaptoft, other than the Stock hereinbefore recommended to be transferred to the United Benefices of Kimcote with Walton and Arnesby with Shearsby respectively, shall continue to belong to the said Benefice of Knaptoft or to the United Benefice of Mowsley with Laughton and Knaptoft as the case may be, and the whole of the First Fruits and tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Knaptoft shall continue to be payable by the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Knaptoft or of the United Benefice of Mowsley with Laughton and Knaptoft as the case may be.

" 8. That after the said unions have taken effect (a) the Patronage of the United Benefice of Kimcote with Walton shall belong wholly to the Patron of the said Benefice of Kimcote; (b) the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Arnesby with Shearsby from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to such United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Knaptoft shall have the first and the second turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Arnesby shall have the third turn, and (c) the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Mowsley with Laughton and Knaptoft from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said Benefices of Knaptoft and Laughton alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Laughton having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Knaptoft having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

" Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Peterborough has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.
