Board of Trade—1928.

RUGBY GAS.

(Application for Special Order under Section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Rugby Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") whose principal office is at Railway Terrace, Rugby, in the County of Warwick, intend to apply to the Board of Trade for a Special Order under Section 10 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To provide for the conversion of the existing original and additional ordinary shares of the Company into two classes of stock to be known as "sliding scale stock" and "maximum dividend stock" respectively and for the creation and issue and acceptance of such new stocks in substitution for the existing ordinary shares.

To provide for the issue of so much of the additional capital authorised by the Rugby Gas Act, 1920, as has not been issued by the creation and issue of stock.

To provide and define the dividends rights priorities and privileges to attach to such converted capital and to the stock to be issued in respect of the authorised capital of the Company remaining unissued.

To authorise the establishment of a renewal fund and to make new provision in regard to the application of profits, to increase the borrowing powers of the Company, to make new provisions in regard to the issue of redeemable preference and redeemable debenture stock, to remove the limitation on the amount of preference stock authorised to be issued under Section 38 of the Rugby Gas Act, 1920, and to make further financial provisions.

To make provision in regard to the notices of meetings of the Company, the appointment of proxies, the closing of transfer books, the register of shareholders and shareholders address book and to prescribe the qualification of a director of the Company.

To enable the Company to grant gratuities, pensions and superannuation allowances.

To extend the limits of supply of the Company to include the Parishes of Brownover, Little Lawford and Thurlaston, in the Rural District of Rugby, in the County of Warwick, and to enable the Company to exercise within such extended limits all the powers which they may exercise within the existing limits.

To make further provision in regard to the sale and lease of lands by the Company.

To enable the Company to make charges for special reading of meters, and to make further provision in regard to the entry of premises to which a supply of gas is laid on, period of error in defective meters, supply of gas where consumer has a separate supply, relief from obligation to supply in certain cases, repairs of piping, etc. in dangerous condition, and inspection and testing of meters.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the intended Order and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate and apply with or without modification any provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 and 1863, the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and the Lands Clauses Acts, and to repeal or amend the Rugby Gas Acts and Orders, 1882 to 1920, and the Rugby Gas (Charges) Order, 1921, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, and despatched on or before the 1st day of October, 1928.

Any such objection must state: (a) the specific grounds of objection; and (b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must be forwarded to the Company or their Agents at the same time as it is sent to the Board of Trade.

A copy of the draft Order and an Ordnance Map showing the existing limits of supply, the proposed extended limits and the existing gasworks of the Company have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Warwick at his office at Leamington and also at the offices of the Company and printed copies of the draft Order may be obtained at the price of one shilling per copy at the offices of the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

Dated this 30th day of August, 1928.
