“ And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 26th day of May, 1925, to approve of the payment of an allowance of 6s. a day, in addition to the normal emoluments of their rank, to Commissioned Officers of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines while attached to Your Majesty's Royal Air Force for service with the Fleet Air Arm, and borne on the books of one or other of Your Majesty's Ships in Commission:

“ And whereas it is the intention that qualified Naval and Marine Pilots should cease temporarily to be employed as Pilots during certain periods, when they will be employed on General Naval Service:

“ And whereas we are of opinion that, during such periods, Officers qualified as Pilots, whom it is the intention to re-employ later as Pilots, should be given flying practice, and should receive an allowance on each day on which they are required to carry out practice flights:

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment to qualified Naval and Marine Pilots of an allowance of 6s. a day on days on which they carry out flights as Pilots during their periods of General Naval Service. Payment of the allowance to be limited to a maximum of 12 days annually in the case of any one officer, payable only on actual days of ascent, except that, in the event of an officer in these circumstances contracting, while flying, a disability directly attributable to conditions peculiar to flying, payment of the allowance during sickness so arising may be continued under such conditions as we may from time to time determine.

“ The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, and having regard to the provisions of the revised Berne Copyright Convention of 1908, was pleased to make an Order in Council, dated the 24th day of June, 1912 (hereinafter called the Principal Order), extending the protection of the said Act to certain classes of works to which protection is guaranteed by the said Convention:

And whereas Finland has acceded to the said Convention subject to the reservation mentioned in the Schedule to this Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Principal Order shall extend to Finland as if that country were amongst the Foreign Countries of the Copyright Union therein named, subject to the following modifications:—

(a) The provisions of Article 2 Proviso (iii) (b) of the Principal Order shall apply as if Finland were included amongst the foreign countries named in those provisions.

(b) In the application of the provisions of Article 3 of the Principal Order to works of which the country of origin is Finland the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act and for the commencement of the Principal Order.

(c) In the application to such works of Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act, in Sections 19 (7) and 19 (8) wherever that expression occurs, and the 1st April, 1928 for the passing of the Act.

(d) In the application to such works of Section 24 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act wherever that expression occurs in Subsection 1 (a), and for the 26th July, 1910, in Subsection 1 (b).

2. This Order may be cited as the Berne Copyright Convention (Finland) Order, 1928.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury are to give the necessary orders accordingly.
