PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS,
SCOTLAND.

THE PLACES OF ELECTION (SCOTLAND) ORDER, 1929, DATED 2ND MAY, 1929, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 43 (16) OF THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE ACT, 1918 (7 AND 8 GEO. V, C. 64), AMENDING THE PLACES OF ELECTION (SCOTLAND) ORDER, 1918.

Whereas by Sub-section (16) of Section 43 of the above Act it is provided that, in the case of parliamentary elections (other than an election for a university constituency) the place of election shall be a convenient room situated in such place as the Secretary for Scotland may by order from time to time determine;

And whereas in pursuance of this provision places of election were determined by the Places of Election (Scotland) Order 1918(a);

And whereas certain amendments in the provisions of that Order were made by the Places of Election (Scotland) Orders 1922(b) and 1923(c);

And whereas a further amendment in the provisions of the Places of Election (Scotland) Order, 1918, appears to me expedient;

Now therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour, Bart., D.S.O., One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby order, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the provision above recited as read with the Secretaries of State Act, 1926, that the Schedule to the Places of Election (Scotland) Order, 1918, shall be further amended by the substitution in Part II of Lanark for Glasgow as the Place of Election for the Lanark Division of Lanark.

This Order may be cited as the Places of Election (Scotland) Order, 1929.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Whitehall this second day of May, 1929.

(a) In the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

(b) In the case of natural-born British subjects who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces in the Great War between the 4th August, 1914, and 11th November, 1918.

(c) In the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces:

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Until further order, special consideration will be given to candidates who have served in His Majesty's Forces during the War.

No person will be eligible who obtained from any tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, exemption from service in His Majesty's Forces under those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of military service or, although not so exempted, declined to comply with obligations imposed upon him by those Acts.

4. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. Candidates must be prepared to serve at home or abroad, and candidates selected for the Air Ministry must be prepared to undertake journeys by air in connection with the execution of their duties as may be directed.

6. The Civil Service Commissioners will take such steps as they think most appropriate to make known the existence of any vacancy or vacancies which it is desired to fill on any one occasion.

7. Application shall be addressed in the first instance to the Civil Service Commission, and shall be made on a form to be obtained from that Office. The Civil Service Commissioners will examine the candidates' credentials and will select for interview those candidates who appear to have the requisite qualifications and to be best fitted for appointment.

8. Candidates must either be Professional Associates of the Surveyors' Institution, having qualified under Sub-Division III (I. Quantities—Typical), or have passed the examinations qualifying for election.

9. Candidates who are selected for interview will be summoned to appear before a Selection Board, who will recommend for the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, and their decision will be final. The Selection Board will be constituted by the Civil Service Commissioners, in consultation with the authorities of the Department or Departments in which there are vacancies to be filled, and such Department or Departments will be represented on the Selection Board. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at this interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence they will frame their decisions.

10. When vacancies are offered for competition in more than one Department, it will rest with the Civil Service Commissioners to determine to which Department the successful candidates shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service; but subject to this condition, the wishes of the candidates will, where possible, be respected.

11. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have been elected to corporate membership of the Surveyors' Institution and have passed the prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Head of the Department in which they are employed.

12. Candidates selected for appointment will be required to pay a fee of £8.

13. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice of a competition to be held under the foregoing Regulations to fill not less than three vacancies in the Admiralty and three vacancies in the Air Ministry, if so many candidates should be recommended for appointment by the Selection Board.

The date on which candidates must be within the prescribed age limits is the 31st August, 1928.

No person will be considered from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 31st May, 1929, an application, in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

The Selection Board will meet in London on a date to be fixed when the number of candidates is known.
