

being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Marwood :

" Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said William, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say :—

" That with the consents of the said Charles Hammond and the said George Frederick Mattinson (testified by their signing this Scheme) upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme so much of the said Parish and Benefice of Marwood as is described in the Schedule hereto annexed and is more particularly delineated and set forth upon the Map or Plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured pink shall forthwith be transferred for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish and Benefice of Bittadon. Provided always that no alteration in the Patronage or endowments of the said Benefices of Marwood and Bittadon shall be made by reason of such transfer of territory.

" And provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

" All that part of the Parish of Marwood which is bounded upon the east by the Parish of East Down upon the north partly by the Parish of East Down, partly by the Parish of Berrynarbor partly by the Parish of Bittadon and partly by the Parish of West Down and upon the west, upon the south and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of West Down from the said Parish of Marwood at the junction of Bittadon Lane with the road leading from Ilfracombe and West Stowford Barton to Marwood and extending thence southwards along the middle of the lastly mentioned road for about a mile and two thirds to its junction (at Gipsy Corner) with the road leading to Whiddon Cross, and extending thence eastwards along the middle of the lastly mentioned road for about a third of a mile to its junction (at Whiddon Cross) with North Lane, and extending thence generally northwards along the middle of North Lane for about half a mile to its junction with the road leading to Milltown and Muddiford and extending thence north-eastwards and in a straight line for a distance of about a mile and a quarter to a point (situate about 13 chains south west of Hewish Down Beacon) in the middle of the road leading from Muddiford to Berry Down and Berrynarbor at the junction of the lastly mentioned road with the road leading to Reed's Cross and Hewish Barton and extending thence north eastwards along the middle of the aforesaid road leading from Muddiford to Berry Down and Berrynarbor to the point (about seven and a half chains south of its junction with Reed's Lane) where it meets the boundary between the said Parish of Marwood and the said Parish of East Down."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923 :

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners :

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Exeter has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid :

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of his said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the alteration of boundaries therein recommended shall be duly effected, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.
