At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of December, 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“And whereas there is at present a surplus on the Lieutenant-Commanders' List:

“And whereas we consider it desirable that steps should be taken to reduce the List so far as possible to the numbers estimated to be necessary:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by

Your Order in Council, to sanction the following proposal:—

“Lieutenant-Commanders, R.N., other than Officers promoted from Warrant rank; who will have attained the age of compulsory retirement by the 31st December, 1931, to be given the option, at our discretion, of retiring forthwith with the rate of retired pay for which they would be eligible under ordinary regulations, if they remained on the active list and were employed continuously until reaching the age of 45 years; such option to be exercised within a period of six months from the date of promulgation of the orders.

“Nothing in this Order shall preclude us from retiring any Officer during the currency of this scheme under any other regulations which may be applicable to his case.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majestys' Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.
