And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said Scheme has, under the provisions of the said Pluralities Act, 1838, by his Report dated the 26th day of September, 1927, certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council to the intent that an Order may, if His Majesty in Council so think fit, be made for carrying the Scheme into effect:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of November, 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 8th day of June, 1854, directing the discontinuance of burials, in, amongst other places, the City and County of the City of Norwich:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 8th day of June, 1854, in so far as it affects burials in the Cathedral Burial Ground of the City of Norwich should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order shall have effect subject to the following exception or qualification, viz. :—

That, notwithstanding anything in the said Order in Council of the 8th day of June, 1854, it shall be lawful to bury the body of the late Very Reverend John Wakefield Willink, Dean of Norwich, in the Cathedral Burial Ground of the City of Norwich, and also in the same grave the body of the widow of the said late Dean at her decease.

M. P. A. Hankey.

Privy Council Office,
 8th November, 1927.
