

These regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. The limits of age are 18 and 19. For the examination to be held in October, 1928, the governing date on which candidates must be of the prescribed age is the 1st January, 1929. A candidate who attained the age of 18 on the governing date would be admitted, but a candidate who attained 19 on that date would not be admitted.

In reckoning age for competition the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

(a) Candidates who have served or are serving in the Navy, Army or Air Force may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have so served.

(b) Candidates who have served in any established civil situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

2. No person will be eligible who is not a natural-born British subject and the child of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of persons serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

3. No person actually serving in the Navy, Army or Air Force will be eligible for admission to the examination unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the Examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners

4. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character. Female candidates must be unmarried or widows, and will be required to resign their appointments on marriage.

5. The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

1. English	200
2. Arithmetic	100
3. General Knowledge	100
4. Lower Mathematics	200
5. Higher Mathematics	200
6. French	200
7. German	200
8. Latin	200
9. Greek	200
10. History	200
11. English Literature	200
12. Geography	200
13. Physics	200
14. Chemistry	200
15. Biology	200

6. All candidates take subjects 1 to 3. They may also offer any three or four of the subjects

4 to 15. The marks will be adjusted so as to give equal opportunity to the candidate who offers three subjects and the candidate who offers four subjects.

Candidates must obtain such an aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners.

7. It will rest with the Civil Service Commissioners to determine the Departments to which the successful candidates shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service. Subject to this condition, the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be respected.

8. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

9. A fee of £4 will be required from every candidate attending an examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 2nd October, 1928. The following is a provisional list of the centres at which the examination may be held:—Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh, London and Manchester.

The final list of centres will be decided when the number of candidates desiring examination at each centre is known.

Not fewer than 50 candidates will be appointed on the result of this examination, if so many should be found to be duly qualified.

No person will be admitted to examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 9th August, an application, in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

*Civil Service Commission,
May 29, 1928.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for the situations of Typist and Clerk-Typist in Departments of the Civil Service will be held in Belfast, Bristol, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Leeds, London, Manchester and Newcastle-on-Tyne, commencing on the 18th September, 1928, under the Regulations dated the 11th November, 1927, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received on or before the 19th July, 1928, an application, in the handwriting of the candidate, on the prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
