

so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898, it is (among other things) provided that references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now reciting Act constituted:

And whereas by Orders in Council made on the 14th day of December, 1922, and the 16th day of December, 1925, respectively, in pursuance of the above recited powers, the clerical and engineering establishments which might be maintained by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") being one of the General Lighthouse Authorities referred to in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishments were duly fixed:

And whereas it is expedient that the engineering establishment of the Corporation should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Trinity House (Variation of Establishment) Order, 1928.

2. In addition to the posts specified in the before-mentioned Orders in Council there shall, as from the 1st day of March, 1928, be included in the engineering establishment of the Corporation a post of Inspector of Wireless Communications with a salary commencing at £250 per annum, and rising by annual increments of £10 to a maximum of £350 per annum.

3. The salary payable under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Privy Seal.

Lord Steward.

Hon. Walter Guinness.

Sir Maurice de Bunsen.

Lord Justice Sankey.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred on Him by the Medical Act, 1886, and the Medical Act (1886) Amendment Act, 1905, by Order in Council dated the 29th day of February, 1908, to order and declare that the Province of Quebec in the Dominion of Canada should be deemed a separate British Possession, and that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, should be deemed to apply to the said Province of Quebec:

And whereas the Province of Quebec no longer affords to Registered Medical Practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Province as to His Majesty seem just:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order that the said Order in Council of the 29th day of February, 1908, be, and the same is hereby revoked without prejudice nevertheless to the right of any persons whose names have been already entered on the Register.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 284 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (57 & 58 Vic. c. 60), it is provided that, where the legislature of any British Possession provides for the survey of, and grant of certificates for, passenger steamers, and the Board of Trade report to His Majesty the King that they are satisfied that the certificates are to the like effect, and are granted after a like survey, and in such manner as to be equally efficient with the certificates granted for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under that Act, His Majesty, by Order in Council, may,—

(1) Declare that the certificates granted in the said British Possession shall be of the same force as if granted under that Act; and

(2) Declare that all or any of the provisions of Part III of that Act which relate to passenger steamers' certificates shall, either without modification or with such modifications as to His Majesty may seem necessary, apply to the certificates granted in the said British Possession; and

(3) Impose such conditions and make such regulations with respect to the certificates, and to the use, delivery and cancellation thereof, as to His Majesty may seem fit, and impose fines not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of those conditions and regulations.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Legislature of Hong Kong has provided for the survey of and grant of certificates for passenger steamers:

And whereas the Board of Trade have reported to His Majesty that they are satisfied that such certificates are, as regards foreign-going passenger steamers, to the like effect, and are granted after a like survey, and in such manner as to be equally efficient with the certificates granted for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the said Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare as follows:—

1. The certificates granted in Hong Kong under the said provision made by the Legislature of Hong Kong for foreign-going passenger steamers shall be of the same force as if they
