At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorising certain improvements at the two Archbishop's Houses of Residence belonging to the See of Canterbury and known as Lambeth Palace and Old Palace, Canterbury respectively:

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of Canterbury, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said Archbishop's Houses of Residence, and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have specified our general approval of the same:

"And whereas the said Archbishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the aforesaid additions and improvements a sum of £2,300 (being a sum which together with the outstanding balance of the sum already borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed two years income of the See) should be provided by his borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Archbishop of Canterbury:

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having affixed his signature and Archiepiscopal Seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Archbishop be authorised to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding £2,300 and that as a security for the same the said Archbishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See, to the said Governors by Deed for a term of twenty-five years or until the said sum of £2,300, with interest for the same as herein-after mentioned and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of 12 months of the said term computed from the day of the
