

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Purleigh, in the County of Essex, and the Purleigh Parish Council, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Purleigh in the said County of Essex, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 29th day of January, 1929, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 12th March, 1929, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, being authorised thereto by His Majesty's said Commission, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf are pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the Civil Parish of Purleigh in the County of Essex save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

PURLEIGH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of All Saints, Purleigh, and in the Churchyard attached thereto:

Provided that:—

In a walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging, or reputed to belong, to William G. Raven, burial may be allowed of the body of the said William G. Raven at his decease, subject to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of March, 1929.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.
LORD CHANCELLOR.
PRIME MINISTER.

Lord Chamberlain.

Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

Lord Wraxall.

Secretary Sir W. Joynson-Hicks.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission dated the 4th day of December, 1928, to nominate and appoint Her Majesty The Queen, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., K.T., K.P., G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., G.B.E., His Royal Highness The Duke of York, K.G., K.T., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., the Most Reverend Father in God Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable Douglas McGarel, Baron Hailsham, Lord High

Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Right Honourable Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, or any three of them, during His Majesty's illness, to summon and hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His Majesty's approval of any matter or thing to which His Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Cransley, in the County of Northampton, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new Burial Ground in the Civil Parish of Cransley, in the said County of Northampton, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 29th January, 1929, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 12th March next, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, being authorised thereto by His Majesty's said Commission, do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in the Civil Parish of Cransley in the County of Northampton save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

CRANSLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Andrew, Cransley, and in the Churchyard attached thereto:

Provided that:—

(a) In the walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging or reputed to belong to Major Arthur Hugh Thurnburn, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In the said Churchyard the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Sophia Batch, Fanny Bollard, Leah Dawkins, Jane Dines, William Dines, Mary Ann Holland, Richard Kimbell, Samuel Moore, Albert William Sharman, Emily Jane Sharman, George Jonah Webb and Jane Wythe, at their decease, in grave spaces in which no interments have heretofore taken place, and which have been reserved and appropriated as burial places, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

M. P. A. Hankey.
