

ward and then in various directions along the middle of the last mentioned roadway for a distance of 47½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Argent Street and Bridge Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Bridge Road for a distance of 7 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the said main line of the London, Tilbury and Southend Section of the London, Midland and Scottish Railway, and extending thence north westward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of 16 chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western corner of the premises attached to the house known as The Retreat, and extending thence north eastward and in a straight line across the said line of railway for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to the western corner of the said premises, and extending thence eastward along the fence forming the northern boundary of such premises (thereby following in part the southern side of Crown Road) for a distance of 4 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the fences forming the western and southern boundaries of the Grays Football Ground, and extending thence first eastward and then in various directions along the fence forming the southern boundary of such football ground (thereby continuing to follow in part the said fence forming the northern boundary of the above mentioned premises) for a distance of 10½ chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundary fence of the said football ground meets the western side of Bridge Road, and extending thence first eastward to and then northward along the middle of Bridge Road for a distance of 25½ chains or thereabouts to the point near its junction with Orsett Road opposite to the middle of the said roadway running along the backs of the houses on the southern side of High View Avenue, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbents of the Cures, out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chelmsford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 18th day of November, 1926, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain properties situate in the County of Lincoln and now vested in us:

"Whereas the properties particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written are now vested in us not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but in possession and we are desirous of selling the same or some portion thereof for the improvement of our Common Fund:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty that we may be authorised and empowered to sell or dispose of and duly to transfer or convey from time to time all or part of the said properties described in the said Schedule for such consideration as shall appear to us to be just and reasonable.
