The 1st day of November, 1928.

THIS day, in the presence of the Right Honourable Sir William Joynson-Hicks, Bt., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Most Honourable Charles Stewart Henry, Marquess of Londonderry, K.G., M.V.O., was sworn First Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by section thirteen of the Currency and Bank Notes Act, 1928 (in this Order referred to as "the Act"), that the Act shall come into operation on the appointed day and that the appointed day shall be such day as His Majesty may by Order in Council appoint, and that different days may be appointed for different purposes and for different provisions of the Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint the 22nd day of November, 1928, as the appointed day for all the purposes of the Act except the provisions contained in subsection (2) of section nine of the Act with respect to banks in Northern Ireland, and to appoint the day on which the Bankers (Northern Ireland) Act, 1928, comes into operation as the appointed day for the purpose of the said provisions with respect to banks in Northern Ireland.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the powers conferred on Him by the Air Navigation Act, 1920, His Majesty in Council was pleased to make the Air Navigation (Consolidation) Order, 1923, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1925, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1927, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1928, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1928, amending the first-mentioned Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the first-mentioned Order as so amended (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order) should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. For paragraph (3) of Article nine of the principal Order the following paragraph shall be substituted:

“(3) A person shall not smoke in any aircraft registered in Great Britain and Northern Ireland, unless and except in so far as smoking in that aircraft is permitted by a notice exhibited by the owner of the aircraft in a prominent place therein.

A notice permitting smoking in any such aircraft may only be exhibited therein if and in so far as smoking in the aircraft is permitted by the certificate of airworthiness of the aircraft or by the direction of the Secretary of State.

The owner of every aircraft registered in Great Britain and Northern Ireland shall exhibit in a prominent place in the aircraft a notice stating whether and to what extent smoking is prohibited or permitted therein.”

2. Paragraph (1) of Article twenty-one of the principal Order shall be amended:—

(1) by omitting the words “at the beginning and end of each communication”;

(2) by inserting after the words “Provided that” the following words:

“after communication has been established by means of such call sign the aircraft may employ an abridged call sign consisting—

(a) in the case of radio telegraphy of the first and last letters of the complete call sign of five letters;

(b) in the case of radio telephony, of the whole or part of the name of the owner of the aircraft followed by the last two letters of the complete call sign of five letters.

Provided also that”.

3. For paragraphs 7 to 15 of Schedule I to the principal Order, the paragraphs set forth in the Schedule to this Order shall be substituted.

4. Paragraph 17 of Schedule IV to the principal Order shall be amended:—

(1) by inserting after sub-paragraph (a) the following new sub-paragraph:—

“(aa) The international distress call ‘MAYDAY’ (corresponding to the French pronunciation of the expression ‘m’aider’) by means of radio telephony”;

(2) by substituting for the words “international alert signal” the words “international urgent signal”;

(3) by inserting at the end of the paragraph the words “Where radio-telegraphy is used the three letters must be well separated so that the signals ‘A N’ may not be transformed into one signal ‘P’. The urgent signal may be transmitted only with the authorisation of the commander or person responsible for the aircraft.”

5. After paragraph 48 of Schedule IV to the principal Order there shall be inserted the following new paragraph:—

“48A. The Secretary of State may by directions temporarily suspend the application of all or any of the rules contained in this Section with reference to any aerodrome in Great Britain or Northern Ireland which is open to public use. At any aerodrome as respects which all or any of the rules contained in this Section are for the time so suspended as aforesaid, a red square panel, each side of which is at least three yards in length, shall be placed horizontally near to the signal in that aerodrome which indicates the direction of the wind.”

6.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 4) Order, 1928.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

M. P. A. Hankey.

SCHEDULE.

PARAGRAPHS TO BE SUBSTITUTED FOR PARAGRAPHS 7-15 OF SCHEDULE I TO THE PRINCIPAL ORDER.

7. The nationality mark of an aircraft registered in Great Britain and Northern Ireland shall be the capital letter G in Roman character, and the registration mark shall be a group assigned by the Secretary of State of four capital letters in Roman character.

8. The nationality and registration marks shall be painted on the aircraft in the following manner:—

(a) Flying Machines.—The marks shall be painted once on the lower surface of the lower main planes, and once on the upper surface of the top main planes, the top of the letters to be towards the leading edge. They shall also be painted along each side of the fuselage between the main planes and the tail planes. In cases where the machine is not provided with a fuselage the marks shall be painted on the nacelle instead.

(b) Airships and Balloons.—In the case of airships the marks shall be painted near the maximum cross-section on both sides and on the upper surface, equidistant from the letters on the sides. In the case of balloons the marks shall be painted twice near the maximum horizontal circumference of a spherical balloon as far as possible from one another, and, on a non-spherical balloon, near the maximum cross-section on both sides immediately above the rigging band or the points of attachment of the basket suspension cables. In the case both of airships and balloons the side marks shall be visible both from the sides and ground.

The marks shall be of such a colour in relation to the colour of the background on which they are painted as will render them clearly legible at a distance of not less than 250 yards in a clear atmosphere.

9. The height of the letters need not exceed eight feet unless otherwise required by the Secretary of State. Subject as aforesaid, the height of the marks shall be as follows:—

(a) Flying Machines.—The height of the marks on the main planes shall be equal to four-fifths of the chord. The height of the marks on the fuselage or nacelle shall be equal to four-fifths of the greatest depth of the narrowest part of that portion of the fuselage or nacelle on which the marks are painted.

(b) Airships and Non-spherical Balloons.—The height of the marks shall be equal to at least one-twelfth of the circumference at the maximum transverse cross-section of the airship, or the maximum cross-section of the balloon.

(c) Spherical Balloons.—The height of the marks shall be equal to at least one-fifteenth of the maximum horizontal circumference of the balloon.

10. As nearly as the constructional features of the aircraft admit,

(a) the width of the letters shall be two-thirds of their height;

(b) the thickness of the letters shall be one-sixth of their height; and

(c) except as provided in paragraph 11 of this Schedule, a space equal to one-half the width of the letters shall be left between the letters.

The letters shall be painted in plain block type, and shall be uniform in shape and size.

11. A hyphen of a length equal to the width of one of the letters shall be painted between the nationality mark and the registration mark.

12. The nationality and registration marks shall be displayed to the best possible advantage, taking into consideration the constructional features of the aircraft. The marks must always be kept clean and visible.

13. The aircraft shall carry affixed to the car or basket or to the fuselage, in a prominent position, a metal plate inscribed with the names and residence of the owner and the marks of nationality and registration.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928 (7 Edw. 7. c. 29; 4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 18; 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 80; and 18 Geo. 5. c. 3), it is provided that the said Section shall apply only to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of a foreign state with respect to which His Majesty, by Order in Council, declares that the laws thereof confer corresponding rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the foreign state or the territorial waters thereof:

And whereas by Section 91 of the said Acts it is provided that the provisions of that Section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable:

And whereas at The Hague on the 6th November, 1925, His Majesty and the heads of certain foreign states having deemed it expedient to make certain modifications in and additions to the International Convention of the 20th March, 1883, for the creation of an International Union for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, and at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, agreed upon a Convention comprising the said International Convention as revised at Brussels and at Washington with the said modifications and additions, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other foreign States:

And whereas the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom has acceded to the said Convention:

And whereas by reason of the accession to the said Convention by the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom the laws thereof confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in the said Section 48:

And whereas the said Convention is an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 91:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the 14th day of February, 1921 (S.R. & O. 1921, No. 267), His Majesty was pleased to declare that the provisions of the said Section 91 should apply to the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom, and it is expedient, on the making of this Order, that the said Order should be revoked:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The laws of the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall be applicable to the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom.

3. The Order in Council dated the 14th day of February, 1921, relating to the Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom, is hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (Serb-Croat-Slovene Kingdom) Order, 1928.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 21 (1) (a) of the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892, His Majesty The King in Council is authorised to make regulations prohibiting or restricting the exercise by marriage officers of their powers under the Act in places where sufficient facilities appear to His Majesty to exist without the exercise of those powers for the solemnization of marriages to which a British subject is a party:

And whereas by Section 21 (2) of the said Act it is provided that regulations made in pursuance of the said Section may be made inter alia with reference to any particular class of cases:

And whereas it appears that without the exercise of their powers under the said Act by marriage officers in Egypt sufficient facilities exist under the form of marriage referred to in Section 22 of the said Act for marriages in Egypt of British subjects who are serving in Egypt in His Majesty's Military Forces or in the Royal Air Force:

And whereas it is necessary on account of the urgency of the matters dealt with by this Order that this Order should come into operation forthwith in accordance with Section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892, or otherwise enabling Him in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) This Order may be cited as the Foreign Marriages (Egypt) Order in Council, 1928.

(2) No marriage officer in Egypt shall solemnize any marriage between parties either of whom is serving in Egypt in His Majesty's Military Forces or the Royal Air Force.

(3) Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect the powers as a marriage officer under Section 12 of the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892, of any commanding officer of any of His Majesty's ships.

And the Right Honourable Sir Austen Chamberlain, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Moreton Morrell and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Newbold Pacey, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Warwick and in the Diocese of Coventry:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Charles Lisle, Bishop of Coventry, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Moreton Morrell and Newbold Pacey duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Coventry and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Coventry signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Moreton Morrell and Newbold Pacey are now full the Reverend William Coleman being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell and the Reverend Roland Charles Herring being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Charles Lisle, Bishop of Coventry (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell and the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Newbold Pacey with Moreton Morrell' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey and the then Incumbent of Moreton Morrell shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey shall have been instituted to Newbold Pacey subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice; but if he shall have been instituted to Newbold Pacey before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the Benefice of Newbold Pacey following such avoidance of the Benefice of Moreton Morrell and the then Incumbent of Moreton Morrell shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Moreton Morrell having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Newbold Pacey having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Coventry has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said

Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Coventry.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Preston, All Saints, and the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Gloucester:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Preston, All Saints and Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Gloucester and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Gloucester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Preston, All Saints, and Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary, are now full the Reverend Maurice Tanner being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Preston, All Saints, and the Reverend Edwin Watkin Hughes being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Preston, All Saints, and the said Benefice of Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Siddington with Preston' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if one only of the said two Benefices shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but, if he shall not so consent then the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of his Benefice and the then Incumbent (if any) of the other of the said two Benefices shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of either of the said two Benefices if the Incumbent at that time of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his Benefice and the then Incumbent (if any) of the other of the said two Benefices shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Preston, All Saints, shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, and the first turn of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union shall belong to the Patron of that one of the two said Benefices of Preston, All Saints, and Siddington, Saint Peter with Saint Mary, an Incumbent of which does not become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice under any of the provisions of clause 2 of this Scheme.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Gloucester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Gloucester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Harnhill with Driffield and the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Ampney, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Gloucester:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of

Harnhill with Driffield and Ampney duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Gloucester and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Gloucester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Harnhill with Driffield and Ampney are now full the Reverend Gilbert Allen Grace being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield and the Reverend Thomas Edgar Johnson being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ampney:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield and the said Benefice of Ampney shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ampney with Driffield' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Ampney and the then Incumbent of Harnhill with Driffield shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Ampney only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Ampney shall have been instituted to Ampney subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to Ampney before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the Benefice of Ampney following such avoidance of the Benefice of Harnhill with Driffield and the then Incumbent of Harnhill with Driffield shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That a Curate be appointed to assist the Incumbent in performing the duties of the United Benefice and that the stipend to be assigned to the Curate out of the revenues of the United Benefice shall be of such amount not exceeding £250 per annum as the Bishop may from time to time determine, this recommendation and proposal being made to the intent that the Bishop shall have the power of requiring the appointment of a Curate in accordance with and subject to the conditions and provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 18 of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Ampney shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, and the first turn of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union shall belong to the Patron of that one of the said two Benefices of Harnhill with Driffield and Ampney an Incumbent of which does not become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice under any of the provisions of Clause 2 of this Scheme.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Gloucester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Gloucester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Quenington, the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Hatherop and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Coln Saint Aldwyn, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Gloucester:

“Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said three Benefices of Quenington, Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn and upon the transfer to the Parish of the Benefice of Aldsworth, situate in the said County and Diocese, of certain portions of the Parishes of the said Benefices of Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Gloucester and therein recommended such union and alteration of boundaries and the terms for effecting the same and the said Bishop of Gloucester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said union of Benefices and alteration of boundaries, which said Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“And whereas the said Benefices of Hatherop, Coln Saint Aldwyn and Aldsworth are now full the Reverend Arthur William Reginald Cheales being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hatherop, the Reverend John Alexander Lindam being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Coln Saint Aldwyn and the Reverend Griffith Wight Jenkins being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Aldsworth and the said Benefice of Quenington is at present vacant:

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“1. That the said Benefice of Quenington, the said Benefice of Hatherop and the said Benefice of Coln Saint Aldwyn shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Coln Saint Aldwyn with Hatherop and Quenington’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“2. That the union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of that one of the said two Benefices of Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn, which shall the later be avoided after the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme, and that pending the union of all the said three Benefices as aforesaid, upon the avoidance of that one of the said two Benefices of Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn, which shall first be avoided after the date aforesaid, the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Quenington shall be admitted to the Benefice (hereinafter called ‘the first Benefice’) so avoided and hold the same with the said Benefice of Quenington and his admission to the first Benefice shall be without any form or fee of or for presentation and the Incumbent so admitted shall upon the next avoidance after his admission to the first Benefice of the other of the two said Benefices of Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice: provided that if a vacancy or vacancies shall occur in the joint holding of the said Benefice of Quenington and the first Benefice in accordance with the provisions of this Clause before the union of all three of the said Benefices shall have taken effect it shall be open to the Patron or Patrons of the first Benefice upon the first of such vacancies and to the Patron or Patrons of the said Benefice of Quenington upon the second of such vacancies and thereafter alternately to nominate or present a new Incumbent to the two vacant Benefices, and such new Incumbent shall be admitted to and shall hold both such Benefices and the Incumbent holding the said Benefice of Quenington jointly with the first Benefice as aforesaid shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice when the union of all three of the said Benefices shall have taken effect as aforesaid.

“3. That a Curate be appointed to assist the Incumbent in performing the duties of the United Benefice and that the stipend to be assigned to the Curate out of the revenues of the United Benefice shall be of such amount not exceeding £250 per annum as the Bishop may from time to time determine, this recommendation and proposal being made to the intent that the Bishop shall have the power of requiring the appointment of a Curate in accordance with and subject to the conditions and provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 18 of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Coln Saint Aldwyn shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Quenington and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that the first three turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union shall be exercised successively by the Patrons of the said three Benefices in the order of remoteness of the then last presentations made by them respectively to the Benefices comprised in the union the first turn belonging to that one or those of the Patrons whose last exercise of his or their right of patronage as aforesaid was most remote in point of time, and succeeding turns in every series of three successive turns of presentation shall be exercised by the said Patrons in the same order.

"6. That with the consent of the Reverend Griffith Wight Jenkins (testified by his signing this Scheme) now Incumbent of the said Benefice of Aldsworth, upon the union taking effect all those portions of the said Parishes of Hatherop and Coln Saint Aldwyn which lie to the north of the River Leach shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Aldsworth, but no alteration shall be made in the patronage of any of the said Benefices of Hatherop, Coln Saint Aldwyn and Aldsworth by reason of such transfer of territory.

"7. That upon the union taking effect a portion of the endowment and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Hatherop that is to say a sum of £833 6s. 8d. London County £3 per cent. Stock being part of a larger sum of such Stock at present held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners on behalf of the said Benefice of Hatherop shall be transferred and annexed to and be held by us on behalf of the said Benefice of Aldsworth.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Gloucester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Gloucester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Staincross, situate within the Parish of Darton, in the County of York and in the Diocese of Wakefield:

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said Parish of Darton, and of the Parish of Roystone, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such Parishes:

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said Parish of Darton and of the said Parish of Roystone should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all Ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Staincross, situate as aforesaid:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, as such Bishop and also as the Patron in right of his See of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Roystone, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Wentworth Henry Canning, Viscount Allendale, as the Patron of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Darton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said Parish of Darton and of the said Parish of Roystone which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Staincross, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Staincross.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

“THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Staincross, comprising:—

“All those contiguous portions of the parish of Darton and of the Parish of Roystone, both in the County of York and in the Diocese of Wakefield, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of Barugh Bridge which carries Spark Lane across the River Dearne, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Spark Lane for a distance of 20 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cockshot Pit Lane, and extending thence first north westward and then northward along the middle of Cockshot Pit Lane (thereby crossing the North Gawber Colliery Railway) for a distance of 25½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Darton Lane, and extending thence northward and in a straight line for a distance of 29½ chains or thereabouts to the junction of the footpaths leading from the road called Darton Lane Head and from Staincross Common Lane to Mapplewell, and extending thence first north westward and then south westward along the middle of the footpath leading from Mapplewell to Darton Lane Head for a distance of 18½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Darton Lane Head, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Darton Lane Head for a distance of 18½ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the boundary between the said Parish of Darton and the said Parish of Roystone, and extending thence first north westward to and then first north westward and then in various directions along the last mentioned boundary for a distance of 35 chains or thereabouts to the point on the eastern side of Husband Wood where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the Parish of Woolley, in the said County and Diocese, from the said Parish of Roystone, and extending thence first north eastward, then eastward and then again north eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following in one part the south eastern side of Warren Lane and in another part the north western side of such lane) for a distance of 1 mile and 7 chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary diverges northward from following the north western side of Warren Lane, and continuing thence north eastward along the north western side of Warren Lane for a distance of 6 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the western side of the road leading from Wakefield to Barnsley, and extending thence first eastward to and then first southward and then south eastward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of 1 mile and 47½ chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundary which divides the New Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Carlton, in the said County and Diocese, from the said Parish of Roystone, crosses the middle of the bridge which carries such road across the Barnsley Coal Railway Extension line of the London and North Eastern Railway and extending thence south westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of 22 chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary meets the boundary which divides a detached portion of the New Parish of Monk Bretton, in the said County and Diocese, from the said Parish of Roystone, and extending thence south westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to the point where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said detached portion of the said New Parish of Monk Bretton, from the said Parish of Darton, and extending thence south westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following for the most part the middle of the stream which flows along the western side of Standhill Wood into the River Dearne) for a distance of 25½ chains or thereabouts to the point where such stream joins the River Dearne and extending thence first westward and then in various directions along the middle of the River Dearne for a distance of 1 mile and 14 chains or thereabouts to the centre of Barugh Bridge which carries Spark Lane across such river, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, and the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Canterbury and for appropriating the Church which was formerly the Parish Church of Canterbury, Saint Andrew, for educational or charitable or other purposes as hereinafter mentioned:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, and Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, duly made their Report to the said Archbishop of Canterbury and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Archbishop of Canterbury signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, is now full the Reverend Arthur Arnold Carter being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Arthur Arnold Carter has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas there is at present charged upon the revenues of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, a pension of £100 per annum in favour of a former Incumbent thereof:

"And whereas the said Church of Saint Andrew, Canterbury, has long ceased to be used and is no longer required for the purposes of Divine Service:

"And whereas the patronage of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, belongs as to two of every three turns of collation or presentation thereto to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being and as to the other turn to the Archdeacon of Canterbury for the time being and the patronage of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, belongs as to nineteen of every twenty turns of collation or presentation to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being:

"And whereas the interest of the other Patron of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, is so small that the share in the patronage of the United Benefice hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted which upon a fair and just apportionment would be assignable to him would in our opinion be negligible:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, and the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Margaret,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Arthur Arnold Carter if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Alphege with Saint Mary Northgate and All Saints, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That at any time and from time to time after the union has taken effect the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall employ such clerical or lay assistance in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice as the Archbishop may require and towards the remuneration of clergy or lay workers so required to be employed the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice such sum as may be necessary not exceeding the sum of £100 any one year.

"4. That so soon as conveniently may be after the said union has taken effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the benefit of a proposed new Benefice or District in or in the vicinity of the City of Canterbury to be selected by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and the income arising in respect of such net proceeds shall be added to the capital sum until a fund sufficient in the opinion of the Canterbury Diocesan Board of Finance to provide a Parsonage House for the said new Benefice or District has been accumulated and thereupon the income arising in respect of the said fund shall be accumulated at the discretion of the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being towards providing an endowment for such new Benefice or District.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall collate, present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of four successive turns of collation, presentation of nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Archbishop of Canterbury and his Successors shall have the first, the second and the third turns and the Archdeacon of Canterbury and his Successors shall have the fourth turn.

"6. That with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid) and with the consent of the Venerable Edward Hoare Hardcastle, now Archdeacon of Canterbury (testified by his signing this Scheme), as Patrons as aforesaid of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, upon the union taking effect or upon the cessation of the pension hereinbefore recited whichever shall the later happen, a portion of the endowments or property of the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, that is to say, a sum of £50 per annum (being part of a larger annual payment at present made by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of such Benefice) shall be severed and diverted from the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint Margaret with Saint Andrew and Saint Mary Bredman, and shall be applied for the benefit of the Benefice of Canterbury, Saint George the Martyr with Saint Mary Magdalene, in the said Diocese of Canterbury.

"7. That upon the said union taking effect the said Church of Saint Andrew, Canterbury, shall be appropriated as a Church Room or Parish Hall in connection with the United Benefice and the said Benefice of Canterbury, Saint George the Martyr with Saint Mary Magdalene, and be used for such educational, charitable or other purposes in connection with the Church of England having in view the intellectual, moral or social welfare of parishioners of those Benefices and others and subject to such conditions, regulations and provisions as the Archbishop of Canterbury shall by Deed made pursuant to the 24th Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, declare and appoint.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Archbishop of Canterbury has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Canterbury.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of South Heighton with Tarring Neville, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Denton, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Sussex and in the Diocese of Chichester :

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Chichester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of South Heighton with Tarring Neville, and Denton, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Chichester and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union (including an alteration of boundaries affecting the Parish of the Benefice of Newhaven, in the said County of Sussex and in the said Diocese of Chichester) and the said Bishop of Chichester signified in writing his approval of the said Report :

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report :

“ And whereas both of the said Benefices of South Heighton with Tarring Neville and Denton are now full, the Reverend Maurice Mason Knowles being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville and the Reverend William Kimpston being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Denton :

“ Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville and the said Benefice of Denton shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the styie of ‘ The United Benefice of Denton with South Heighton and Tarring Neville ’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Denton only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville and the then Incumbent of Denton shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice; and if the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Denton; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Denton if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville shall have been instituted to South Heighton with Tarring Neville subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice; but if he shall have been instituted to South Heighton with Tarring Neville before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Denton and the then Incumbent of Denton shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patrons of the said Benefice of Denton having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of South Heighton with Tarring Neville having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

“ 5. That with the consents of John Francis William Deacon, of No. 20, Birch-lane, in the City of London, Banker, the Reverend Ernest Newton Sharpe, of The Vicarage, Paddington, in the County of Middlesex, Clerk in Holy Orders and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London; the Very Reverend Henry Lawe Corry Vully de Candole, Dean of Bristol, the Reverend Douglas Harry Grose Sargent, of No. 27, Chancery Lane, in the County of London, Clerk in Holy Orders, and John Malcolm Falconer, of Calverley House, near Leeds, Esquire, as the present Patrons of the said Benefice of Newhaven (testified by their signing this Scheme) and with the consent of the Reverend Samuel Froggatt as the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Newhaven, upon the union taking effect, a portion of the Parish of the said Benefice of Denton, that is to say so much of the said Parish of Denton as is comprised within the Civil Parish of Denton Urban, shall be severed from the said Parish of Denton and shall become and be annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Newhaven.

"6. That upon the union (and the transfer of territory referred to in clause 5 of this Scheme) taking effect a portion of the endowments or property of the United Benefice, that is to say (a) a sum of £1,028 13s. London, Midland and Scottish Railway £5 per cent. Redeemable Preference Stock (1955) at present held by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty for the benefit of the said Benefice of Denton and (b) a portion amounting to £18 11s. 6d. per annum of the annual stipend at present payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Denton shall be severed or diverted from the United Benefice and shall be appropriated for the augmentation of the said Benefice of Newhaven.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chichester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the eleventh day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and of the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Churches and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Habrough with Immingham, in the County of Lincoln and in the Diocese of Lincoln:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Habrough with Immingham, is now limited and settled to uses under which the Right Honourable Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough, is tenant for life thereof free from incumbrances and the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough, is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough, is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Habrough with Immingham should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the Right Reverend William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token of his willingness to accept jointly with the other persons hereinafter mentioned the transfer of the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Habrough with Immingham which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parishes or Districts in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parishes of Habrough and Immingham:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), with the consent of the said William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consents of the persons to whom together with the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough, and the said William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage should be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Venerable Ernest Morell Blackie, Clerk in Holy Orders and Archdeacon of Stow, of Reginald Wood, Esquire, and of Joseph William Berry, Esquire, both of Habrough (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Habrough with Immingham shall be transferred to the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough; William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln; Ernest Morell Blackie; Reginald Wood; and Joseph William Berry; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles

Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough; William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln; Ernest Morell Blackie; Reginald Wood; and Joseph William Berry; their heirs and assigns for ever as Trustees upon the trusts declared by a certain Indenture already prepared and intended to be executed by the said Charles Alfred Worsley, Earl of Yarborough; William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln; Ernest Morell Blackie; Reginald Wood; and Joseph William Berry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the severance (1) of the Chapelry of West Hide from the Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide and (2) of the Chapelry of Bartestree from the Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree and the unions (a) of the Benefice of Withington and the said Chapelry of West Hide; (b) of the Benefice of Stoke Edith and the Benefice of Dormington and (c) of the Benefice of Lugwardine and the said Chapelry of Bartestree, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hereford and in the Diocese of Hereford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the severance of the said Chapelries of West Hide and Bartestree from the Benefices to which they are now annexed respectively and upon the union (a) of the said Benefice of Withington and the said Chapelry of West Hide, (b) of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith and the said Benefice of Dormington and (c) of the said Benefice of Lugwardine and the said Chapelry of Bartestree, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended such severance and unions and the terms for effecting the same including certain alterations of boundaries affecting the Parish of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide and the Parishes of the Benefices of Yarkhill and Stretton Grandison with Ashperton both in the said County and Diocese and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for such unions based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas all of the said Benefices of Withington, Stoke Edith with West Hide, Dormington with Bartestree and Lugwardine are now full the Reverend John Hutton Clarke being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Withington, the Reverend Ernest Coles being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide, the Reverend Alfred Norris Cope being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree, and the Reverend Charles Henry Hodgson being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Lugwardine:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said two Benefices of Stoke Edith with West Hide and Dormington with Bartestree now belongs to one and the same Patron or Patrons:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Chapelries of West Hide and Bartestree shall be severed from the said Benefices of Stoke Edith with West Hide and Dormington with Bartestree respectively, and (a) that the said Benefice of Withington and the said Chapelry of West Hide shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The Benefice of Withington with West Hide' (hereinafter called the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide) and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided; (b) that the said Benefice of Stoke Edith and the said Benefice of Dormington shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Stoke Edith with Dormington' but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Stoke Edith and Dormington shall continue distinct in all respects, and (c) that the said Benefice of Lugwardine and the said Chapelry of Bartestree shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree' (hereinafter called the United Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree) and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Withington shall be the Parish Church of the Parish of the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide and the Church of the Parish of Lugwardine shall be the Parish Church of the Parish of the United Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree.

"3. That with the consents of the said John Hutton Clarke, the said Ernest Coles, and the said Charles Henry Hodgson (testified by their signing this Scheme respectively), if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree shall be vacant the unions shall forthwith take effect but if upon the day aforesaid the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree shall not be vacant then the unions shall take effect upon the first avoidance of such Benefice after the day aforesaid and upon the unions taking effect the said John Hutton Clarke if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Withington shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide, the said Ernest Coles if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Stoke Edith with Dormington and the said Charles Henry Hodgson if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Lugwardine shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree.

"4. That upon the unions taking effect the Parsonage Houses at present belonging to the said Benefices of Withington, Dormington with Bartestree, and Lugwardine shall become and be the houses of residence for the Incumbents of the United Benefices of Withington with West Hide, Stoke Edith with Dormington and Lugwardine with Bartestree respectively, and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith (if not previously sold under proper authority) shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice of Stoke Edith with Dormington.

"5. That after the said unions have taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide shall belong wholly to the Patron of the said Benefice of Withington and the Patronage of the United Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Lugwardine.

"6. That with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Ethelbert at Hereford (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme) as Patrons of the said Benefice of Yarkhill, with the consent of the Reverend Francis Edward Tuke (testified by his signing this Scheme) as Incumbent of the said Benefice of Yarkhill, with the consent of Sybil Maude Hopton, wife of Colonel John Dutton Hopton of Canon Frome Court, Ledbury, in the said County of Hereford (testified by her signing this Scheme) as Patron of the said Benefice of Stretton Grandison with Ashperton, and with the consent of the Reverend Charles Campbell Wright Randle (testified by his signing this Scheme) as Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stretton Grandison with Ashperton, upon the said unions taking effect (a) all those detached portions of the Parish of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide which are situate within the area comprising the Civil Parish of Yarkhill shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Yarkhill, (b) all those detached portions of the said Parish of Stoke Edith with West Hide which are situate within the area comprising the Civil Parish of Ashperton shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Stretton Grandison with Ashperton, and (c) all those detached portions of the said Parish of Yarkhill which are situate within the area comprising the Civil Parish of West Hide shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide.

"7. That upon the unions taking effect (a) a portion of the endowments and property of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide, that is to say, a sum of £7,014 12s. 7d. Local Loans £3 per cent. per annum Stock at present held by the Governors of Queen Annes Bounty on behalf of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide and also the glebe house situate at West Hide together with the ground and buildings annexed thereto now or recently occupied as a Curate's Residence by the Curate employed by the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide, shall be annexed and belong to the United Benefice of Withington with West Hide (b) a portion of the endowments and property of the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree, that is to say all those Tithe rent charges commuted at £90 arising within the said Chapelry of Bartestree and now or formerly payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property being or representing the proceeds of the sale, redemption or other conversion of all or any of such tithe rent charges, and also the Cottage, together with the ground annexed thereto situate in the said Chapelry of Bartestree and at present forming part of the endowments and property of the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree, and also a sum of £3,061 10s. 6d. London Midland and Scottish Railway £5 per cent. Redeemable Preference Stock at present held by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty on behalf of the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree, shall be annexed and belong to the United Benefice of Lugwardine with Bartestree, and (c) all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide (save as hereinafter provided) and to the said Benefice of Dormington with Bartestree shall be annexed and belong to the United Benefice of Stoke Edith with Dormington:

"Provided that upon the unions taking effect the pension now charged upon the revenues of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide in favour of a former Incumbent thereof shall become charged upon and payable wholly out of the revenues of the United Benefice of Stoke Edith with Dormington.

"8. That upon the unions taking effect (a) a portion of the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide namely all the right and interest of the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide in the Tithe Rent Charges commuted at £20 arising within the Parish of Tarrington shall be annexed to the Benefice of Tarrington in the said Diocese of Hereford and (b) a further portion of the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide, namely a sum of £625 £4 per cent. Funding Stock (1960-1990) being part of a larger sum of such Stock at present held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England on behalf of the said Benefice of Stoke Edith with West Hide shall be appropriated and held by us for the benefit in equal shares of the said Benefices of Yarkhill and Stretton Grandison with Ashperton.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

At the Court at Buckingham Place, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Ightfield and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Calverhall, Holy Trinity, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Salop and in the Diocese of Lichfield:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend John Augustine, Bishop of Lichfield, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Ightfield and Calverhall, Holy Trinity, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Lichfield and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Lichfield signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Calverhall, Holy Trinity, is now full the Reverend Clement Eustace Macro Wilson being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Ightfield is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Clement Eustace Macro Wilson has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said two Benefices of Ightfield and Calverhall, Holy Trinity, now belongs to one and the same Patron or Patrons:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said John Augustine, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Ightfield and the said Benefice of Calverhall, Holy Trinity, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'the United Benefice of Ightfield with Calverhall' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Clement Eustace Macro Wilson if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Calverhall, Holy Trinity, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Calverhall, Holy Trinity, shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Lichfield has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Pudleston with Whyle and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Hatfield, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hereford and in the Diocese of Hereford:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Pudleston with Whyle and Hatfield duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas the Patronage of the said Benefice of Hatfield now belongs to Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and is exercisable on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being:

“ And whereas the Patronage of the Benefice of Llanwarne with Llandinabo, situate in the said County of Hereford and in the said Diocese of Hereford, now belongs as to one-third share thereof to the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, in right of his See:

“ And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be desirable for the purposes of more conveniently carrying into execution the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, in regard to the Union of Benefices hereinafter recommended and proposed that an exchange should be made of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Hatfield for the aforesaid one-third share in the Patronage of the said Benefice of Llanwarne with Llandinabo to the intent that the Patronage of the United Benefice hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted shall belong wholly to the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors Bishops of Hereford:

“ And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in George Ernest Wright, of Knappe

Cross, near Exmouth, in the County of Devon, Esquire:

“ And whereas it was one of the terms of the before mentioned Report to the said Bishop of Hereford that after the union of the said Benefices of Pudleston with Whyle and Hatfield the Patronage of the United Benefice should belong as to the first and third of every three successive turns of presentation or nomination thereto to the Patron of the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle, that is to say, to the said George Ernest Wright and his successors in title but the said George Ernest Wright is desirous that any right or interest of the Patron of the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle in the Patronage of such United Benefice shall be transferred from him to the Bishop of Hereford for the time being:

“ And whereas the said Martin Linton, now Bishop of Hereford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the transfer of Patronage hereinbefore referred to and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle hereinafter recommended and proposed to be united to the said Benefice of Hatfield:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas both of the said Benefices of Pudleston with Whyle and Hatfield are now full being held in plurality by the Reverend Reginald Victor Hodson under a dispensation:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the Right Honourable Douglas McGarel, Baron Hailsham, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, as Patron on behalf of Your Majesty of the said Benefice of Hatfield (in testimony whereof he has hereunto set his hand) and with the consent of the said George Ernest Wright (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the Patronage of the said Benefice of Hatfield which is now vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and exercisable by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being as aforesaid shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme and duly published in the London Gazette be transferred from Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the same Bishopric for ever and that in exchange for such Patronage so transferred the one-third share in the Patronage of the said Benefice of Llanwarne with Llandinabo which is now vested in the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, as aforesaid shall in like manner and by the same authority be transferred from the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the said Bishopric of Hereford, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and be exercisable by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being:

"2. That the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle and the said Benefice of Hatfield shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Pudleston with Hatfield,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"3. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if one only of the said two Benefices shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the other of the said two Benefices; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of that one of the said two Benefices which shall last be avoided after the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"5. That all right, claim or title of the Patron of the said Benefice of Pudleston with Whyle to any interest in the Patronage of the United Benefice shall with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, and of the said George Ernest Wright (testified as aforesaid) be transferred to the Bishop of Hereford and his successors in the same Bishopric and that upon and from the said union taking effect the right of Patronage of and presentation to the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors Bishops of Hereford.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure and Acts, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the unions (1) of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Hatton and the Benefice of Sotby (now part of the United Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton) and (2) of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Benniworth, the Benefice of Market Stainton (now part of the said United Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton) and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Ranby, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Lincoln and in the Diocese of Lincoln:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the unions (1) of the said two Benefices of Hatton and Sotby and (2) of the said three Benefices of Benniworth, Market Stainton and Ranby duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Lincoln and therein recommended the said unions and the terms for effecting the same and the said Bishop of Lincoln signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefices of Hatton, Benniworth and Ranby are now full, the Reverend Benjamin Anderton Marsden being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hatton, and the Reverend Thomas Bayden Singleton being the present Incumbent of the said Benefices of Benniworth and Ranby and the said Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton is at present vacant:

"And whereas the Patronage of the said Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton belongs as to two of every three successive turns of presentation or nomination thereto to Your Majesty Your Heirs and Successors and is exercisable for such turns on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, and as to the remaining turn to Francis William Parker, of Market Stainton Hall in the said County of Lincoln, Esquire:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Hatton and so much of the said United Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton as comprises the Benefice of Sotby shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby' but the Parishes of such Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That the said Benefice of Benniworth, the said Benefice of Ranby and so much of the said United Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton as comprises the Benefice of Market Stainton shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Benniworth with Market Stainton and Ranby' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Wraggoc but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"3. That with the consents of the said Benjamin Anderton Marsden and Thomas Bayden Singleton (testified by their signing this Scheme), upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the unions referred to in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Scheme shall forthwith take effect and the said Benjamin Anderton Marsden if he is then the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hatton shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby and the said Thomas Bayden Singleton if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefices of Benniworth and Ranby shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Benniworth with Market Stainton and Ranby.

"4. That upon the said unions taking effect (1) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Hatton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby (2) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Benniworth shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Benniworth with Market Stainton and Ranby and (3) so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby.

"5. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised upon the first and every succeeding alternate vacancy in such United Benefice by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being on behalf of Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and upon the second and every succeeding alternate vacancy in the said United Benefice by the Patron of the said Benefice of Hatton.

"6. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Benniworth with Market Stainton and Ranby, from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of four successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union, the first turn shall belong to the said Francis William Parker, the second and the fourth turns shall belong to the Patron of the said Benefice of Benniworth and the third turn shall belong to the Patron of the said Benefice of Ranby.

"7. That upon the said unions taking effect the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton shall be divided as follows, that is to say, the whole of the glebe lands situate in the Parish of Sotby together with the farmhouse buildings and two cottages thereon shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Hatton with Sotby and all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Sotby with Market Stainton shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Benniworth with Market Stainton and Ranby.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Lincoln has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Aldborough and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of York and in the Diocese of Ripon:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Arthur, Bishop of Ripon, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Aldborough and Dunsforth, Saint Mary, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Ripon and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Ripon signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefices of Aldborough and Dunsforth, Saint Mary, are now full the Reverend Walter Robinson being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Aldborough and the Reverend William Cyril Luxmoore being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary:

"And whereas the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Aldborough is the Patron in right of his Benefice of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary:

"Now, therefore, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Arthur, Bishop of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Aldborough and the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Aldborough with Dunsforth' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Aldborough and the then Incumbent of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Aldborough only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Aldborough shall have been instituted to Aldborough subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Aldborough before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Aldborough following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Dunsforth, Saint Mary, shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Aldborough shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That at any time and from time to time after the Union has taken effect the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall employ such clerical or lay assistance in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice as the Bishop may require and towards the remuneration of clergy or lay workers so required to be employed the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice such sum as may be necessary not exceeding the sum of £100 in any one year.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Aldborough.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notices requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Ripon has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ripon.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice of Pencombe and the Benefice of Marston Stannett, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hereford and in the Diocese of Hereford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Pencombe and Marston Stannett duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

And whereas the said Benefice of Pencombe is now full the Right Reverend Geoffrey Durnford Iliff, Doctor in Divinity, being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Marston Stannett is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Geoffrey Durnford Iliff has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the Patronage of the said Benefice of Marston Stannett now belongs to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Pencombe:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Pencombe and the said Benefice of Marston Stannett shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided under the style of 'The United Benefice of Pencombe with Marston Stannett.'

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Pencombe shall be the Parish Church of the Parish of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Geoffrey Durnford Iliff if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Pencombe shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Pencombe shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the Patron of the said Benefice of Pencombe.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Much Cowarne and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Moreton Jeffries, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hereford and in the Diocese of Hereford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Much Cowarne and Moreton Jeffries duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union including an alteration of boundaries affecting the Parish of the said Benefice of Much Cowarne and the Parish of the Benefice of Avenbury situate in the said County and Diocese and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Much Cowarne is now full the Reverend Alfred Brown being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Moreton Jeffries is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Alfred Brown has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Much Cowarne and the said Benefice of Moreton Jeffries shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Much Cowarne with Moreton Jeffries' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Alfred Brown if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Much Cowarne shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Much Cowarne shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the first turn of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union shall belong to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Moreton Jeffries and the second and every subsequent turn of presentation or nomination thereto shall belong wholly to the Patron of the said Benefice of Much Cowarne.

" 5. That with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (testified as aforesaid), as Patron of the said Benefice of Avenbury, and with the consent of the Reverend Edward Henry Archer Shepherd, now Incumbent of the said Benefice of Avenbury (testified by his signing this Scheme), upon the union taking effect all those two detached portions of the said Parish of Much Cowarne situate in the Civil Parish of Stoke Lacy and lying to the east of the stream flowing from Hopton Dingle to the River Lodon, which said detached portions are more particularly delineated and set forth upon the Map or Plan annexed hereto and thereon coloured pink, shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Avenbury.

" Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting (1) the union of the Benefice of Meesden and the Benefice of Brent Pelham (now part of the United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham) and (2) the union of the Benefice of Stocking Pelham and the Benefice of Furneaux Pelham (being the remaining part of the said United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham) all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hertford and in the Diocese of Saint Albans:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon (1) the union of the said two Benefices of Meesden and Brent Pelham and (2) the union of the said two Benefices of Stocking Pelham and Furneaux Pelham duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Albans and therein recommended the said unions of Benefices and the terms for effecting the same, and the said Bishop of Saint Albans signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions of Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefices of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and Stocking Pelham are now full the Reverend Frank Shannon Holmes being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and the Reverend Sidney Leigh Lye being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham and the said Benefice of Meesden is at present vacant:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Meesden and the part of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham, which consists of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Meesden' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Buntingford, but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Brent Pelham and Meesden shall continue distinct in all respects.

" 2. That with the consent of the said Frank Shannon Holmes (testified by his signing this Scheme), the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme shall take effect immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme, and the said Frank Shannon Holmes if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and if the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham is not then vacant shall cease to be Incumbent of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and shall become Incumbent of the said Benefice of Furneaux Pelham pending the union of the last-named Benefice with the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

" 3. That the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham and the remaining part of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham, that is to say, the Benefice of Furneaux Pelham shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham' but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Stocking Pelham and Furneaux Pelham shall continue distinct in all respects.

" 4. That with the consent of the said Frank Shannon Holmes (testified as aforesaid) if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham shall be vacant, then the union referred to in Clause 3 of this Scheme shall forthwith take effect, but if upon that day the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham shall not be vacant then such union shall take effect immediately upon the first vacation thereafter of the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham, and in either case the said Frank Shannon Holmes if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Furneaux Pelham as the case may be shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham.

" 5. That upon the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Meesden shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Meesden, and so soon as conveniently may be the glebe house or Curate's house situate at Brent Pelham and the site and appurtenances thereof and the ground heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Meesden.

" 6. That upon the union referred to in Clause 3 of this Scheme taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham.

" 7. That after the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Meesden from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices of Meesden and Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham alternately, the Patrons of the said Benefice of Meesden having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

" 8. That after the union referred to in Clause 3 of this Scheme has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that the right of presentation or nomination to the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the present Patron of the said Benefice of Stocking Pelham during his lifetime and thereafter the whole right of presentation or nomination to the said United Benefice shall belong to the Patron of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham.

" 9. That pending the taking effect of the union referred to in Clause 3 of this Scheme all the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham with the exception of the said glebe house or Curate's house at Brent Pelham shall belong to the said Benefice of Furneaux Pelham, and upon the union referred to in Clause 3 of this Scheme taking effect the said endowments and property other than the said glebe house or Curate's house shall be appropriated as follows, that is to say, there shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Brent Pelham with Meesden (a) all the Tithe Rent Charges arising within the Parish of Brent Pelham and now or formerly payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham, together with all capital sums of money, securities or stocks representing or being the produce of the sale, redemption or other conversion of any part or parts of the said Tithe Rentcharges (b) the sum of £624 5s. 6d. India Three pounds per centum per annum Stock now held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, on behalf of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and (c) a sum of £941 7s. 8d. Four pounds per centum per annum Funding

Stock, being part of a larger sum of such Stock now held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, on behalf of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham and there shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Furneaux Pelham with Stocking Pelham all other the endowments and property of the said Benefice of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham except the said glebe house or Curate's house.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Albans has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Albans.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of October, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union (1) of the Benefice of Wickham Market and the Benefice of Lowdham with Pettistree (now part of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree) (2) of the Benefice of Bredfield (now part of the said United Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree) and the Benefice of Boulge (now part of the United Benefice of Boulge with Debach) and (3) of the Benefice of Debach (now part of the said United Benefice of Boulge with Debach) and the Benefices of Clopton and Burgh all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union (1) of the said two Benefices of Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree (2) of the said two Benefices of Bredfield and Boulge and (3) of the said three Benefices of Debach, Clopton and Burgh duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich and therein recommended the said three unions of Benefices and the terms for effecting the same, including provisions for the union of the said Benefices of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree and Boulge and also for the union of the said Benefices of Clopton and Debach pending the taking effect of the said three unions of Benefices and the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions of Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefices of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree, Clopton, Burgh and Wickham Market are all now full, the Reverend William Maulkinson Snook being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree; the Reverend Canon John Walter Bowden Page being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Clopton; the Reverend George Maddock Shallard being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Burgh; and the Reverend Basil Charles Pownall being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Wickham Market and the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach is at present vacant:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), and with the consents of the said William Maulkinson Snook and John Walter Bowden Page (testified by their signing this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this Scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned, as follows:—

“ PART I.

“ As to the proposed unions of the Benefices of (a) Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree and (b) Bredfield and Boulge we recommend and propose:—

“ 1.—(a) That the said Benefice of Wickham Market and the said Benefice of Lowdham with Pettistree shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree ’ and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Loes, but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects; and (b) that the said Benefice of Bredfield and the said Benefice of Boulge shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge,’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall be vacant the union of the said Benefices of Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree and also the union of the said Benefices of Bredfield and Boulge shall forthwith take effect and the said William Maulkinson Snook if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge but if upon the day aforesaid the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall not be vacant then the said two unions shall take effect upon the next avoidance thereafter of the said Benefice of Wickham Market, and the said William Maulkinson Snook or his successor Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield and Boulge with Lowdham and Pettistree (referred to in Part III of this Scheme) shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge.

“ 3. That upon the said unions taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree and the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge.

“ 4. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefices respectively from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, (a) that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall have the first turn and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall have the second and third turns and (b) that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the first turn and the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall have the second and third turns.

“ 5. That at any time and from time to time after the unions have taken effect the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree shall employ such clerical or lay assistance in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice as the Bishop may require and towards the remuneration of clergy or lay workers so required to be employed the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice such sum as may be necessary not exceeding the sum of £100 in any one year.

“ PART II.

“ As to the proposed union of the Benefices of Burgh, Clopton and Debach we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Burgh the said Benefice of Clopton and the said Benefice of Debach shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach ’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said Benefice of Burgh shall be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect and the said John Walter Bowden Page if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Clopton shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice but if upon the day aforesaid the said Benefice of Burgh shall not be vacant then the union shall take effect upon the next avoidance thereafter of the said Benefice of Burgh and the said John Walter Bowden Page or his successor, Incumbent of the United Benefice of Clopton with Debach (referred to in Part IV of this Scheme) shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach.

“ 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Clopton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice; and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Burgh and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

“ 4. That a Curate be appointed to assist the Incumbent in performing the duties of the United Benefice and that the stipend to be assigned to the Curate out of the revenues of the United Benefice shall be of such amount not exceeding £300 per annum as the Bishop may from time to time determine, this recommendation and proposal being made to the intent that the Bishop shall have the power of requiring the appointment of a Curate in accordance with and subject to the conditions and provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 18 of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

" 5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of six successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Burgh shall have the second and the fourth turns, the Patron of the said Benefice of Clopton shall have the first, the third and the sixth turns, and the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the fifth turn.

" 6. That as and from the date of the taking effect of the union of the said three Benefices of Burgh, Clopton and Debach or the date of the union (as provided in Part I of this Scheme) of the said two Benefices of Wickham Market and Lowdham with Pettistree whichever date shall be the later all the Tithe Rentcharges glebe lands and all other the endowments belonging to the United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach or which may hereafter belong to the same United Benefice shall be charged and for ever after be chargeable in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree with the annual sum or yearly rentcharge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of £100 the same annual sum or yearly rentcharge to be as from the later of the two dates aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the said United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same Incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and for the recovery of the said yearly rentcharge the Incumbent of the said United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree and his successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rentcharges to which those Sections apply. Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach shall by any Deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant, convey, and annex to the said United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree any part or parts of the endowments belonging to the said United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly rentcharge hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the said annual sum or yearly rentcharge shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and be no longer payable.

" PART III.

" As to the proposed union of the Benefices of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree and Boulge we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

" 1. That if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said Benefice of Wickham Market shall be full then pending the taking effect of the unions referred to in Part I of this Scheme the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree and the said Benefice of Boulge shall forthwith be united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Bredfield and Boulge with Lowdham and Pettistree' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects and the said William Maulkinson Snook if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 2. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 3. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time if the same shall become vacant before the unions referred to in Part I of this Scheme shall have taken effect shall be as follows, that is to say that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall have the first and second turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the third turn.

" PART IV.

" As to the proposed union of the Benefices of Clopton and Debach, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

" 1. That if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said Benefice of Burgh shall be full, then pending the taking effect of the union referred to in Part II of this Scheme the said Benefice of Clopton and the said Benefice of Debach shall forthwith be united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Clopton with Debach' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects, and the said John Walter Bowden Page if he is then Incumbent of the said

Benefice of Clopton shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"2. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Clopton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time if the same shall become vacant before the union referred to in Part II of this Scheme shall have taken effect shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of four successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Clopton shall have the first, the second and the third turns, and the Patron of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall have the fourth turn.

" PART V.

"As to the endowments and property of the present United Benefices of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree and Boulge with Debach, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the taking effect of any of the unions referred to in this Scheme the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall (save as hereinafter mentioned) be divided as follows, that is to say there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge or to the United Benefice of Bredfield and Boulge with Lowdham and Pettistree as the case may be the whole of the Tithe Rentcharges commuted at £134 arising within the Parish of Boulge and now or formerly payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property representing or being the produce of any sale, redemption or other conversion of all or any of such Tithe Rentcharges, and there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Burgh with Clopton and Debach or to the United Benefice of Clopton with Debach as the case may be all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach.

"2. That upon the taking effect of any of the unions referred to in this Scheme the capital sum of money now in the hands of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty representing the proceeds of the sale of the Parsonage House formerly belonging to the said Benefice of Boulge with Debach shall cease to be held for the benefit of that Benefice and shall be held by the said Governors for the benefit of the United Benefice of Burgh and Clopton with Debach, and the said sum of money (together with all accumulations of income, if any, pending the taking effect of the union of the said Benefices of Burgh, Clopton and Debach) shall be applied towards the cost of providing a house of residence for the Curate referred to in Clause 4 of Part II of this Scheme.

"3. That upon the taking effect of the unions referred to in Part I of this Scheme the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree shall be divided as follows, that is to say, there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Wickham Market with Lowdham and Pettistree the whole of the Tithe Rent Charge commuted at £96 15s. arising within the Parish of Pettistree and now or formerly belonging to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property representing or being the produce of any sale redemption or other conversion of all or any of such Tithe Rentcharges and there shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Bredfield with Boulge all other the endowments and property belonging to the said Benefice of Bredfield with Lowdham and Pettistree.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November, 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend John Augustine, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, has, under the Pluralities Acts, 1838 and 1887, made a Representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the following terms:—

"I, John Augustine, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, beg leave to represent to your Grace:—

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament called 'The Pluralities Acts, 1838 and 1887,' the place of district or portion of Land known as the District of Amington described in the First Schedule hereto may be advantageously separated from the Parish of Tamworth in the Diocese of Lichfield to which it belongs and be united for Ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Shuttington in the Diocese of Birmingham to which it is contiguous as the spiritual care of the Inhabitants thereof will thereby be more conveniently and effectually provided for.

"That pursuant to the directions of the 26th Section of the Act 1 and 2 Vic. c. 106 as amended by the Pluralities Act, 1887, I have drawn up in writing a Scheme appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, Glebe lands, Tithes, rent charges and other Ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments and in respect to Patronage and rights to Pews may be made with justice to all parties interested and I submit the same to your Grace together with the Consents in writing of the Lord Bishop of Birmingham and the respective Patrons and Incumbents of the Benefices of the said Parishes of Tamworth and Shuttington to the intent that your Grace may if you shall be satisfied with the said Scheme certify the same and such Consents to His Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this sixteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.

"J. A. LICHFIELD."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the Consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed that the District or portion of land described in the First Schedule hereto and delineated in the accompanying Map and thereon coloured pink shall be separated from the Parish of Tamworth in the Diocese of Lichfield to which it belongs and be annexed to and united with the Parish of Shuttington in the Diocese of Birmingham for ecclesiastical purposes and to be known in future as the Parish of Shuttington with Amington.

"That the Incumbent of the said Parish of Shuttington shall have exclusive Cure of Souls within the District of Amington so transferred to the Parish of Shuttington.

"That all ecclesiastical offices shall be performed for the Inhabitants of the said District of Amington in the Parish Church of Shuttington (or in the Church situate in the District of Amington) and that the fees for all such offices and all other such ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments usually payable to the Incumbent of a Benefice as shall arise or become payable within or in respect of the said District of Amington shall belong to the Incumbent of the said Parish of Shuttington.

"That the interest or other income arising from the Capital monies particulars of which are set out in the Second Schedule hereto and the annual rentcharge and dole and the properties also set out in such Schedule shall belong to the Vicar of Shuttington but no other change shall be made in regard to Glebe lands Tithes or Tithe rent charges compositions in lieu of Tithes endowments or other annual payments of or belonging to the Benefices of the Parishes herein referred to nor in respect to Patronage.

"That the Inhabitants of the said District shall be entitled to accommodation in the Church of the Parish of Shuttington to which it is proposed that the said District shall be annexed and in common with the Parishioners of that Parish and shall not henceforth be entitled to any accommodation in the Church of the Parish of Tamworth from which they shall be separated except nevertheless any person or persons (if any) possessing a legal right by Faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any Pews or Sitings in the last mentioned Church and who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

"The First Schedule referred to in the foregoing Representation and Scheme.

"To be added to the Parish of Shuttington in the Diocese of Birmingham from the Parish of Tamworth in the Diocese of Lichfield.

"That portion of the Parish of Tamworth known as the District of Amington delineated and coloured pink in the accompanying Map and containing in the whole 1,694.3 acres or thereabouts.

"The Second Schedule referred to in the foregoing Representation and Scheme.

"1. The Sum of £480 in the hands of Queen Anne's Bounty now bearing interest at 3 per cent. and representing a Sum of £500 Three per cent. Annuities transferred by C. H. W. a'Court Repington of Amington Hall in 1864 upon trust to apply the income towards providing for the Performance of Divine Service in the Church or Chapel of Amington.

"2. Rent Charge of £20 per annum created by Deed of Trust dated 7th September, 1836, payable by the Proprietors of the Amington Hall Estate for the performance of Divine Service at Amington Church.

"3. The Benefaction of £2,000 in respect of which a yearly payment of £60 is made by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under an Instrument dated the 13th May, 1909, and the further yearly sum of £60 granted by the said Commissioners by the said Instrument to meet the said Benefaction.

"4. The Parsonage House and piece of Land situate in and fronting to Woodhouse Lane in the Parish or Township of Amington in the County of Warwick shown on the Plan drawn on an Indenture of Deed of Gift dated 18th September, 1911, but now vested in the name of The Lichfield Diocesan Trust by Deed dated 10th December, 1927.

" 5. One acre of land or thereabouts situate in the village of Amington in the Parish of Tamworth in the County of Warwick formerly part of a Close called 'Green Fortune' together with the Church Schools and the Master's House erected thereon now vested in the before mentioned Lichfield Diocesan Trust by Deed dated 16th July, 1898.

" CONSENTS.

" We, Ernest William, Lord Bishop of Birmingham, within whose Diocese the Parish of Shuttington is situated, John Augustine, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Patron of the Benefice or Vicarage of Tamworth, Ernest Henry Rogers, Vicar of Tamworth and the said Ernest William, Lord Bishop of Birmingham, the Patron of the Benefice or Vicarage of Shuttington (the same being now vacant) do hereby signify our consent to the Scheme above proposed.

" E. W. BIRMINGHAM.

" J. A. LICHFIELD.

" E. H. ROGERS, Vicar of Tamworth."

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said Scheme has, under the provisions of the said Pluralities Acts, 1838 and 1887, by his Report dated the 21st day of September, 1928, certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council to the intent that an Order may, if His Majesty in Council so think fit, be made for carrying the Scheme into effect:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

The KING was pleased, on Tuesday, the 30th instant, at Buckingham Palace, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Henry Edward Davenport, Esq., and Frederick Daniel Green, Esq., out-going Sheriffs of the City of London; and upon Maurice Lyndham Waller, Esq., C.B., lately Chairman of the Prison Commission.

DANGEROUS DRUGS ACTS, 1920-1925.

Notice is hereby given under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that the Secretary of State for the Home Department proposes, after the expiration of forty days from this date, to make Regulations under Section 7 of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920 (10 & 11 Geo. V, cap. 46) controlling the manufacture, sale, possession and distribution of the drugs to which Part III of that Act applies.

The principal objects of the Regulations are:—

(1) To consolidate into one code the provisions of the seven separate sets of regulations at present in force.

(2) To apply the provisions of the existing Regulations to the drugs and preparations which have recently been brought under Part III of the Act of 1920, viz.:—extract and tincture of Indian hemp, dihydrocodeinone, dihydrocodeinone, and preparations containing them, and preparations containing less than one-tenth per cent. of diacetylmorphine.

Provision is also made for the constitution of a Tribunal (similar to that which has already been constituted for medical practitioners in accordance with the recommendations of the Departmental Committee on Morphine and Heroin addiction) to which the Secretary of State may refer any case where there is reason to think that a dentist may be contravening the provisions of the Regulations with respect to the supply, administration or prescribing of dangerous drugs.

Draft copies of the said Regulations may be obtained on application to the Under Secretary of State, Home Office, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF BLACKPOOL.

TRAMWAYS ACT, 1870, AND BLACKPOOL IMPROVEMENT ACT, 1925.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackpool acting by the Council as local authority in this behalf did on the 3rd day of October, 1928, make the following Bye-laws and Regulations:—

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS made by the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackpool with respect to Tramways and portions of Tramways for the time being belonging to and worked by them.

The Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, under the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, and the Blackpool Improvement Act, 1925, do hereby, as promoters and owners of the Blackpool Corporation Tramways, make the following Bye-laws and Regulations with respect to the Tramways and portions of Tramways for the time being belonging to and worked by the Corporation.

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the following words shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them, that is to say, "Corporation" means The Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackpool and any Lessee or other persons for the time being working the Tramways hereinafter defined; "Tramways" means the Tramway and Motor Omnibus System worked by the Corporation, whether situate within the County Borough of Blackpool, or in any other district where the Corporation have running powers; "Car" means any Carriage or Car run upon the Tramways and belonging to the Corporation, and any Motor Omnibus owned and used by the Corporation for the conveyance of passengers; "Passenger" means every person being carried or conveyed upon or by a car; "Conductor" means any officer or servant of the Corporation having charge of, or helping in the charge of a Car; "Driver" means any officer or servant of the Corporation driving or helping to drive a car; "Tramway Premises" means any Station, Waiting Room, or other premises used in connection with the Tramways.

Offensive Language or Conduct.

2. No person shall swear or use obscene, indecent or offensive language or conduct himself offensively whilst in or upon any Car or Tramway Premises, or spit, or commit any nuisance in, upon, from, or against any Car or Tramway Premises, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

No person shall, whilst travelling in or upon any Car, or whilst upon any Tramway Premises, sing or play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements or tracts of any kind, or beg or collect money, alms or subscriptions, or sell any article, or play any game, or gamble, or throw down and leave in or upon Tramway Premises or any Car, any waste paper or other refuse, or deposit remnants of food or fruit or any objectionable matter in or upon any Tramway Premises or any Car.

Objectionable Persons.

3. No person in a state of intoxication, or affected with any dangerous, contagious or infectious disorder, and no person who from any other cause or for any other reason in the opinion of the Conductor might be offensive or objectionable to any passenger, shall board or enter any Car, and any such person, found in or upon any Car shall leave the Car on being requested by the Conductor to do so, and on his refusal he may be immediately removed from the Car by or under the direction of the Conductor.

Dogs.

4. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any Car, except by permission of the Conductor or the Tramways General Manager. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any Car shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the Car immediately upon request by the Conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, such dog or other animal may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor.

Damage to Car.

5. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil or damage the seats, cushions, curtains or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice in or on any Car, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any Car or its equipment.

Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage so done.

Smoking.

6. No person shall smoke or carry a lighted pipe, cigar or cigarette in or upon any Car, except in a compartment or on seats especially set apart for the purpose.

Payment of Fares.

7. Each passenger shall pay to the Conductor the fare legally demandable for the journey, whether the same shall or shall not be demanded.

Upon payment of the fare, the Conductor shall give, and the passenger shall accept, a ticket for the journey or stage in respect of which the fare is paid. Such ticket shall only be available by the Car on which it is issued, and by the passenger to whom it is given, or in respect of whom it is issued.

Each passenger on a one-man operated vehicle shall tender his fare on entering the vehicle unless such fare shall have been previously paid to an authorised conductor.

Tickets.

8. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required to do so to the Conductor, or other duly authorised servant of the Corporation, and shall also, when required to do so, either deliver up his ticket in such a condition that the number and other material portion thereof can be read and identified, or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Offensive Clothing.

9. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the Conductor of a Car, soil, injure, or damage the seats, linings, curtains, or cushions of the Car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall enter, or remain in or upon any Car and the Conductor may prevent any such person entering the Car.

No such person shall enter in or upon any Car after having been requested not to do so by the Conductor, and if any such person be found in or upon any Car, he shall on the request of the Conductor, leave such Car upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned or tendered to him, and on his refusal to do so he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor.

Provided that no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in or upon a Car under the provisions of this Bye-law on the ground of the condition of his dress or clothing if such condition is solely due to the nature of his employment.

Provided further that on top covered Cars any such person as last mentioned shall, if so directed by the Conductor, travel on the upper deck when there is seating accommodation available thereon.

Interference with the Duties of Driver or Conductor.

10. No person other than the Conductor or Driver shall change or remove the route indicators, or Destination Boards, or interfere with the Controller, Brakes, Switches, Lights, Trolley Cord or any part of the Car or its equipment.

Luggage.

11. Every person about to enter or mount any Car or being a passenger, and in either case having any luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the Conductor, place such luggage on the front or Driver's platform, or on the rear or Conductor's platform, or in a compartment specially set apart for the conveyance of parcels, and not elsewhere on any Car. The Conductor may decline to take into or upon any Car any luggage which from its size or otherwise is not suitable for conveyance in or upon such Car.

Full Number of Passengers.

12. No person shall board or enter a Car carrying the full number of passengers or remain therein or thereon when warned by the Conductor not to do so.

The Conductor shall have power to prevent any person boarding or entering a Car, carrying the full number of passengers, and any person already upon such a Car shall immediately leave the same when requested to do so by the Conductor, and upon refusal he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor.

Disabled Cars.

13. If at any time a Car becomes disabled, or damaged, or from any cause unable to proceed, all passengers shall, upon the request of the Conductor, leave the Car, and shall not be entitled to the return of the amount of fares paid by them, but shall be entitled to continue their journey by the next available Car on any section. No person shall board or enter a disabled or damaged Car.

Cars proceeding to Sheds.

14. No person shall travel upon a Car which is proceeding to a shed, and is not on its usual route unless permitted to do so by the Conductor, and where such person is so permitted, he shall pay the usual fare payable on such route.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

15. No person other than the Driver or the Conductor of the Car, or other duly authorised Servant of the Corporation, shall travel or ride upon the platform, steps, outside rails, buffers, or any external part of a Car not intended for passengers, or stand on the upper deck, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the Conductor.

Firearms, &c.

16. No person shall place or carry in or upon any Car loaded firearms, or any article, instrument, or implement or any material or substance which may be dangerous or offensive to the passengers or likely to cause a nuisance, or to soil or damage any Car or the clothing of any passenger.

Entering and Leaving Cars.

17. Except at a terminus and when so directed by the Conductor at other stopping places appointed by the Corporation, every passenger shall enter and depart from a Car by the step of the hindermost or Conductor's platform, and not otherwise providing that this Byelaw shall not apply to any Car, which can, with the approval of the Ministry of Transport, be worked by one man in charge only, or Cars constructed to be loaded otherwise than at the hindermost or Conductor's platform.

All persons desiring to board a car for the purpose of travelling thereon shall first permit all persons intending to do so to alight from the Car, and persons desiring to depart from a Car shall cause no unnecessary delay to intending passengers.

Entering or leaving a Car in motion.

18. No person shall board or leave, or attempt to board or leave, any Car in motion.

Use of Signal Bells.

19. No person not being a servant of the Corporation shall ring or cause to be rung any of the signal bells upon any Car, so as to effect the unnecessary stoppage of any Car, nor signal a Car to start.

Illegal Offence.

20. Any person who shall commit whilst in or on any Car any breach of these Bye-laws shall, if the offence is continued, be liable in addition to incurring the penalty hereinafter provided, to be removed immediately from the Car by or under the direction of the Conductor, and if such person shall have paid his fare he shall not be entitled to have the amount thereof refunded.

Passengers to Form a Queue.

21. On occasions when six or more persons being intending passengers are awaiting at any stopping place or terminus upon the tramways to board or enter a Car, they shall form in a line or queue and board or enter the Car in the order in which they stand, and no person shall take or endeavour to take a place in such a line or queue when formed out of proper order, or shall enter or endeavour to enter a car out of the order in which he stood in such line or queue or before any person who stood in front of him in such line or queue.

Children Standing on Seats.

22. No child shall be allowed by the person in charge of such child to stand on the seats or cushions of any Car, and if any child shall stand on the seats or cushions of a car and damage be caused thereto, or to the clothing of any passenger in consequence thereof, the person in charge of such child shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage so caused or sustained.

Obstruction.

23. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any Conductor, Driver or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any Car or the Tramways.

Conductors and Drivers to Enforce Bye-laws.

24. Every Inspector, Conductor, and Driver of a Car shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws and prevent any breach thereof.

Penalty.

25. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be liable in respect of each offence to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Bye-laws to be kept in Cars.

26. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use and in or about each tramway shelter or waiting room a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

Repeal of Existing Bye-laws.

27. From and after the date of these Bye-laws coming into force, the Bye-laws and Regulations made by the Blackpool and Fleetwood Tramroad Company on the 30th day of June, 1899 and the Bye-laws made by the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackpool on the 5th day of May, 1902, with respect to Tramways and portions of Tramways for the time being belonging to and worked by them shall be repealed.

Operation.

28. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the first day of February, 1929. The common seal of the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of Blackpool was affixed hereto by order of the Council of the said Borough at a meeting of such Council held on the third day of October, 1928, in the presence of:

TOM G. LUMB, Mayor,
