FRIDAY, 1 NOVEMBER, 1929.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section thirty-three of the Government of India Act, as amended by the Government of India (Aden) Act, 1929, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council transfer to and vest in such person or authority as may be specified in the Order the superintendence, direction or control of the military government of Aden and that any such Order may contain such supplementary provisions as may be necessary for giving effect thereto:

And whereas it is expedient that such superintendence, direction and control as aforesaid should be transferred and vested in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The superintendence, direction and control of the military government of Aden, including every dependency of Aden whereof the military government was, immediately before the making of this Order, under the superintendence, direction or control of the Governor-General in Council, is hereby transferred to and vested in the Resident and Commander-in-Chief at Aden, who is, in the exercise thereof, required to pay due obedience to all such orders as he may receive from a Secretary of State.

2. This Order may be cited as the Government of India (Aden) Order, 1929.
