FRIDAY, 8 NOVEMBER, 1929.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 20th day of August, 1929, (N. 2359/29), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas in Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, wages or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been a Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Section 6 of the Royal Naval Reserve Volunteer Act, 1859, it is enacted, inter alia, that the Volunteers under that Act shall for such time as they shall be in actual service thereunder be entitled when on shore or afloat to the pay and other advantages of Petty Officers or Seamen in the Royal Navy according to the ratings which they may be found qualified to fill :

“And whereas we consider it desirable that a non-substantive rating, to be known as Light Gunlayer, should be held by certain Seamen of the Royal Naval Reserve belonging to the Patrol Service :

“And whereas for this purpose it is necessary to establish a non-substantive rating with the title of Light Gunlayer in Your Majesty's Navy :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment of the non-substantive rating of Light Gunlayer in Your Majesty's Navy, with payment therefor at the rate of 6d. per diem.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 15th day of August, 1929 (C.W. 6396/29), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 22nd January, 1920, Schedule V, Section VII, it is provided, inter alia, that Majors, Royal Marines, shall under certain conditions be granted unemployed pay when unemployed through causes other than at their own request or in consequence of misconduct:

"And whereas we consider that senior Majors, Royal Marines, who have been permanently passed over for promotion to higher rank should be relegated to half pay forthwith without being granted unemployed pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise us to place these officers on the half pay list on being permanently passed over for promotion, such authority to become effective from a date six months subsequent to that of the announcement by us of the provisions of this Order.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 30th day of August, 1929 (N.P. (1) 2538/1929), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein or to the widow or any relative of a deceased Officer, Seaman, or Marine, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 6th day of February, 1922, the 11th day of October, 1923, and the 3rd day of November, 1927, Your Majesty was graciously pleased to empower us at our discretion to award additional retired pay, disability retired pay or disability pensions to Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces and to Officers of Your Majesty's Naval Reserve Forces who might be disabled from causes attributable to the conditions of the Service:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Orders in Council bearing dates the 7th day of November, 1924, the 25th day of June, 1925, and the 3rd day of November, 1927, we were empowered to make awards to the widows and certain dependent relatives of such Officers and Men who might die from causes attributable to the conditions of the Service:

"And whereas by further Orders in Council bearing dates the 31st day of May, 1923, the 7th day of February, 1927, and the 3rd day of November, 1927, we were empowered to make awards to members of the Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service and Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service Reserve in respect of disablement attributable to the conditions of the Service or, in the event of their death from causes attributable to the Service, to certain of their dependants:

"And whereas we are authorised in assessing any grant which may be made under the aforesaid Orders in Council to take into consideration any compensation which the person, to whom the additional retired pay, disability retired pay, pension or other grant is payable, may receive from or on behalf of any third party who is responsible for the act, omission or circumstances which caused the disablement or death:

"And whereas we desire, although possessing general powers in such matters as representing Your Majesty, to be empowered at our discretion to withhold or to reduce the award of any additional retired pay, disability retired pay, pension or other grant where the person to whom it is payable in our opinion either unreasonably refuses to prefer a claim for compensation against a third party or unreasonably accepts an inadequate amount of compensation from such party:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us in such circumstances and at our discretion to withhold or to reduce the additional retired pay, disability retired pay, pension or other grant which we are empowered to grant under any of the Orders in Council aforesaid.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified Their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 9th day of September, 1929 (C.W. 7219/29), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas by Orders in Council bearing date the 11th day of August, 1903, and 26th day of May, 1925, it is provided, inter alia, that Medical and Dental Officers of Your Majesty's Navy may, under certain conditions, be allowed to hold appointments in recognised Civil Hospitals for limited periods after their entry into the Service:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 25th day of July, 1927, to provide, inter alia, that Medical and Dental Officers of Your Majesty's Navy who have held approved appointments in recognised Civil Hospitals before their entry into the Service may, subject to certain restrictions, be granted additional seniority up to maximum periods of one year and six months respectively, provided that the minimum period served in such civil hospital appointment is not less than one year for Medical Officers or six months for Dental Officers:

“And whereas we consider that periods of service of shorter duration in recognised Civil Hospitals before entry should also render an Officer eligible for additional seniority, and that the maximum period of service in civil hospital appointments both before and after entry combined which may be allowed to count for certain Naval purposes should not exceed one year for any individual Medical Officer or six months for any individual Dental Officer:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to empower us, at our discretion, and with effect from the 1st day of July, 1926, to apply the provisions relating to the counting of previous hospital service by Medical and Dental Officers laid down in the aforesaid Order in Council bearing date the 25th day of July, 1927,

(a) irrespective of the duration of such civil hospital appointments, and

(b) in cases in which the officers concerned may be permitted to continue to hold such appointments after entry into the service.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of September, 1929 (C.W. 8011/29), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 2nd day of August, 1918, to sanction the grant, at our discretion, of Temporary Commissions as Acting Chaplains to Ministers of Religious Bodies, not in conformity with the Church of England, who rendered full time service in the Royal Navy during the period of the late war:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 13th day of October, 1922, to sanction the continuance of the grant of temporary commissions to such Ministers under the same conditions in time of peace, subject to their being designated ‘Temporary Chaplains’ and not ‘Acting Chaplains’:

“And whereas the Reverend John Oliver Hornabrook, O.B.E., was granted a Temporary Commission as Acting Wesleyan Chaplain (now styled ‘Temporary Wesleyan Chaplain’) with seniority of the 16th day of October, 1915, and served in Your Majesty's Naval Service until the 31st day of August, 1928:

“And whereas we consider that such service should render this Officer eligible for retired pay:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the following proposals:—

“(1) Retired pay based on a standard rate of £150 a year to be granted to this Officer, and to be awarded at the current rate of £141 a year as from the date of his retirement;

“(2) The standard rate of £150 a year to be regarded as comparable with rates authorised in Schedule V, Section IX, of Your Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the 22nd day of January, 1920, and his retired pay to be subject to revision at the

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of October, 1929 (N.P. (2) 1295/29), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Orders in Council bearing dates the 13th August, 1920, the 26th May, 1925, and the 1st February, 1926, sanction was given to the payment of Marriage Allowance for the legal wives and legitimate children or step-children of married Seamen, Marines, and Reservists borne on the books of Your Majesty's Ships, and of Marines on shore strength, and of ratings of the Shore Signal Service and Shore Wireless Service:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that Marriage Allowance should be paid for children adopted under the provisions of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926, to or in respect of adopters who are otherwise eligible for the Allowance:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction as from the 1st day of October, 1929, payment of such allowance at the rates and under the conditions applicable to the legitimate children and step-children of men of Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the Air Navigation Act, 1920, His Majesty in Council was pleased to make the Air Navigation (Consolidation) Order, 1923, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1925, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1927, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 4) Order 1928, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1929, amending the first-mentioned Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the first-mentioned Order as so amended (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1929.

2. The following paragraph shall be inserted at the end of Schedule VII to the principal Order—

"7.—(1) Where it is brought to the notice of the Secretary of State—

(a) that a large number of persons are likely to gather in any district in Great Britain and Northern Ireland for the purpose of witnessing some event of public interest; or

(b) that it is intended to hold in any district in Great Britain and Northern Ireland an aircraft race or contest or exhibition of flying;

the Secretary of State may by directions impose such temporary restrictions on the flying of aircraft within or in the neighbourhood of that district as he may consider expedient in the interest of public safety, and no aircraft shall fly in contravention of any such directions:

Provided that any such restrictions, in so far as they relate to aircraft other than state aircraft, shall apply to British aircraft and aircraft registered in any other Contracting State without distinction.

(2) Any directions issued under this paragraph shall specify the area or areas to which the restrictions extend and the time or times during which the restrictions are to be in force, and, in the case of restrictions applying only to aircraft of, or other than, any particular class or description, the class or description of aircraft to which the restrictions apply, or do not apply, as the case may be.

(3) Any area specified in any such directions shall, during the specified time or times, be deemed to be a prohibited area for the purposes of paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this Schedule, but not for the purposes of any other provisions of this Order."

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928, 18-9 G. 5, c. 32 (in this Order called "the Act of 1928") His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to apply to any substance any of the provisions of the Act specified in the Order, with such modifications, if any, as may seem to His Majesty to be desirable having regard to the nature of the substance to which the Order relates:

And whereas it is desirable that certain provisions of the Act shall apply to Carbide of Calcium:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers conferred on Him by section 19 of the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Subject to the modifications contained in this Order the whole of the Act of 1928 shall apply to Carbide of Calcium in like manner as it applies to Petroleum Spirit, except so much of the Act of 1928 as relates to the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road, to the testing of petroleum spirit, to the keeping and use of petroleum spirit for the purpose of motor vehicles, motor boats, aircraft and engines, and to byelaws as to petroleum filling stations.

2. The following provisions as to the quantity of Carbide of Calcium which may be kept without a licence and the conditions of such keeping shall have effect in substitution for paragraphs (a) and (b) of the proviso to sub-section 1 of section 1 of the Act of 1928, that is to say,

(i) 5 lbs. of Carbide of Calcium may be so kept so long as it is kept in separate hermetically-closed metal vessels containing not more than 1 lb. each;

(ii) 28 lbs. of Carbide of Calcium may be so kept so long as the following conditions are observed:—

(a) The Carbide shall be kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically-closed at all times when the Carbide is not actually being placed in or withdrawn from such vessel or vessels;

(b) The vessels containing Carbide shall be kept in a dry and well-ventilated place;

(c) Due precautions shall be taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the Carbide;

(d) Notice shall be given of such keeping to the Local Authority.

Where a fixed generator is used on the premises:—

(e) Full and detailed instructions to be supplied by the maker, as to the care and use of the generator, shall be kept constantly posted up in such place as to be conveniently referred to by the generator attendant.

(iii) Where the Carbide is kept by a General Lighthouse Authority, as defined by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, 57-8 V. c. 60, such quantity may be so kept as may be required for the purposes of such Authority, provided that:—

(a) The Carbide is kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically-closed at all times when the Carbide is not actually being withdrawn from such vessel or vessels.

(b) The vessels containing Carbide are kept in a dry and well-ventilated building exclusively appropriated to the keeping of Carbide, and detached from a dwelling-house or separated therefrom by a substantial partition with no opening in it.

(c) Due precautions are taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the Carbide.

(d) No artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour is allowed to be taken into the building in which the Carbide is kept.

3. Instead of the words "Petroleum-Spirit" "Highly Inflammable" the label required in pursuance of section 5 of the Act of 1928 shall bear the words "Carbide of Calcium" "Dangerous if not kept dry" and the following caution: "The contents of this package are liable if brought into contact with moisture to give off a highly inflammable gas."

4. The Interpretation Act, 1889, 52-3 V. c. 63, shall apply to this Order in like manner as it applies to an Act of Parliament.

5. All previous Orders in Council relating to the keeping of Carbide of Calcium, viz., Orders dated 26th February, 1897, S.R. & O., 1897, No. 171, 7th July, 1897, S.R. & O., 1897, No. 544, 24th October, 1904, S.R. & O., 1904, No. 1659, 8th August, 1911, S.R. & O., 1911, No. 794, 14th July, 1922, S.R. & O., 1922, No. 816, and 27th June, 1927, S.R. & O., 1927, No. 596, are hereby revoked.

6. This Order may be cited as the Petroleum (Carbide of Calcium) Order, 1929.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928 (18-9 G. 5, c. 32) (in this Order called "the Act of 1928"), His Majesty is empowered by Order in Council to apply to any substance any of the provisions of the Act specified in the Order, with such modifications, if any, as may seem to His Majesty to be desirable having regard to the nature of the substance to which the Order relates:

And whereas it is desirable that certain provisions of the Act of 1928 shall apply to the Mixtures of Petroleum which are defined by the Schedule to this Order:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers conferred on Him by section 19 of the Act of 1928 and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Subject to the modifications contained in this Order the whole of the Act of 1928 shall apply to the Mixtures of Petroleum which are defined by the Schedule to this Order in like manner as it applies to Petroleum Spirit, except so much of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act as is inconsistent with or contradictory to Part II of the Schedule to this Order (manner of testing mixtures of petroleum).

2. Where the Mixture of Petroleum is not sufficiently liquid to be measured by liquid measure, or is otherwise unsuitable to be measured by liquid measure, the following provisions as to the quantity which may be kept without Petroleum Spirit Licence and the conditions of such keeping shall have effect in substitution for paragraph (b) of the proviso to subsection (1) of section 1 of the Act, that is to say,

The quantity of the Mixture of Petroleum Spirit shall not exceed 30 lbs. and may only be kept without a Petroleum Spirit Licence so long as it is enclosed in hermetically sealed packages or vessels, each of which shall contain not more than 1 lb.

3. The label required in pursuance of section 5 of the Act of 1928 shall bear the words "Petroleum Mixture giving off an inflammable heavy vapour" in substitution for the words "Petroleum Spirit" and the words "Highly Inflammable".

4. Wherever in the Act of 1928, or in any Order, Licence, Byelaw or Regulation issued under the said Act, a quantity is specified in gallons, such quantity shall, in the case of solid mixtures of Petroleum defined by the Schedule to this Order, be read as though the weight of ten pounds were substituted for one gallon and of one and a quarter pounds for one pint.

5. The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52-3 V. c. 63), shall apply to this Order in like manner as it applies to an Act of Parliament.

6. The Petroleum (Mixtures) Orders of the 7th May, 1907 (S.R. & O. 1907, No. 483), and of the 27th June, 1927 (S.R. & O. 1927, No. 597), are hereby revoked.

7. This Order may be cited as the Petroleum (Mixtures) Order, 1929.

M. P. A. Hankey.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Definition of Mixtures of Petroleum.

For the purposes of this Order the expression "mixtures of petroleum" means all mixtures (whether liquid, viscous or solid) of petroleum with any other substance except mixtures which, when tested in the manner set forth in Part II of this Schedule, do not give off an inflammable vapour at a temperature below seventy-three degrees Fahrenheit.

PART II.

Manner of Testing Mixtures of Petroleum.

Liquid Mixtures.

1. A mixture of petroleum which is wholly liquid, flows quite freely, and does not contain any sediment or thickening ingredient, shall be tested by the method set forth in Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

Sedimentary and Viscous Mixtures.

2.—(1) Where a mixture of petroleum contains an undissolved sediment that can be separated by filtration or by settlement and decantation, the sediment shall be so separated and the filtered or decanted liquid shall be tested by the method set forth in Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

In separating the sediment, care must be taken to minimise the evaporation of the petroleum.

(2) Where a mixture of petroleum is such that sediment cannot be separated by filtration or by settlement and decantation, or where it is of a viscous nature, the apparatus to be used for testing the mixture shall be fitted with a stirrer in accordance with the specification contained in Part I of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

(3) In carrying out the test of a viscous petroleum mixture, the stirrer shall, except when the test flame is applied, be constantly revolved at a slow speed with the fingers, the direction of revolution being that of the hands of a clock.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions, the method of testing a sedimentary or viscous mixture shall be that set forth in Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928.

Solid Mixtures.

3. The apparatus to be used for testing a solid mixture of petroleum shall be that of which a specification is contained in Part I of the Second Schedule to the Act of 1928, and the method of carrying out the test shall be as follows:—

The solid mixture must be cut into cylinders $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches long and $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter by means of a cork borer or other cylindrical cutter having the correct internal diameter. These cylinders must be placed in the petroleum cup of the testing apparatus in a vertical position in such number as completely to fill the cup, the cylinders being in contact with one another, but not so tightly packed as to be deformed in shape;

Five or six of the cylinders in the centre of the cup must be shortened to $\frac{3}{4}$ inch to allow space for the thermometer bulb;

The air bath of the testing apparatus must be filled with water to a depth of $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches;

The water bath must then be raised to and maintained at a temperature of about 75° Fahrenheit; the cup must then be placed in the air bath, and the temperature of the sample must be allowed to rise until the thermometer in the oil cup shows 72° Fahrenheit, when the test flame must be applied.

If no flash is obtained, this temperature must be maintained constant in the oil cup for one hour, at the expiration of which time the test flame must again be applied:

Provided that in testing samples of petroleum mixtures in a room of which the temperature is below 73° Fahrenheit the test flame may be applied after the sample has been a few minutes in the cup while it is still at the temperature of the room in which the test is being carried out, and if a flash is obtained by this means the test need not be proceeded with at a higher temperature.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 80 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, power is given to His Majesty by Order in Council to make Regulations with respect to the manner in which Government ships may be registered as British ships for the purpose of the Merchant Shipping Acts:

And whereas by the said Section it is provided that those Acts shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications which may be made by Order in Council, either generally or as respects any special class of Government ships, apply to Government ships registered in accordance with such Regulations as if they were registered in manner provided by those Acts:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act, or otherwise in Him vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following Regulations shall have effect as regards ships belonging to His Majesty which are under the control of the Government of India (The Governor General of India in Council) or a local Government in India, hereinafter referred to as Indian Government ships:—

1. An application for registry of an Indian Government ship shall be made in writing under the hand of a Secretary to the Government concerned or other officer nominated by that Government. Such application shall contain the following particulars:—

(i) A statement of the name and description of the ship:

(ii) A statement of the time when and place where the ship was built, or, if the ship was foreign built and the time and place of building are unknown, a statement to that effect and of her foreign name:

(iii) A statement of the nature of the title to the said ship, whether by original construction by or for that Government, or by purchase, capture, condemnation or otherwise, and a list of the documents of title, if any, in case she was not originally constructed by or for that Government:

(iv) A statement of the name of the Master.

2. The Registrar, on receiving such application in respect of an Indian Government ship, shall—

(i) enter the ship in the Register Book as belonging to "His Majesty, represented by the Government of [giving the name of the Government] " and shall also enter therein—

(ii) the name of the port to which she belongs:

(iii) the particulars stated in the application for registration:

(iv) the details comprised in the Surveyor's Certificate.

3. On the registry of an Indian Government ship the Registrar shall retain in his possession the Surveyor's Certificate and the application for registry and any documents of title mentioned in such application.

4. Upon the transfer of a registered Indian Government ship by Bill of Sale, the Secretary of State for India in Council, as required by the Government of India Act, shall be the transferor, and the Bill of Sale shall be in Form A in the proper form prescribed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, hereinafter called the Principal Act, omitting the covenant therein contained. Any such Bill of Sale shall be signed on behalf of the transferor by a person authorised to sign by or under Part III of the Government of India Act.

5. The application for a Certificate of Sale referred to in Sections 39 to 42 and Sections 44 to 46 of the Principal Act, may be made in respect of an Indian Government ship by a Secretary to the Government concerned or other officer nominated by that Government.

6. The person to whom the management of any Indian Government ship is entrusted by the Government concerned shall be registered as provided by Section 59 (2) of the Principal Act.

7. Where any provision of the Merchant Shipping Acts which by virtue of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, and this Order in Council is applicable to Indian Government ships imposes any duty or liability or confers any right or power upon or contemplates any act being performed by the owner of a ship such duty, liability, right or power shall, subject always to the other provisions of this Order in Council, be carried out, borne, or exercised by the Government concerned on behalf of His Majesty.

8. The term "seaman" in Section 113 of the Principal Act shall not be deemed to mean or include any seaman in His Majesty's Navy or the Royal Indian Marine.

9. In this Order in Council the term Merchant Shipping Acts shall mean and include any of the Merchant Shipping Acts, any provision of which is by virtue of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, and this Order applicable to Indian Government ships.

10. The following sections and provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts shall not apply to Indian Government ships registered in pursuance of this Order namely:—

(i) The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, Sections 1, 2, 3, 8 to 12, 427 to 431.

The provisions of Part II of the Act relating to the requirement of officers to hold certificates of competency and the production of those certificates.

(ii) The Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898, Sections 3 and 5.

(iii) The Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, Sections 25 and 27.

Provided always that no provision of the Merchant Shipping Acts which, according to a reasonable construction, would not apply in the case of Indian Government ships shall be deemed to apply to such ships by reason only that its application is not hereby expressly excluded.

11. Anything required or authorised by this Order in Council to be done by a Government may be done by a Secretary to that Government or other officer nominated by that Government.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 80 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, power is given to His Majesty by Order in Council to make regulations with respect to the manner in which Government ships may be registered as British ships for the purpose of the Merchant Shipping Acts:

And whereas by the said Section it is provided that those Acts shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications which may be made by Order in Council, either generally or as respects any special class of Government ships, apply to Government ships registered in accordance with such regulations as if they were registered in manner provided by those Acts:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act, or otherwise in Him vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following regulations shall have effect as regards any Government ships in the service of His Majesty's Government in the Union of South Africa (hereinafter referred to as the Union Government):—

1. An application for registry of a Government ship in the service of the Union Government (hereinafter referred to as a Union Government ship) shall be made in writing under the hand of the Permanent Head of the Department of State of the Union (hereinafter called the Department) controlling the ship. Such application shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) a statement of the name and description of the ship;

(b) a statement of the time when and place where the ship was built; or, if the ship was foreign built and the time and place of building are unknown, a statement to that effect and of her foreign name;

(c) a statement of the nature of the title to the said ship, whether by original construction by or for the Union Government, or by purchase, capture, condemnation, or otherwise, and a list of the documents of title, if any, in case she was not originally constructed by or for the Union Government.

2. The Registrar on receiving an application under the last preceding regulation shall—

(a) enter the ship in the Register Book as belonging to the Union Government, represented by the Department of (giving the name of the Department), and shall also enter therein

(b) the name of the port to which she belongs;

(c) the particulars stated in the application for registration;

(d) the details comprised in the Surveyor's Certificate.

3. On the registry of a Union Government ship the Registrar shall retain in his possession the Surveyor's Certificate and the application for registry and any documents of title mentioned in such application.

4. Upon the transfer by Bill of Sale of a Union Government ship the Permanent Head of the Department for the time being shall be the transferor, and the Bill of Sale shall be in Form A in the proper form prescribed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act), omitting the covenant contained in that form.

5. The application for a Certificate of Sale referred to in Sections 39 to 42 and Sections 44 to 46 of the Principal Act, may be made in respect of a Union Government ship by the Permanent Head of the Department.

6. The person to whom the management of a Union Government ship is entrusted by the Union Government shall be registered as provided by Section 59 (2) of the Principal Act.

7. Where any provision of the Merchant Shipping Acts which by virtue of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, and this Order in Council is applicable to Union Government ships imposes any duty or liability or confers any right or power upon or contemplates any act being performed by the owner of a ship, such duty, liability, right or power shall, subject always to the other provisions of this Order in Council be carried out, borne, or exercised by the Permanent Head of the Department in respect of which the ship is registered.

8. In this Order in Council the term "Merchant Shipping Acts" shall mean and include any of the Merchant Shipping Acts, any provision of which is by virtue of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, and this Order applicable to Government ships.

9. The term "Seamen" in Section 113 of the Principal Act shall not be deemed to mean or include any person employed on tugs, dredgers or similar craft owned by the Union Government.

10. Sections 1 and 8 to 12 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, shall not apply to Union Government ships registered in pursuance of this Order in Council.

Provided always that no provision of the Merchant Shipping Acts which according to a reasonable construction would not apply in the case of Union Government ships shall be deemed to apply to such ships by reason only that its application is not hereby expressly excluded.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865, it is enacted (among other things) that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act:

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that in relation to any Dockyard Port it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to make regulations for all or any of the purposes therein particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary with a view to the proper protection of His Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of His Majesty's Naval Service:

And whereas in pursuance of the said Act, by Order in Council dated the 27th day of September, 1918, certain regulations were made with reference to the Dockyard Port of Deptford:

And whereas it appears expedient to repeal the said Order in Council and to substitute therefor this Order:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Him vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect as from one calendar month from the date hereof.

2. On this Order taking effect the said Order of the 27th day of September, 1918, shall cease to operate.

3. The terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as in the said Dockyard Ports Regulation Act, 1865.

4. The Dockyard Port of Deptford shall extend to a distance of four hundred feet from the wharves of His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford.

5. No person without the written permission of the Admiralty shall lay any moorings in the Dockyard Port, and all such moorings shall be in such positions as the Admiralty shall deem fit and shall be forthwith removed on the requisition of the Admiralty to that effect.

6. Except at moorings laid with the permission of the Admiralty for mercantile craft, no merchant or other private vessel shall lie, be anchored or moored within the limits of the Dockyard Port without permission from the Superintendent of His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford.

7. If at any time the anchor of any merchant or other private vessel hooks any of His Majesty's moorings, the Master of such vessel shall immediately inform the Superintendent of His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford and shall obtain such assistance as may be necessary to clear the moorings with the least possible damage to the same.

8. No vessel laid by or neglected as unfit for sea service shall lie within the limits of the Dockyard Port.

9. The Master of every Merchant or other private vessel to which this Order relates shall observe, and cause to be observed, the provisions of this Order, as far as relates to his vessel; and if any Master or other person acts in any respect in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, or fails to observe or to cause the same to be observed, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of ten pounds.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is among other things enacted by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, that the Legislature of any British Possession may by any Act or Ordinance, confirmed by His Majesty in Council, repeal wholly or in part any provision of that Act (other than those of the third part thereof which relate to emigrant Ships) relating to ships registered in that Possession, but that any such Act or Ordinance shall not take effect until the approval of His Majesty has been proclaimed in the Possession or until such time thereafter as may be fixed by the Act or Ordinance for the purpose:

And whereas it is enacted by the Merchant Shipping (Salvage) Act, 1916, that that Act shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1914:

And whereas the Parliament of the Union of South Africa has by an Act entitled the Merchant Shipping Act, 1929, repealed the provisions of the Merchant Shipping (Salvage) Act, 1916, and certain provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, other than those of the third part thereof, in so far as they relate to ships registered in the Union of South Africa and owned by the Union Government:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act of the Parliament of the Union of South Africa should be confirmed by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to confirm the said Act.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Colchester, Saint Martin, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of Chelmsford:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Guy, Bishop of Chelmsford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and Colchester, Saint Martin, duly made their

Report to the said Bishop of Chelmsford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Chelmsford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and Colchester, Saint Martin, are now full the Reverend Espine Robert Monck-Mason being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and the Reverend Henry Frederick de Courcy-Benwell being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin:

"And whereas there is no Parsonage House belonging to either of the said Benefices of Colchester, Holy Trinity, or Colchester, Saint Martin:

"And whereas the Patron of the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, is unknown and upon all of the vacancies in such Benefice which have occurred during a period of more than the last hundred years the Patronage has devolved to the Diocesan by lapse and the Diocesan has accordingly collated thereto on every one of such vacancies:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Guy, Bishop of Chelmsford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity with Saint Martin' and that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Colchester, Holy Trinity, shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Colchester, Holy Trinity, shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the Table of Fees for the United Parish.

"3. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and the then Incumbent of Colchester, Saint Martin, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin; and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, shall have been instituted to Colchester, Holy Trinity, subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice; but if he shall have been instituted to Colchester, Holy Trinity, before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, following such avoidance of the Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, and the then Incumbent of Colchester, Saint Martin, shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That upon the union taking effect the marriage registers in duplicate current at the Church of Saint Martin, Colchester, shall be sent by the Incumbent of the United Benefice to the Registrar General to be closed officially.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the patronage of the United Benefice on the same from time to time becoming vacant shall be exercised as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised alternately by the Bishop of Chelmsford for the time being and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and if under any of the provisions of Clause 3 of this Scheme an Incumbent of the said Benefice of Colchester, Saint Martin, shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice then the first of such alternate turns of presentation or nomination shall belong to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, but otherwise such first turn shall belong to the Bishop of Chelmsford.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said

Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chelmsford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas an Appeal against the said Scheme was made to His Majesty in Council by the Parochial Church Council of the Benefice of Colchester, Holy Trinity, and such Appeal was referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by Order of His Majesty in Council of the 1st day of November, 1928:

And whereas the Lords of the Committee, having taken the said Appeal into consideration, reported to His Majesty in Council as their opinion that the Appeal ought to be dismissed and the said Scheme affirmed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by Order of the 15th day of August, 1929, to approve the said Report:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chelmsford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1928, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the unions (1) of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Barham with a part of the United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham and (2) of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Whitton with Thurleston with the remaining part of the said United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

“Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon a re-arrangement of the said Benefices of Barham, Claydon with Akenham, and Whitton with Thurleston and the Benefice of Henley situate in the said County of Suffolk and in the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich and therein recommended the unions (1) of the said Benefice of Barham with a part of the said United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham, that is to say, the Benefice of Claydon and (2) of the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston with the remaining part of the said United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham that is to say the Benefice of Akenham and the terms for effecting such unions including the transfer to the Parish of the said Benefice of Henley of a portion of the Parish of the said Benefice of Barham, and the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions of Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“And whereas the said Benefices of Henley, Barham, and Whitton with Thurleston are now full, the Reverend William Carter Pearson being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Henley, the Reverend Canon Edmund Edward Eddowes being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Barham, and the Reverend Francis Edward Guy Longe being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston and the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham is at present vacant:

“Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“1. That the part of the said United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham which consists of the Benefice of Claydon, and the said Benefice of Barham shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Claydon with Barham’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Claydon and Barham shall continue distinct in all respects.

“2. That the part of the said United Benefice of Claydon with Akenham which consists of the Benefice of Akenham, and the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Whitton and Thurleston with Akenham’ but that the Parishes of the said Benefices of Akenham and Whitton with Thurleston shall continue distinct in all respects.

“3. That with the consents of the said Edmund Edward Eddowes and Francis Edward Guy Longe (testified by their signing this Scheme), the unions contemplated by Clauses 1 and 2 of this Scheme shall take effect upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme and the said Edmund Edward Eddowes, if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Barham shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham and the said Francis Edward Guy Longe, if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Whitton and Thurleston with Akenham.

"4. That upon the said unions taking effect and pending the provision of a new Parsonage House for the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham, as hereinafter provided, the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Barham shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham; the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Whitton and Thurleston with Akenham; and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and accumulated by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, as a fund for the provision of a new Parsonage House more suitably situated than the present Parsonage House at Barham, for the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham.

"5. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices of Barham and Claydon with Akenham alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham having the right upon the first presentation to such United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Barham having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the same United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternative turn thereafter.

"6. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Whitton and Thurleston with Akenham from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to such United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Whitton with Thurleston shall have the first and the third turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham shall have the second turn.

"7. That upon the unions taking effect the property and endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham shall be annexed as follows, that is to say (a) there shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Claydon with Barham all the tithe rent charges originally commuted at £256 14s. 0d. arising within the Parish of Claydon and now or formerly payable to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham together with all capital sums of money, stocks and other property representing or being the produce of the sale redemption or other conversion of the whole or any part of such tithe rent charges and also all glebe land now situate within the said Parish of Claydon and belonging to the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham and (b) there shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Whitton and Thurleston with Akenham all other the property and endowments now belonging to the said Benefice of Claydon with Akenham.

"8. That with the consent of the said William Carter Pearson (testified by his signing this Scheme) upon the unions taking effect a part of the said Parish of Barham, that is to say the eastern part of the said Parish of Barham containing Rede Cottage, Red Barn, Whitelodge Farm, Barrack Cottages, Green Farm, Barham Green, Skeet's Green, Borley's Wood and Potter's Grove (all which part is delineated and set forth upon the Map or Plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured pink) shall be severed from the said Parish of Barham and shall be annexed to and form part of the said Parish of Henley for all ecclesiastical purposes but no alteration in the endowments or patronage of either of the Benefices affected shall be made by reason of such transfer of territory.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas an Appeal against the said Scheme was made to His Majesty in Council by M. G. Hale, Esquire, Churchwarden of the Benefice of Claydon, and such Appeal was referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by Order of His Majesty in Council on the 1st day of November, 1928:

And whereas the Lords of the Committee, having taken the said Appeal into consideration, reported to His Majesty in Council as their opinion that the Appeal ought to be dismissed and the said Scheme affirmed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by Order of the 15th day of August, 1929, to approve the said Report:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the unions (1) of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton with a portion of the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe, and (2) of the remaining portion of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe with the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Wicklewood, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Norfolk and in the Diocese of Norwich:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the unions (1) of the said Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton, with so much of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe as comprises the Benefice of Carleton Forehoe and (2) of the said Benefice of Wicklewood with the remaining part of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe, that is to say the Benefice of Crownthorpe, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Norwich and therein recommended the said unions and the terms for effecting the same and the said Bishop of Norwich signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for effecting the said unions which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Wicklewood is now full the Reverend Sydney Gilbert Mansbridge being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton and the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe are at present vacant:

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton and Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe now belongs to one and the same Patron or Patrons:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton and so much of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe as comprises the Benefice of Carleton Forehoe shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley, Bixton and Carleton Forehoe' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That the said Benefice of Wicklewood and the remaining part of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe, that is to say the Benefice of Crownthorpe, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe' and that the Parishes of the said Benefices of Wicklewood and Crownthorpe shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.

"3. That the Church of the Parish of Wicklewood shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Wicklewood shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the Table of Fees for such United Parish.

"4. That with the consent of the said Sydney Gilbert Mansbridge (testified by his signing this Scheme) the unions referred to in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Scheme shall take effect upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme and the said Sydney Gilbert Mansbridge if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Wicklewood shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe.

"5. That upon the unions taking effect the marriage registers in duplicate current at the Church of Crownthorpe shall be sent by the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe to the Registrar General to be closed officially.

"6. That upon the unions taking effect (a) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley and Bixton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley, Bixton and Carleton Forehoe (b) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wicklewood shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe and (c) so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be appropriated for the benefit of the United Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley, Bixton and Carleton Forehoe either for the improvement of the Parsonage House of such United Benefice or as an addition to the endowment thereof.

"7. That after the said unions have taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons of the said Benefices of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe and Wicklewood shall present or nominate to the United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to such United Benefice after the unions, the Patron of the said Benefice of Wicklewood shall have the first and third turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe shall have the second turn.

"8. That upon the unions taking effect a portion of the endowments and property of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Wicklewood with Crownthorpe namely all the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe which at the date of the union of the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with the said Benefice of Crownthorpe belonged to such Benefice of Crownthorpe together with all capital sums of money, stocks, securities and other property representing or being the produce of any sale, redemption or other conversion of the whole or any part of the endowments and property formerly belonging to the said Benefice of Crownthorpe as aforesaid, and all other the endowments and property now belonging to the said Benefice of Carleton Forehoe with Crownthorpe shall be annexed to the United Benefice of Barnham Broom with Kimberley, Bixton and Carleton Forehoe.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Norwich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Norwich.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Grendon Underwood and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Edgcott, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Buckingham and in the Diocese of Oxford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Thomas Banks, Bishop of Oxford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Grendon Underwood and Edgcott duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Oxford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Oxford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Grendon Underwood and Edgcott are now full, the Reverend Sidney Hugh Charles Wynne being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood and the Reverend James Fraser Amies being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Edgcott:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Thomas Banks, Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood and the said Benefice of Edgcott shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Grendon Underwood with Edgcott' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Edgcott only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood and the then Incumbent of Edgcott shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Edgcott and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Edgcott if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood shall have been instituted to Grendon Underwood subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Edgcott and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Edgcott shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Edgcott and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of the Benefice of Oakley, situate in the said Diocese of Oxford.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Edgcott having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

"5. That upon the union taking effect a portion of the endowment and property of the United Benefice, that is to say a sum of £1,666 13s. 4d. Local Loans Three pounds per centum per annum Stock being part of a larger sum of such Stock at present held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, on behalf of the said Benefice of Grendon Underwood shall be severed and diverted from the United Benefice and shall be transferred and annexed to and held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners on behalf of the Benefice of Worminghall, situate in the said Diocese of Oxford.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Oxford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Grandborough and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Willoughby, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Warwick and in the Diocese of Coventry:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Lisle, Bishop of Coventry, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Grandborough and Willoughby duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Coventry and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Coventry signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Grandborough and Willoughby are now full the Reverend Henry Brook Young being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grandborough and the Reverend George Ernest Morris Tonge being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Willoughby:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Lisle, Bishop of Coventry (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Grandborough and the said Benefice of Willoughby shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Grandborough with Willoughby' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London

Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Grandborough only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Willoughby and the then Incumbent of Grandborough shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Willoughby only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Grandborough and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Grandborough if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Willoughby shall have been instituted to Willoughby subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Willoughby before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Willoughby following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Grandborough and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grandborough shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Willoughby shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, and the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union shall belong to the Patron or Patrons of that one of the said two Benefices an Incumbent of which does not become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice under any of the provisions of Clause 2 of this Scheme.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Coventry has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Coventry.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 25th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Standish, in the County of Lancaster and in the Diocese of Blackburn, between that Benefice and four other Benefices, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Christ Church, Carnforth, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of All Saints,

Habergham, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Trawden, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Warton (near Carnforth), all in the said County of Lancaster and in the said Diocese of Blackburn (which four Benefices are hereinafter called 'the said four Benefices'):

"Whereas the Bishop of the said Diocese of Blackburn is the Patron in right of his See of the said Benefice of Standish and also of the said four Benefices:

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said four Benefices are at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said Benefice of Standish has endowments of such amount as that after the charges hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments the said Benefice of Standish will still be sufficiently endowed:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Percy Mark, Bishop of the said Diocese of Blackburn, has represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the Parishes of the said four Benefices by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Standish which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Standish is now full, the Reverend Charles William Newton Hutton being the present Rector or Incumbent thereof:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of The Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which the said Benefice of Standish and each of the said four Benefices is situate, and with the consent of the said Percy Mark, Bishop of the said Diocese of Blackburn, acting as such Bishop and also as the Patron in right of his See as well of the said Benefice of Standish as of each of the said four Benefices (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this Scheme and sealed the same with their several Episcopal Seals), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said Benefice of Standish shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Standish or which may thereafter belong to the same Benefice shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the Incumbents for the time being of the said four Benefices with the annual sums or yearly charges hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of £100 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Christ Church, Carnforth, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of £85 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of All Saints, Habergham, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of £125 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Trawden and a clear annual sum or yearly charge of £113 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Warton (near Carnforth), such annual sums or yearly charges to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbents of the said four Benefices and the same annual sums or yearly charges to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of any one of the said four Benefices or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of January, the first day of April, the first day of July, and the first day of October in every year; and for the recovery of the said yearly charges the Incumbents of the said four Benefices and their successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by Sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rentcharges to which those Sections apply.

"Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Standish shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said four Benefices or to any one or more of them any part or parts of the Rectorial endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Standish which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Blackburn for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charges or any one or more of them hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sums or yearly charges or one or more of them as the case may be shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Blackburn.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Pillaton, in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro:

"Whereas by the will dated the 5th day of September, 1923, of the late Thurstan Collins, of Newton Ferrers, in the County of Devon, Esquire, the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Pillaton was devised to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Mary in Truro (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter'):

"And whereas William Walter Crossman, of Number 78, Crantock Street, Newquay, in the said County of Cornwall, Estate Agent, Violet Mary Howard wife of Robert John Howard of Willestrew, Lamerton, in the said County of Devon, a Commander (retired) in Your Majesty's Navy, and Evelyn Joyce Hext wife of Arthur Charles Hext, of Tredethy, Bodmin, in the said County of Cornwall, Esquire, are the trustees of the said will in whom but for the hereinbefore recited devise the said Advowson would now be vested, and the said William Walter Crossman, Violet Mary Howard, and Evelyn Joyce Hext are desirous with a view to the confirmation of the said devise that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Pillaton, should be transferred to and be vested in the said Dean and Chapter and their successors:

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer and in token of such their willingness have executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Walter, Bishop of Truro, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Pillaton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Pillaton:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Walter Crossman, Violet Mary Howard, and Evelyn Joyce Hext (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Walter, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and by way of confirmation of the hereinbefore recited devise by the will of the said Thurstan Collins, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Pillaton shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 25th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of District Chapelries to the consecrated Churches of Saint Saviour, Portsea, and the Ascension, Portsea, both situate in the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, in the County of Southampton and in the Diocese of Portsmouth:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to each of the said Churches of Saint Saviour, Portsea, and the Ascension, Portsea, situate as aforesaid:

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest Neville, Bishop of Portsmouth (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Saviour, Portsea, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Portsea,' and that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of the Ascension, Portsea, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Ascension, Portsea.'

"And with the like consent of the said Ernest Neville, Bishop of Portsmouth (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at each of the said Churches of Saint Saviour, Portsea, and the Ascension, Portsea, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the respective ministers of the said churches for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The First Schedule.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Portsea, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, in the County of Southampton and in the Diocese of Portsmouth which is bounded upon the north west by the Parish Boundary in the middle of the channel known as Tipner Lake, upon the west by the Parish Boundary in the middle of the channel known as Porchester Lake, upon the south west and upon part of the south by the New Parish of Saint John, Rudmore, Portsea, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south, upon the east and upon the north east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John, Rudmore, Portsea, from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, at the point in the middle of Knox Road where such boundary diverges southward along the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of the road called Twyford Avenue, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Knox Road for a distance of $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stamshaw Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Stamshaw Road for a distance of $11\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called North End Avenue, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of North End Avenue for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Gladys Avenue, and extending thence northward along the middle of Gladys Avenue for a distance of $17\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Northern Parade, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Northern Parade for a distance of $16\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south eastern corner of that part of Alexandra Park which is known as North End Recreation Ground, and extending thence first north westward to and then northward along the fence forming the eastern boundary of such recreation ground and park for a distance in all of $12\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the fence forming the northern boundary of the recreation ground and park, and extending thence westward along the last mentioned fence for a distance of $21\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its western end, and extending thence in a straight line due north west for a distance of 17 chains or thereabouts to the Parish Boundary in the middle of the said channel known as Tipner Lake.

"The Second Schedule.

"The District Chapelry of the Ascension, Portsea, being:—

"All that part of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, which is bounded upon the east by the New Parish of Saint Cuthbert, Portsea, upon the south east by the New Parish of Saint Alban, Portsea, upon the south by the New Parish of Saint Stephen, Portsea, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Stephen, Portsea, from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, at the junction of Powerscourt Road with Drayton Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Drayton Road for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Chichester Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Chichester Road for a distance of 4 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Beresford Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Beresford Road for a distance of $27\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Kirby Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Kirby Road for a distance of 11 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Randolph Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Randolph Road for a distance of $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Mayfield Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Mayfield Road for a distance of $27\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Copnor Road and Monckton Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Monckton Road and in a straight line in continuation thereof for a distance in all of $14\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Portsmouth Line of the Southern Railway upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, from the said New Parish of Saint Cuthbert, Portsea."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Portsmouth.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the 25th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the Parish of Malden, partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of New Malden and Coombe, and partly out of the District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, all in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Southwark :

" Whereas we are satisfied that the said Parish of Malden, the said New Parish of New Malden and Coombe, and the said District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, are Cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said Parish of Malden, of the said New Parish of New Malden and Coombe, and of the said District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth :

" And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship :

" And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £200 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors :

" And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of £200 will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111 :

" And whereas there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of £2,000 towards the cost of erecting a permanent Church within and for the said proposed separate District :

" And whereas the said capital sum of £2,000 has been contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District, and, when such District shall have become a New Parish, then of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth :

" And whereas the contributors of the said capital sum of £2,000 towards the cost of erecting such permanent Church have nominated to us the Bishop of Southwark for the time being as the person to whom they desire that the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District or New Parish should be assigned :

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said Parish of Malden, of the said New Parish of New Malden and Coombe, and of the said District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme as aforesaid, become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint James, Malden.'

" And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted and, when such District shall have become a New Parish as aforesaid, then of such New Parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark, and his successors for ever.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

" THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

" The District of Saint James, Malden, comprising :—

" All those contiguous portions of the Parish of Malden, of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of New Malden and Coombe, and of the District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, all in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Southwark, which, taken together, are bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the west partly by the Parish of Long Ditton, partly by the New Parish of Saint Mark, Surbiton, and partly by the New Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Kingston upon Thames, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north, upon the east, and upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Kingston upon Thames, from the said New Parish of New Malden and Coombe at the centre of the culvert which carries the main line of the Western Section of the Southern Railway across Hogsmill River, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 32 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across Kingston Road, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Kingston Road for a distance of 47 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Malden Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Malden Road for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Blagdon Road, and extending thence first north eastward and then south eastward along the middle of Blagdon Road (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said New Parish of New Malden and Coombe from the said District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park) for a distance of 43 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Kingston Bye-Pass Road, and extending thence south westward along the middle of Kingston Bye-Pass Road for a distance of 19 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across Beverley Brook, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Beverley Brook (thereby following the boundary which divides the said District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, from the said Parish of Malden) for a distance of 29 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the road called Motspur Park across such brook, and extending thence first south westward and then westward along the middle of Motspur Park for a distance of 45 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Malden Road, and extending thence north westward in a straight line for a distance of 39 chains or thereabouts to the junction of South Lane with Kingston Bye-Pass Road and extending thence south westward along the middle of Kingston Bye-Pass Road for a distance of 25 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Malden from the said Parish of Long Ditton."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-before mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty, in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Bisley in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Guildford:

"Whereas immediately before the date of the Deed next hereinafter recited the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bisley was vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend John Gwyon, then of The Rectory, Bisley, in the said County of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders:

"And whereas by a Deed dated the 24th day of December, 1909, the said John Gwyon purported to convey the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bisley unto certain persons as joint tenants upon trusts therein declared, and Sidney George Russ, of The School House, Sulhamstead, in the County of Berks, Esquire, is the sole survivor of such persons but doubts have arisen as to the validity and effect of the said Deed:

"And whereas the said John Gwyon died on the 26th day of December, 1928:

"And whereas in the circumstances aforementioned either the Public Trustee, as the executor of the will of the said John Gwyon, or the said Sidney George Russ by virtue of the said Deed is the person entitled to present to the said Benefice of Bisley being vacant:

"And whereas both the Public Trustee and the said Sidney George Russ are willing that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bisley shall be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Guildford for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Guildford, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said John, Bishop of Guildford, has excuted this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Bisley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Bisley:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Public Trustee and the said Sidney George Russ one or other of whom is the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent they have signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Guildford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bisley shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Guildford, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Guildford, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Guildford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Parkstone, Saint Peter, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Branksea, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Dorset and in the Diocese of Salisbury:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend St. Clair George Alfred, Bishop of Salisbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Parkstone, Saint Peter, and Branksea, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Salisbury and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Salisbury signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Parkstone, Saint Peter, is now full the Reverend the Honourable Reginald Edmund Adderley being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Branksea is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Reginald Edmund Adderley has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said two Benefices of Parkstone, Saint Peter, and Branksea now belongs to one and the same Patron:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said St. Clair George Alfred, Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Parkstone, Saint Peter, and the said Benefice of Branksea shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Parkstone, Saint Peter, with Branksea' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said

Reginald Edmund Adderley if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Parkstone Saint Peter, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Parkstone, Saint Peter, shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Salisbury has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Salisbury.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Wickham Saint Paul, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Twinstead, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Essex and in the Diocese of Chelmsford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Chelmsford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Wickham, Saint Paul, and Twinstead duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Chelmsford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Chelmsford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Wickham, Saint Paul, and Twinstead are now full being held in plurality by the Reverend Harry Mundy Shuttleworth under the authority of a Dispensation:

"And whereas the said Harry Mundy Shuttleworth has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Chelmsford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Wickham, Saint Paul, and the said Benefice of Twinstead shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Wickham, Saint Paul, and Twinstead' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Harry Mundy Shuttleworth if he is then the Incumbent of both of the said Benefices of Wickham, Saint Paul, and Twinstead shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice and his admission thereto shall be without any form or fee of or for presentation or nomination and he shall not be required to pay any fees in respect of his collation, institution, licence, or induction to the United Benefice beyond such fees as he would have been liable to pay if his admission to the United Benefice had been an admission solely to that one of the said two Benefices for the holding of which in plurality with the other a Dispensation was heretofore granted to him, and for the purpose of the 5th Section of the Incumbents' Resignation Act, 1871, and of Schedule A thereto, his tenure of the said

Benefices of Wickham, Saint Paul, and Twinstead shall be deemed to continue notwithstanding his admission to the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Wickham, Saint Paul, shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patrons of the said Benefice of Wickham, Saint Paul, having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Twinstead having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chelmsford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of April, 1928:

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme had been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices had been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections were so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Albans was duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas an Appeal was made to His Majesty in Council by the Parochial Church Council of Bramfield against the said Scheme, and such Appeal was referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council by Order of His Majesty in Council of the 15th day of June, 1928:

And whereas the said Scheme has been revised by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of the Order of His Majesty in Council of the 15th day of August, 1929, approving the Report made by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the matter of the said Appeal:

And whereas the said Scheme so revised is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Bramfield and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Stapleford, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hertford and in the Diocese of Saint Albans:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Bramfield and Stapleford duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Albans and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Saint Albans signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Bramfield is now full, the Reverend Canon Edward Theodore Sandys being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Stapleford is at present vacant:

"And whereas the said Edward Theodore Sandys has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas there is charged upon the revenues of the said Benefice of Stapleford a pension of eighty pounds in favour of the Reverend Alfred William Duke, late Incumbent thereof:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said two Benefices of Bramfield and Stapleford now belongs to one and the same Patron or Patrons:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he had signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Bramfield and the said Benefice of Stapleford shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Bramfield with Stapleford' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Hertford but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Edward Theodore Sandys if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bramfield shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Stapleford shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Bramfield and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the St. Albans Diocesan Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and shall be invested by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and out of the income arising from the securities representing the said proceeds of sale or any addition thereto made as hereinafter mentioned first there shall be paid to the Incumbent of the United Benefice the sum of £60 per annum for so long only as the said pension of £80 per annum shall continue payable as aforesaid and secondly any residue of the income or the whole of the income if the said pension shall cease to be payable during the period of accumulation shall be accumulated by investment and addition to the securities representing the said proceeds of sale until the time not later than ten years from the date of the taking effect of the union hereinbefore recommended or the cesser of the said pension (whichever shall be the later date) when the final application of the fund representing the said proceeds of sale with all additions thereto made by accumulation of income shall be determined as next hereinafter mentioned. And at such time within the said period of ten years or the continuance of the said pension (whichever shall be the longer) as shall seem convenient to the Bishop and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners a supplementary Scheme under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, shall be prepared by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop recommending and proposing the final application of the said proceeds of sale and all accumulations of income in respect thereof either for the benefit of the United Benefice or for the benefit of any other Benefice or Benefices in the said Diocese of Saint Albans or partly for the benefit of the United Benefice and partly for the benefit of such other Benefice or Benefices as may appear expedient to us and to the Bishop of Saint Albans in view of the circumstances then existing.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme so revised has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Coston and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Garthorpe, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Leicester and in the Diocese of Leicester:—

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Cyril, Bishop of Leicester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Coston and Garthorpe duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Leicester and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Leicester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas the said Benefice of Garthorpe is now full the Reverend John Thomas Windmill Claridge being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Coston is at present vacant:

“ Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Cyril, Bishop of Leicester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Coston and the said Benefice of Garthorpe shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Garthorpe and Coston ’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said Benefice of Garthorpe shall be vacant or if upon that day the said John Thomas Windmill Claridge (being still Incumbent of the said Benefice of Garthorpe) shall not hold or continue to hold any Benefice other than the said Benefice of Garthorpe and shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, then the union shall forthwith take effect, but otherwise the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Garthorpe and the then Incumbent (if any) of the said Benefice of Coston shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Garthorpe shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Coston and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall constitute and form part of the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

“ 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Coston having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Garthorpe having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

“ Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Leicester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Hinxworth, situate in the County of Hertford, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Edworth, situate in the County of Bedford, and both in the Diocese of Saint Albans:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Hinxworth and Edworth duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Albans and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Saint Albans signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Hinxworth and Edworth are now full, the Reverend Walter Atkins being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hinxworth and the Reverend Claud Colpoys Wood being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Edworth:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Michael, Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Hinxworth and the said Benefice of Edworth shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Hinxworth and Edworth' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Archdeaconry of Saint Albans and of the Rural Deanery of Baldock, but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of Hinxworth only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Edworth and the then Incumbent of Hinxworth shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Edworth only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Hinxworth and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Hinxworth if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Edworth shall have been instituted to Edworth subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Edworth before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Edworth following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Hinxworth and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hinxworth shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Hinxworth shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Edworth and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and applied by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the benefit of the United Benefice and in particular for and towards the improvement of the Parsonage House of the United Benefice or for the provision of a new Parsonage House for the United Benefice.

"4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Hinxworth having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patrons of the said Benefice of Edworth having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

" Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Albans has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Albans.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Alberbury, situate partly in the County of Salop and partly in the County of Montgomery, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Cardeston, situate wholly in the said County of Salop and both in the Diocese of Hereford:

" Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Alberbury and Cardeston duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

" And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

" And whereas the said Benefice of Cardeston is now full the Reverend Cyril St. George Poole being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Alberbury is at present vacant:

" And whereas the said Cyril St. George Poole has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

" Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

" 1. That the said Benefice of Alberbury and the said Benefice of Cardeston shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Alberbury with Cardeston,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

" 2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Cyril St. George Poole if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Cardeston shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Alberbury shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice, and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Cardeston and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us for the benefit of the United Benefice.

" 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, the Patron of the said Benefice of Alberbury having the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation, and the Patron of the said Benefice of Cardeston having the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Grendon Bishop and the Benefice (being an United Benefice) of Bredenbury with Wacton, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Hereford and in the Diocese of Hereford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Grendon Bishop and Bredenbury with Wacton duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Hereford and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union including certain alterations of boundaries affecting the Parish of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton, the Parish of the Benefice of Thornbury and the Parish of Edvin Ralph being one of the Parishes of the Benefice of Edvin Ralph with Collington also situate in the said County and Diocese, and the said Bishop of Hereford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said union of Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Grendon Bishop and Bredenbury with Wacton are now full, the Reverend John Martin being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop and the Reverend Richard Arundell Lyne being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Martin Linton, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop and the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Bredenbury with Grendon Bishop and Wacton' and that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Bredenbury with Wacton shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Bredenbury with Wacton shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the Table of Fees for the United Parish.

"3. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith and if the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton and the then Incumbent of Grendon Bishop shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall have been instituted to Bredenbury with Wacton subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton before that date and shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That upon the union taking effect the marriage registers in duplicate current at the Church of Grendon Bishop shall be sent by the Incumbent of the United Benefice to the Registrar General to be closed officially.

"5. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"6. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall have the first and the third turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of Grendon Bishop shall have the second turn.

"7. That with the consent of Mrs. Frances Christina Baldwyn-Childe, of Kyre Park, Ludlow, in the County of Worcester, J.P., widow of the late Reverend Prebendary Edward George Baldwyn-Childe, J.P., as Patron of the said Benefices of Thornbury and Edwin Ralph with Collington (in testimony of which consent she has signed this Scheme), with the consent of the Reverend Sidney Edwin Dodderidge, now Incumbent of the said Benefice of Thornbury (testified by his signing this Scheme), and with the consent of the Reverend Edward Leonard Childe-Freeman, now Incumbent of the said Benefice of Edwin Ralph with Collington (testified by his signing this Scheme), upon the union taking effect (a) there shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Thornbury both those two detached portions of the said Parish of Bredenbury with Wacton which are situate within the limits of the Civil Parish of Thornbury (the boundaries of which portions are delineated and set forth upon the Map or Plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured pink) and (b) there shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said Parish of Edwin Ralph all that detached portion of the said Parish of Bredenbury with Wacton which is situate with the limits of the Civil Parish of Edwin Ralph (the boundaries of which portion are delineated and set forth upon the said Map or Plan and thereon coloured blue).

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 25th day of July, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Arundel, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Tortington, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of South Stoke, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Sussex and in the Diocese of Chichester:—

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the late Right Reverend Winfrid Oldfield, Bishop of Chichester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said three Benefices of Arundel, Tortington and South Stoke duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Chichester and therein recommended the union of the said three Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Chichester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said three Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas the said Benefices of Arundel and Tortington are now full being held in plurality by the Reverend Charles James Winn under the authority of a Dispensation and the said Benefice of South Stoke is at present vacant:

“ And whereas the said Charles James Winn has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

“ And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said two Benefices of Arundel and Tortington now belongs to one and the same Patron:

“ Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, now Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Arundel, the said Benefice of Tortington and the said Benefice of South Stoke shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Arundel with South Stoke and Tortington ’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Charles James Winn if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefices of Arundel and Tortington shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“ 3. That a Curate shall be employed at a stipend of not less than £250 to assist the Incumbent in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice.

“ 4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Arundel shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and so soon as conveniently may be the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of South Stoke and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds heretofore usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient and that the net proceeds of such sale shall be held and invested by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England for the benefit of the United Benefice.

“ 5. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union the Patron of the said Benefices of Arundel and Tortington shall have the first and the third turns and the Patron of the said Benefice of South Stoke shall have the second turn.

“ Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chichester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Philip and Saint James, Scholes, situate within the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Whitechapel, in the County of York and in the Diocese of Wakefield:

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said New Parish of Whitechapel, of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and of the Chapelry of Hartshead in the Parish of Dewsbury, both in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such New Parishes and Chapelry:

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said New Parish of Whitechapel, of the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and of the said Chapelry of Hartshead, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Philip and Saint James, Scholes, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Buchanan, Bishop of Wakefield, as such Bishop, with the consent of Sir Mathew Richard Henry Wilson, Baronet, of Eshon Hall, Gargrave, in the said County of York, as the Patron of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Whitechapel, with the consents of Harry Douglas Leather, of Ben Rhydding, Ilkley, in the said County of York, Esquire, of Charles Walker Ikin Leather, of Goodwood, Ilkley, Esquire, of Reginald Michael Grylls, of Cleckheaton, in the said County of York, Esquire, and of William Henry Clough, of Cleckheaton, Esquire, as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and with the consent of the Reverend Frank Wolde, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Wakefield and the Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Dewsbury, and as such Vicar or Incumbent the Patron of the Incumbency of the said Chapelry of Hartshead (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Whitechapel, of the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and of the said Chapelry of Hartshead, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint Philip and Saint James, Scholes, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Philip and Saint James, Scholes.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Philip and Saint James, Scholes, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Whitechapel, of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and of the Chapelry of Hartshead in the Parish of Dewsbury, all in the County of York and in the Diocese of Wakefield, which taken together, are bounded upon the north partly by the New Parish of Oakenshaw cum Woodlands and partly by the New Parish of Wike, both in the said County of York and in the Diocese of Bradford, upon the north west by the last mentioned New Parish, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south west, upon the south, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundaries of the said New Parish of Wike, of the said New Parish of Whitechapel, and of the said Chapelry of Hartshead all meet, and extending thence eastward along the boundary which divides the said Chapelry of Hartshead from the said New Parish of Whitechapel for a distance of 49 chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary crosses the middle of the mineral tramway leading to Ox Pit, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said tramway for a distance of 40 chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the footpath leading through Whitaker Pits Farm, and extending thence first south eastward and then in various directions along the middle of the said footpath and of the occupation road leading from the said farm to Pits Lane for a distance in all of 14 chains or thereabouts to the junction of such occupation road with Pits Lane, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Pits Lane for a distance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the mineral tramway leading to High Moor Lane Pit, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of the last mentioned tramway for a distance of $15\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 477 upon the Ordnance Survey Map of the Civil Parish of Clifton published in the year 1922 upon the scale of 25 inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan annexed to this Representation from the close numbered 489 upon the same maps, and extending thence first north eastward to such fence and then first north eastward then northward and then again north eastward along such fence and along the fences which divide the closes numbered 485 and 484 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 489 and the close numbered 486 upon the same maps for a distance in all of 18 chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 484 from the said close numbered 486 reaches the southern side of Halifax Road, upon the boundary which divides the said Chapelry of Hartshead from the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, and extending thence first north westward, then northward and then again north westward along such boundary (thereby crossing Halifax Road) for a distance in all of $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point on the northern side of Halifax Road at the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 417 upon the Ordnance Survey Map of the Civil Parish of Cleckheaton published in the year 1922 upon the scale of 25 inches to a mile and also upon the said map or plan annexed to this Representation from the close numbered 435 upon the same maps, and extending thence first north eastward and then in various directions along the fences which divide the said close numbered 417 and the closes numbered 399, 387, 372, 374 and 363 upon the last mentioned maps from the said close numbered 435 and the closes numbered 413, 416, 400, 384, 385, 375, and 362 upon the same maps (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, from the said New Parish of Whitechapel) for a distance in all of 41 chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 363 from the said close numbered 362 reaches the southern side of the roadway leading from Scholes Lane to Wellands Lane, and extending thence first northward to and then eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of 6 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wellands Lane; and extending thence first northward, then north eastward and then north westward along the middle of Wellands Lane for a distance of $15\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it turns westward towards Oddfellows' Street, and extending thence northward in a straight line for a distance of $12\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where the mineral railway running from Chairbarrows Colliery crosses the middle of Whitechapel Road, and extending thence northward to and along the fences which divide the closes numbered 200, 199, and 135 upon the last mentioned maps from the closes numbered 201, 187, and 136 upon the same maps for a distance in all of $22\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 135 from the said close numbered 136 reaches the southern side of Whitehall Road, and extending thence in a straight line due north (thereby crossing Whitehall Road) for a distance of $5\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Whitechapel from the said New Parish of Oakenshaw cum Woodlands."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, situate in the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, in the suburbs of the City of Bristol and in the Diocese of Bristol:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster'.

"And with the like consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always that so long as the Reverend Percy Hugh Godwin, Clerk in Holy Orders and an Honorary Canon in the Cathedral Church of Bristol, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees or dues which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the said Church of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the Minister thereof to the said Percy Hugh Godwin.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Dunstan, Bedminster, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, in the suburbs of the City of Bristol and in the Diocese of Bristol, which is bounded upon the west by the New Parish of Saint Peter, Bishopsworth, upon the south partly by the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Oswald, Bedminster Down, and partly by the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Bishopsworth, upon the east by the Parish of Bedminster, all in the suburbs of the said City of Bristol and in the said Diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Bedminster from the said New Parish of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, at the centre of the footbridge which carries the footpath leading from Parson Street and Highbury Road to Bartlett's Road across the main line of the Great Western Railway and extending thence north westward along the middle of the said footbridge for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to the point where such footpath reaches the south eastern end of Bartlett's Road, and extending thence first south westward to and then north westward along the middle of Bartlett's Road for a distance of 9 chains or thereabouts to its junction with West Street, and extending thence south westward along the middle of West Street for a distance of 3½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Chessel Street, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Chessel Street for a distance of 3¾ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Avonleigh Road, and extending thence south westward along the middle of Avonleigh Road for a distance of 16½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Luckwell Road, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Luckwell Road for a distance of 6½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway leading to the road known as Colliter Crescent, and extending thence south westward to and along such roadway for a distance of 3½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Colliter Crescent and extending thence north westward along the middle of Colliter Crescent for a distance of ½ chain or thereabouts to its junction with Longmoor Road and extending thence south westward along the middle of Longmoor Road for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Winterstoke Road, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Winterstoke Road for a distance of 20 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Aldhelm, Bedminster, from the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Bishopsworth."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bristol.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saltley, partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, and partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Margaret, Ward End, all in the County of Warwick and in the Diocese of Birmingham :

“ Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of Saltley, the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, and the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Ward End, are Cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said New Parish of Saltley, of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, and of the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Ward End, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth :

“ And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship :

“ And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £200 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors :

“ And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of £200 will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111 :

“ And whereas there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of £1,500 towards the cost of erecting a permanent Church within and for the said proposed separate District :

“ And whereas the said capital sum of £1,500 has been contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District, and, when such

District shall have become a New Parish, then of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth :

“ And whereas the contributors of the said capital sum of £1,500 towards the cost of erecting such permanent Church have nominated to us the Bishop of Birmingham for the time being as the person to whom they desire that the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District or New Parish should be assigned :

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest William, Bishop of Birmingham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said New Parish of Saltley, of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, and of the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Ward End, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme as aforesaid, become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘ The District of Saint Mary and Saint John, Shaw Hill.’

“ And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted and, when such District shall have become a New Parish as aforesaid, then of such New Parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Ernest William, Bishop of Birmingham, and his successors for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“ The District of Saint Mary and Saint John, Shaw Hill, comprising:—

“ All those contiguous portions of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saltley, of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, and of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Margaret, Ward End, all in the County of Warwick, and in the Diocese of Birmingham, which taken together, are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saltley from the said

New Parish of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, at the junction of Alum Rock Road, Highfield Road and Gowan Road, and extending thence first north eastward and then eastward along the middle of Gowan Road for a distance of 12 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Mendip Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Mendip Road for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western end of the fence forming the northern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the northern side of Gowan Road, and extending thence eastward to and along such fence for a distance in all of $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the fence forming the western boundary of the houses and premises situate on the western side of Naseby Road, and extending thence northward along the last mentioned fence for a distance of $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the fence forming the northern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 84, Naseby Road, and extending thence eastward along the last mentioned fence for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the western side of Naseby Road, and extending thence eastward across Naseby Road for a distance of 11 yards or thereabouts to the eastern end of the fence forming the northern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the northern side of Hazelbeach Road, and extending thence eastward along the last mentioned fence and along the fence which divides the house and premises known as Number 4, Ward End Park Road for the house and premises known as Number 98, Foxton Road, for a distance in all of $10\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where the last mentioned fence reaches the western side of Ward End Park Road, and extending thence north eastward in a straight line across Ward End Park Road for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Washwood Heath, from the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Ward End, crosses the fence forming the southern boundary of Ward End Park and extending thence first south eastward and then eastward along such fence for a distance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the stream which flows past the New Charford Works and along the backs of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Foxton Road, and extending thence southward to and along the said stream (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Ward End, from the said New Parish of Saltley) for a distance of 41 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the culvert which carries the London and Birmingham Line of the London Midland and Scottish Railway across such stream and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 30 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Bridge Road across such line of railway, and extending thence first northward and then north westward along the middle of Bridge Road for a distance of $15\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with College Road, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of College Road for a distance of $19\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Alum Rock Road, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Alum Rock Road for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Highfield Road and Gowan Road, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Birmingham.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain properties situate in the County of Gloucester now vested in us:

"Whereas the properties particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written are now vested in us not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but in possession and we are desirous of selling the same or some portion thereof for the improvement of our Common Fund:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty that we may be authorised and empowered to sell or dispose of and duly to transfer or convey from time to time all or part of the said properties described in the said Schedule for such consideration as shall appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

“Area and Description of property.	Parish and County in which situate.
	Ancient Parish.	County.
“Lands containing 33a. Or. 6p. or thereabouts in Longford and numbered 83 and 42 on the Ordnance Survey Map, Second Edition, 1901.	Gloucester, St. Mary-de-Lode.	Gloucester.
“Lands containing 44a. Or. 5p. or thereabouts in Wotton Saint Mary and numbered 39, 42, pt. 29, pt. 46 and pt. 67 on the said Map.	do.	do.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Gloucester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the New Parish (sometime Particular District) of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Southwark:

“Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, is a Parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, which is hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

“And whereas there is within the limits of the said proposed separate District a consecrated Church or Chapel known as All Saints' Church in use for the purposes of Divine Worship, but such Church or Chapel is not at present suitable to become the Parish Church of the said proposed separate District:

“And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £200 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors:

“And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of £200 will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111:

“And whereas a capital sum of £2,000 has been contributed towards the cost of enlarging the said Church or Chapel of All Saints with a view to rendering it suitable to become the permanent Church for the said proposed separate District:

“And whereas the said capital sum of £2,000 has been contributed as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District, and when such District shall have become a New Parish, then of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

“And whereas the contributors of the said capital sum of £2,000 towards the cost of enlarging such Church or Chapel have nominated to us the Bishop for the time being of the said Diocese of Southwark as the person to whom they desire that the whole right of Patronage of the said proposed District or New Parish should be assigned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Cyril Forster, now Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme as aforesaid, become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Saints, New Eltham.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted and, when such District shall have become a New Parish as aforesaid, then of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in the said Cyril Forster, Bishop of Southwark and his successors, Bishops of Southwark for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of All Saints, New Eltham, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime Particular District) of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Lamorbey, partly by the New Parish of Christ Church, Longlands, Sidcup, and partly by the New Parish of the Annunciation, Chislehurst, all in the said County of Kent and in the Diocese of Rochester, upon the west by the New Parish of Saint Andrew, Mottingham, in the said County of Kent and in the said Diocese of Southwark, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of the bridge which carries Green Lane across the Dartford Loop Line of the Southern Railway where the boundaries of the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Mottingham, of the Parish of Eltham, in the said County of Kent and in the said Diocese of Southwark, and of the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, all meet, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 9 chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Number 24, Lyndhurst Terrace, Blanmerle Road, and extending thence north-eastward to and along such wall or fence for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the southern side of Blanmerle Road, and extending thence north-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line (thereby crossing Blanmerle Road) for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the fence forming the northern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the northern side of Blanmerle Road, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line for a distance of $11\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the south-western end of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 290, Footscray Road, and extending thence north-eastward along such wall or fence for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the south-western side of Footscray Road, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line (thereby crossing Footscray Road) for a distance of $17\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the south-western end of the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the premises known as Avondale Farm Nursery, and extending thence north-eastward along such wall or fence for a distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the western side of the lane leading into the road called Avery Hill, and extending thence first north-eastward to and then south-eastward along the middle of such lane for a distance in all of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Avery Hill, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Avery Hill for a distance of $5\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the footpath leading past Theobald's Cottages to Halfway Street, and extending thence south-eastward to and along such footpath for a distance of $10\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, from the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Lamorbey."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbent of the New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron has signified his assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the Incumbent of the said New Parish of the Holy Trinity, Eltham, has offered certain objections to the said Scheme:

And whereas notwithstanding the said objections the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, and of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of His Majesty, Chapter 39 (local) which Local Act is named "Saint Olave's Southwark Church Act, 1918," duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, and of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Your Majesty, Chapter 39 (local) which Local Act is named 'Saint Olave's Southwark Church Act, 1918,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, Mitcham, in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Southwark:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, is a Parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate District any consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship but there is therein a site which has been purchased with the approval of the Bishop of the said Diocese of Southwark and is intended to be conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the provisions of the Church Building Acts, 1818 to 1884, and upon which it is proposed that a permanent Church to be called the Church of Saint Olave, Mitcham, should be erected with or out of the proceeds of the sale of the late Church of Saint Olave, Southwark, in accordance with the provisions of the 17th section of the said Saint Olave's Southwark Church Act, 1918:

"And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of £200 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as a Minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors:

"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of £200 will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 29th and 30th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 111:

"And whereas under the 18th section of the said Saint Olave's Southwark Church Act, 1918, it is provided that the right of Patronage of the District for which a Church is to be provided under the 17th section of that Act shall be vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Cyril Forster, now Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Olave, Mitcham.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of Patronage of the said District so recommended to be constituted and, when such District shall have become a New Parish as aforesaid, then of the said New Parish, and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, for ever, as contemplated by the said 18th section of the Saint Olave's Southwark Church Act, 1918.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Olave, Mitcham, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, Mitcham, in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon the north by the New Parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, in the said County and Diocese, upon the east by the New Parish of Saint Philip, Norbury, upon the south east by the New Parish of Saint Jude, Thornton

Heath, both in the said County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Canterbury, upon part of the south west by the Parish of Mitcham, in the said County of Surrey and in the said Diocese of Southwark, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south west and upon the north west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Mitcham from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, at the junction of the road called Commonsides East with Manor Road, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Manor Road for a distance of 8 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Tamworth Lane, and extending thence north westward along the middle of Tamworth Lane for a distance of 46 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Firework Lane, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Firework Lane for a distance of 19 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading past the south western side of Lonesome School, and extending thence north westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of 11½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Grove Road, and extending thence first eastward and then north eastward along the Middle of Grove Road for a distance of 19 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Meopham Road, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Meopham Road for a distance of 18½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Rowan Road, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Rowan Road for a distance of 21 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, from the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbent of the New Parish of Saint Mark, Mitcham, out of which it is intended that the District recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwark.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late

Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94, of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, and of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme or Representation, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94, the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, and the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme or Representation for altering the boundaries of the New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, the New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, the New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage, the New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, the New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, and the District of Saint Crispin, Withington, all situate within the original limits of the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and in the Diocese of Manchester:

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 8th day of June, 1854, and published in the London Gazette on the 16th day of the same month a separate District was annexed to the consecrated Church of Saint James, Birch, situate within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme':

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 30th day of August, 1873, and published in the London Gazette on the 2nd day of the following month a separate District was annexed to the consecrated Church of the Holy Innocents, situate at Fallowfield within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield':

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 26th day of October, 1875, and published in the London Gazette on the 29th day of the same month a separate District was annexed to the consecrated Church of Saint Margaret, situate at Burnage, within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of Saint Margaret, Burnage':

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 16th day of August, 1886, and published in the London Gazette on the 20th day of the same month a separate District was annexed to the consecrated Church of Saint Agnes, Birch, situate within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of Saint Agnes, Birch':

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 7th day of August, 1900, and published in the London Gazette on the 14th day of the same month a separate District for spiritual purposes was constituted, within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of Saint Chad, Ladybarn':

"And whereas the said District of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, the said District of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, the said District of Saint Margaret, Burnage, the said District of Saint Agnes, Birch, and the said District of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, have under the provisions of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, become New Parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, and by the above mentioned Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94:

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the 21st day of March, 1916, and published in the London Gazette on the same day, a separate District for spiritual purposes was constituted within the original limits of the said Parish of Manchester, and the said District was named 'The District of Saint Crispin, Withington':

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage, the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, and the said District of Saint Crispin, Withington, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Guy, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme or Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or Representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, of the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, of the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage, of the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, of the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, and of the said District of Saint Crispin, Withington, shall be altered so that (first) all that portion of the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such New Parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said District of Saint Crispin, Withington; (secondly) all that portion of the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green shall be dissevered from such New Parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield; (thirdly) all that portion of the said

New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, which is described in the Third Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured purple shall be dissevered from such New Parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch; and (fourthly) all those portions of the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, and of the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, which are described in the Fourth Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured yellow shall be dissevered from such New Parishes and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"THE SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The First Schedule.

"The territory to be dissevered from the New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, in the County of Lancaster and in the Diocese of Manchester, and to be annexed to the District of Saint Crispin, Withington, in the same County and Diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, which is bounded upon the north west by the said District of Saint Crispin, Withington, upon the south west by the New Parish of Saint Paul, Withington, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Paul, Withington, from the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, at the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the Manchester Central Station Line of the London and North Eastern Railway across Leigh Brook, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 21½ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Yewtree Road across such railway, and extending thence first northward, then north eastward and then again northward along the middle of Yewtree Road for a distance of 38 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, from the said District of Saint Crispin, Withington.

"The Second Schedule.

"The territory to be dissevered from the New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, in the said County and Diocese, and to be annexed to the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, being:—

"All that portion of the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, which is bounded upon the west by the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield, upon the north and upon the east by the New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, from the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Wilmslow and Levenshulme Line of the London, Midland and Scottish Railway across the said Manchester Central Station Line of the London and North Eastern Railway, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last mentioned line of railway for a distance of 30 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Ladybarn Lane across such line of railway upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, from the said New Parish of the Holy Innocents, Fallowfield.

"The Third Schedule.

"The territory to be dis severed from the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, and to be annexed to the New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, in the said County and Diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, which is bounded upon the north east by the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the north west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, from the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, crosses the middle of the said Manchester Central Station Line of the London and North Eastern Railway, and extending thence westward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of 3½ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the said Wilmslow and Levenshulme Line of the London Midland and Scottish Railway over the said Manchester Central Station Line of railway, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of the said Wilmslow and Levenshulme Line of railway (thereby following in part the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, from the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme) for a distance of 8½ chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, from the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch.

"The Fourth Schedule.

"The territory to be annexed to the New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage, in the said County and Diocese, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, and of the said New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, which taken together are bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the east by the New Parish of Saint Andrew, South Levenshulme, in the said County and Diocese, upon the south by the said New Parish of Saint Margaret, Burnage, upon the west by the said New Parish of Saint Chad, Ladybarn, and upon the north by the middle of the said Manchester Central Station Line of the London and North Eastern Railway."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have with the exception hereinafter mentioned respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the Incumbent of the Rectory of the New Parish of Saint Agnes, Birch, has not signified his assent to the said Scheme or Representation:

And whereas a period of more than one calendar month has elapsed since drafts of the said Scheme or Representation were transmitted to the said Patrons and Incumbents:

And whereas the said Scheme or Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme or Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Manchester.

M. P. A. Hanky.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94, of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, and of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme or Representation, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94, the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, and the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme or Representation for altering the boundaries of the New Parish of Dyers Hill, the New Parish of Heeley, and the District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, all in the County of York and in the Diocese of Sheffield:

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the 6th day of July, 1846, and published in the London Gazette on the 28th day of the same month, two separate Districts for spiritual purposes were constituted out of the Parish of Sheffield in the said County and Diocese, and such Districts were named 'The District of Dyers Hill' and 'The District of Heeley' respectively:

"And whereas the said District of Dyers Hill and the said District of Heeley have become New Parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 37, by the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 104, and by the above mentioned Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94:

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the 7th day of November, 1921, and published in the London Gazette on the 11th day of the same month, a separate District for spiritual purposes was constituted out of the said New Parish of Heeley, and the New Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Sheffield Park, in the said County and Diocese, and such District was named 'The District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield':

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said New Parish of Dyers Hill, the said New Parish of Heeley, and the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Leonard Hedley, Bishop of Sheffield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme or Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or Representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted order the boundaries of the said New Parish of Dyers Hill, of the said New Parish of Heeley, and of the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, shall be altered so that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Dyers Hill and of the said New Parish of Heeley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such New Parishes and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield.

"And we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, in the County of York and in the Diocese of Sheffield, being:—

"I. All that portion of the New Parish of Heeley, in the said County and Diocese, which is bounded upon the north east by the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, upon the north by the New Parish of Dyers Hill in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south west and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Dyers Hill from the said New Parish of Heeley, at the junction of Shrewsbury Road, Granville Road and Queen's Road and extending thence southward along the middle of Queen's Road for a distance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Farm Road and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Farm Road for a distance of $16\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Norfolk Park Road, and extending thence first south eastward and then eastward along the middle of Norfolk Park Road for a distance of 5 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Park Grange Road, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Park Grange Road for a distance of $12\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 928 upon the Ordnance Survey Map of the Civil Parish of Sheffield published in the year 1923 upon the scale of 25 inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan annexed to this Scheme or Representation, from the close numbered 929 upon the same map, and extending thence first north eastward to the said fence and then first north eastward and then in various directions along the fences which divide the said close numbered 928 and the closes numbered 965 and 964 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 929 and the close numbered 930 upon the said maps for a distance in all of 16 chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 964 from the said close numbered 930 crosses the middle of the stream called Jervis Lum, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Jervis Lum for a distance of $17\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the fence which divides the close numbered 955 upon the said maps from the close numbered 960A upon the same maps, and extending thence first eastward, then south eastward and then north eastward along such fence and along the fences which divide the said close numbered 955 and the close numbered 1011 upon the said maps from the closes numbered 960, 950, 951, 958 and 952A upon the same maps for a distance in all of 30 chains or thereabouts to the middle of the roadway leading from the house and premises known as Arbourthorne Hill to Spring Lane, and extending thence first south eastward and then north eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of 12 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Spring Lane and with the footpath leading to Arbourthorne Road where the boundaries of the said New Parish of Heeley, of the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, and of the New Parish of Saint Swithun, Sheffield, in the said County and Diocese, all meet.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said New Parish of Dyers Hill which is bounded upon the south partly by the above described portion of the said New Parish of Heeley and partly by the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, upon the north east by the last mentioned District, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the south west, by an imaginary line commencing at the junction of City Road with Fitzwalter Road, where the boundaries of the said District of Saint Aidan, Sheffield, of the New Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Sheffield Park, in the said County and Diocese and of the said New Parish of Dyers Hill, all meet, and extending thence south westward along the middle of Fitzwalter Road for a distance of 5 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stafford Road, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Stafford Road for a distance of 15 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Granville Road upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Dyers Hill from the said New Parish of Heeley."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the said Scheme or Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme or Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Sheffield.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated Church of All Saints, Hampton, situate in the Parish of Hampton, in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of All Saints, Hampton, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said Parish of Hampton which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of All Saints, Hampton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Hampton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of All Saints, Hampton, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Hampton, being:—

"All that part of the Parish of Hampton, in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west and upon the north west by the Parish of Hanworth, upon the north east by the New Parish of Saint James, Hampton Hill, both in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south east, upon the south and upon the south west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint James, Hampton Hill, from the said Parish of Hampton at the junction of Uxbridge Road and Broad Lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of Broad Lane for a distance of 32 chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the northern end of the fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as Redmayes, Broad Lane, and extending thence southward to and along such fence, and along the fence forming the western boundary of the houses and premises situate on the western side of Wensleydale Road for a distance in all of 7½ chains or thereabouts to the point where the last mentioned fence meets the fence forming the northern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the northern side of Barlow Road, and extending thence southward along the fence which divides the house and premises known as Number 18, Barlow Road from the house and premises known as Number 16, Barlow Road for a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its southern end on the northern side of Barlow Road, and extending thence southward in a straight line across Barlow Road for a distance of 12 yards or thereabouts to the northern end of the fence which divides the house and premises known as Number 3, Barlow Road from the house and premises known as Number 5, Barlow Road, and extending thence southward along the last mentioned fence and along the fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Tudor Road for a distance in all of 11 chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the northern side of Priory Road, and extending thence first southward to and then eastward along the middle of Priory Road for a distance in all of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the passage leading into Wensleydale Road near its junction with Tudor Road, and extending thence south westward to and along the middle of the said passage for a distance of 12 chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the northern side of Wensleydale Road, and extending thence south westward in a straight line for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to the junction of Wensleydale Road with Bridge Approach Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Bridge Approach Road for a distance of $3\frac{1}{4}$ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the Thames Valley Line of the Southern Railway, and extending thence first westward and then north westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 69 chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Hampton from the said Parish of Hanworth."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an exchange of the Patronage of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of the Holy Trinity with Saint Mary, Guildford, situate in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Guildford, for the Patronage of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Frensham, also situate in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Guildford:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity with Saint Mary, Guildford, is vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Frensham is vested in the Archdeacon for the time being of the Archdeaconry of Surrey in the said Diocese of Guildford:

"And whereas the Right Honourable John, Baron Sankey, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the Venerable Lionel Edward Blackburne, now Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Surrey, have respectively signified to us their desire that the Patronage of the said two Benefices of the Holy Trinity with Saint Mary, Guildford, and Frensham may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two Benefices and of the Patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two Benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed:

"And whereas the yearly value in Your Majesty's Books of the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity with Saint Mary, Guildford, is £11 11s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Frensham is a Vicarage for the purpose of style and designation only and is not rated in Your Majesty's Books:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John, Baron Sankey, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Lionel Edward Blackburne, Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Surrey, acting as such Archdeacon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of the Holy Trinity with Saint Mary, Guildford, and the Churches thereof shall be assigned and transferred from Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Lionel Edward Blackburne, Archdeacon of Surrey, and his successors in the same Archdeaconry for ever and that in exchange for the same the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Frensham and the Church thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Lionel Edward Blackburne, Archdeacon of Surrey, and from his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the said John, Baron Sankey, or other the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has Reference.

“Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by the Lord Chancellor.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Net Income.	Residence.
“Guildford, Holy Trinity with Saint Mary; a Rectory.	Surrey...	Guildford	4,224	£630 per annum	Yes.
“Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by the Archdeacon of Surrey.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Net Income.	Residence.
“Frensham; a Vicarage	Surrey...	Guildford	1,384	£574 per annum	Yes.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Guildford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 17th day of October, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Hawkesbury, in the County of Gloucester and in the Diocese of Gloucester:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hawkesbury is vested for an estate in fee simple free from incumbrances in George William Rowe of 28 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, Esquire, Edward Guy Ripley of Heath House, Aston-on-Clun, Salop, Esquire and Algernon Philip Yorke Langhorne of 62 Saint John's Wood Court, London, a Lieutenant Colonel in Your Majesty's Army, D.S.O., M.C., as trustees upon trust in the first place for Sir Anthony Banks Jenkinson,

Baronet, of Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, during his life and the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson is a Minor and Joan Langhorne, wife of the said Algernon Philip Yorke Langhorne is his guardian:

"And whereas the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson and the said Joan Langhorne as such guardian are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hawkesbury should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token of his willingness to accept jointly with the other persons hereinafter mentioned the transfer of the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Hawkesbury which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Hawkesbury:

"Now therefore with the consent of the said George William Rowe, Edward Guy Ripley and Algernon Philip Yorke Langhorne as trustees (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), with the consent of the said Joan Langhorne, being the person whose consent on behalf of the Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Joan Langhorne and the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage should be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Venerable Charles Henry Ridsdale, Clerk in Holy Orders and Archdeacon of Gloucester, of Annie Mabel Stinchcomb, wife of Francis Melville Stinchcomb, of Court Farm, Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, Esquire, and of George Thomas Pearce of Home Farm, Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, Esquire (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hawkesbury shall be transferred to the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb; and George Thomas Pearce; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb; and George Thomas Pearce, their heirs and assigns for ever as Trustees upon the trusts to be declared by a certain Indenture already prepared and intended to be executed by the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb and George Thomas Pearce.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Gloucester.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 15th October, 1889, and made under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, it was ordered that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) Drypool Cemetery, in the Parish of Drypool, in the County of York, with the modifications in the said Order specified:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under the Burial Act, 1853, as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the said Parish of Drypool ten days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has made a Representation to His Majesty in Council, that, for the protection of the public health, so much of the said Order in Council of the 15th October, 1889, as relates to burials in Drypool Cemetery in the Parish of Drypool aforesaid, should be varied as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 5th July, 1929, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 17th August, 1929, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the Burial Act, 1853:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred upon Him by the said Acts, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Order in Council of the 15th October, 1889, as relates to Drypool Cemetery in the Parish of Drypool aforesaid shall be varied, so as to provide that burials shall be discontinued in Drypool Cemetery as follows, viz.:-

Drypool.—Forthwith and entirely in Drypool Cemetery.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 20th day of October, 1902, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church, and with certain exceptions the Churchyard of the Parish Church of Methwold, in the County of Norfolk:

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 20th day of October, 1902, was varied by the Order in Council of the 9th day of October, 1903:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Orders in Council of the 20th day of October, 1902, and the 9th day of October, 1903, should be further varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Order in Council of the 20th day of October, 1902, relating to burials in the Parish Churchyard of Methwold, in the County of Norfolk, as varied by the Order in Council of the 9th day of October, 1903, shall be further varied by the addition thereto of the following further excepting clause:—

(d) In the walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, in which the remains of Thomas Whatnell are interred, the burial may be allowed, at her decease of the body of Mary Ann Whatnell, subject to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 24th day of June, 1856, directing the discontinuance of burials, in, amongst other places, the Parish Church and Churchyard of Ilkeston, in the County of Derby:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 24th day of June, 1856, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order shall be varied by the addition thereto of the following Clause, viz.:-

(a) In the walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard in which the remains of the Reverend Edward Muirhead Evans are interred, the burial may be allowed at her decease of the body of Sarah Louisa Evans, subject to the condition that the coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

M. P. A. Hankey.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 6TH NOVEMBER, 1929.)

GLAMORGAN SWINE FEVER INFECTED
AREA ORDER OF 1929.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1927, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Area to which this Order applies.

1. This Order applies to the Area described in the First Schedule hereto, referred to in this Order as "the Infected Area."

Restriction on Movement of Swine into, out of, or within the Infected Area.

2.—(1) The movement of swine into or out of the Infected Area, or along or across any road or other highway, or by water, within the Infected Area, is prohibited except with a licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority in accordance with this Order. Provided that this Order shall not affect or prevent the movement of swine through the Infected Area direct by railway without avoidable delay if the animals are not untrucked within such Area.

(2) No swine shall be permitted by the owner or person in charge thereof to stray upon any road or other highway in the Infected Area.

Markets etc., of Swine in Infected Area to be restricted to Fat Swine only.

3. No market, sale or exhibition of swine shall be held in any market, fairground, saleyard or place of exhibition in the Infected Area, unless it is restricted to fat swine intended for immediate slaughter, and then only in accordance with the following conditions, namely:—

(a) A licence shall be obtained from the Local Authority authorising the holding of the market, sale or exhibition.

(b) All swine exposed at such market, sale or exhibition shall be removed therefrom direct to a slaughterhouse, and shall be accompanied by a licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority specifying the slaughterhouse to which the swine are to be moved.

Licences for Movement of Swine into Infected Area.

4. Where the movement required is governed by the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922, the licence necessary under that Order shall be sufficient authority for the movement of swine into the Infected Area. Where the movement is not affected by the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922, a licence for the movement of swine into the Infected Area may be granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the place from which the swine are to be moved. The licence, which may be granted for movement for any purposes, shall be in the Form C. with the necessary adaptation. No declaration is required to be produced to obtain the licence.

Licences for Movement of Swine within or out of the Infected Area.

5.—(1) Licences may be granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority for the following movements of swine from premises within the Infected Area to premises in or outside the Infected Area, viz.:—

From premises in the Infected Area (other than a market, fairground, saleyard or place of exhibition).

(a) to a licensed market, sale or exhibition in the Infected Area (licence Form C); or

(b) to a slaughterhouse in or outside the Infected Area (licence Form C); or

(c) to private premises in or outside the Infected Area (licence Form A, or, if for breeding purposes, Form C); or

(d) to a vessel direct for shipment or to any premises for detention until shipment (licence Form C).

From a licensed Market, sale or exhibition in the Infected Area.

to a slaughterhouse either within or outside the Infected Area (licence Form C).

(2) Before a licence (Form A) or (Form C) is granted under paragraphs (c) and (d) of this Article the owner of the swine, or his authorised agent, shall sign and produce or send to the Inspector a declaration in the Form B set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order. The Inspector shall retain the declaration, and before granting the licence shall satisfy himself as far as practicable as to the correctness of the statements contained therein. No declaration is required before granting a licence for movement of swine to a licensed market, sale or exhibition, or to a slaughterhouse.

Conditions of Movement.Detention and Isolation at Destination for 27 days of Swine moved with Licence (Form A).Marking of Swine moved to a Slaughterhouse.

6.—(1) Swine moved with a licence (Form A) shall not, for a period of 27 days after arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence, be moved therefrom except to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse, and then only if the swine are marked before the movement commences in the manner described in the next following paragraph of this Article, and are accompanied by a licence (Form C). Swine while detained during the said period of 27 days shall be kept separate from all other swine. This Article does not prohibit the movement of the carcase of a pig slaughtered on the premises during the said period of 27 days.

(2) Where swine are moved with a licence under this Order to a slaughterhouse, they shall, before the movement to the slaughterhouse commences, be marked by and at the expense of the owner, by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine, thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long, and on arrival at the slaughterhouse the swine shall be detained there until slaughtered.

(3) Swine while being moved with a licence under this Order shall be moved as far as practicable by the nearest available route and without avoidable delay to the place of destination specified in the licence and not elsewhere, and shall be kept separate as far as practicable from all other swine.

Provisions as to Licences.

7.—(a) Licences may be granted under this Order only by an Inspector of the Local Authority in whose district the movement commences;

(b) A movement licence shall not be granted by an Inspector if, in his opinion, it is undesirable to grant it, or for any movement of swine, which is prohibited by the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922;

(c) Copies of licences authorising movement into the district of another Local Authority shall be sent by the Inspector issuing such licences to such other Local Authority;

(d) Licences must be delivered up at, or sent by post to the nearest Police Station or to an officer of the Local Authority, immediately after completion of the movement;

(e) Licences (other than licences—Form C—specifically marked “for Breeding purposes”), shall only be available for eight days including the day of issue, and shall accompany the animals throughout the movement. Licences (Form C) specifically marked “for Breeding purposes” shall be available for 28 days, inclusive of the date thereof. If required for the purpose of service, the swine referred to therein may be moved under the authority of the licence to the same premises either on one or two occasions within the said period of 28 days and back to the original premises from which it was moved. The swine shall, on return to the original premises, be detained thereon for a period of 28 days from the date of return; provided that where movement on two occasions takes place under the licence the said period of 28 days detention shall commence on the date of return after the second movement;

(f) Licences shall be produced by the person in charge of the swine moved therewith on demand to an Inspector or Constable, and such person shall if required by such Officer give his name and address.

Forms.

8. The Licences (Forms A and C) required for use under this Order shall be in the forms set forth in the Second Schedule to the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922, with the necessary adaptations. The declaration (Form B) shall be in the form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order.

Terms.

9. “Slaughterhouse” includes bacon factory; other terms used in this Order have the same meaning as in the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

10. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

11. Any contravention of this Order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder, or the making of any false statement in any declaration required thereunder, shall be deemed to be an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and renders the offender liable to prosecution.

Commencement.

12. This Order shall come into operation on the thirteenth day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

Short Title.

13. This Order may be cited as the GLAMORGAN SWINE FEVER INFECTED AREA ORDER OF 1929.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this sixth day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

P. J. L. Kelland,
Authorised by the Minister.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Declaration Form B.

DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS.

Declaration for use in case of movement of Swine not marked for Slaughter.

I, A.B., of _____, in the (county) of _____ do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare

(a) that I am the owner of (or the agent authorised in writing for this purpose by A.B., the owner of) the undermentioned swine;

(b) that the swine to be moved have been on the premises from which they are to be moved for a continuous period of twenty-eight days immediately before the date of this declaration; that no pig has been moved on to those premises within such period except swine moved temporarily therefrom for breeding; and that the swine to be moved have not within the said period been in contact with any pig so moved on to the premises within such period;*

* Strike out words in italics if no pig has been moved on within the twenty-eight days.

- (c) that to the best of my knowledge and belief the swine are not affected with swine-fever, and have not during the period of twenty-eight days as aforesaid been in any way exposed to the infection of swine-fever; and
- (d) that the swine are not in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement is not prohibited by Notice of an Inspector or Officer of a Local Authority or of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries given under any Order of the Minister.

- (e) †that the swine are to be moved for breeding purposes and for no other purpose.

Dated this day of , 192 .
 (Signed).....

† Strike out (e) if the movement is not for breeding purposes.

DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS,
 1894 TO 1927.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of section 49 (3) of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, that the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries has made the following Order:—

Date.	Subject.
1929. 5th November	Detaining in quarantine five puppies whelped on the 1st November, 1929, by the dachshund bitch "Schwarze Schone V. D. Jeetzel," the property of Major G. Maitland Reynell.

Copies of this Order may be obtained at 7, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.1.

AGRICULTURAL WAGES (REGULATION) ACT, 1924.

Whereas the Agricultural Wages Committee for the area comprising the administrative county of Wilts have, in pursuance of the above Act, duly cancelled the minimum and overtime rates of wages fixed by them and made effective by an Order of the Agricultural Wages Board dated 12th November, 1928, and have duly fixed minimum and overtime rates of wages for workers employed in agriculture for time work in that area and the said rates are set out in the Schedule to this Order. Now the Agricultural Wages Board, in pursuance of the said Act and for the purpose of carrying out the decision of the said Committee, hereby cancel as from the 10th day of November, 1929, the said Order of 12th November, 1928, and hereby order that the provisions contained in the Schedule to this Order shall become effective from the 11th day of November, 1929.

SCHEDULE.

1. The wages payable for employment of male workers shall be wages at not less than the following minimum rates:—

			Per week.

NOTES.—1. The Wiltshire Agricultural Wages Committee have by Order dated 27th November, 1925, defined a cottage, milk and board and lodging as the only benefits or advantages which may be reckoned as payment of wages in lieu of cash and the values at which they are to be reckoned for the purpose. Copies of the Order may be obtained from the Secretary, Wiltshire Agricultural Wages Committee, Employment Exchange, Yeovil, Somerset.

2. Applications for Permits of Exemption (which may be obtained in cases where a worker is effected by physical injury or mental deficiency or any infirmity due to age or to any other cause) should be addressed to the Secretary of the Committee at the address given above.

3. Complaints as to non-payment of the prescribed rates of wages should be addressed to the Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, 7, Whitehall Place, London, S.W. 1.

ORDER DEFINING THE EMPLOYMENT WHICH IS TO BE TREATED AS OVERTIME EMPLOYMENT.

The Wiltshire Agricultural Wages Committee in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the Agricultural Wages (Regulation) Act, 1924, and the Regulations made thereunder, do by this Order vary as from 11th November, 1929, their Order of 23rd October, 1928, defining the employment which is to be treated as overtime employment for the purpose of the application of any differential rate of wages for overtime employment fixed by the said Committee for the area comprising the administrative county of Wilts, so as to provide that such employment shall be as follows:—

(a) All employment in excess of 6 hours in summer or 5½ hours in winter on a Saturday or on such other day (not being

Sunday) in every week as may be agreed between the employer and the worker.

(b) All employment on a Sunday.

(c) All employment on Good Friday and Christmas Day, except in the case of a worker who, in lieu of a holiday on Good Friday or Christmas Day, is given a clear day's holiday during the week of employment in which Good Friday or Christmas Day falls, as the case may be.

(d) All employment in excess of 41 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in the week in which Good Friday falls.

(e) All employment in excess of 50 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in any other week in summer.

(f) All employment in excess of 39½ hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in the week in which Christmas Day falls.

(g) All employment in excess of 48 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in any other week in winter.

For the purpose of this Order employment in summer shall be deemed to be all employment during the period commencing on the first Monday in March and terminating on the last Sunday in October, and employment in winter shall be deemed to be all employment during the remainder of the year.

By Order of the Wiltshire Agricultural Wages Committee.

P. V. L. Kelham,
Secretary.

Employment Exchange,
Yeovil,
Somerset.

9. These rates shall continue in operation until 23rd November, 1930.

10. For the purpose of the application of the above differential rates of wages for overtime employment the East Riding of Yorkshire Agricultural Wages Committee have by Order dated 9th November, 1928, defined the following employment as the employment which is to be treated as overtime employment.

A. In the case of male workers not boarded and lodged by their employer:—

(1) All employment on a Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day.

(2) All employment after 12 noon on a Saturday or such other day (not being Sunday, Good Friday or Christmas Day) in every week as may be agreed between the employer and the worker.

(3) All employment in excess of 43 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in the week in which Good Friday falls.

(4) All employment in excess of 39½ hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in the week in which Christmas Day falls.

(5) All employment in excess of 52½ hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in any other week in summer.

(6) All employment in excess of 48 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in any other week in winter.

B. In the case of male workers who are boarded and lodged by their employer:—

(1) All employment on a Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day other than 3 hours on any such day spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock.

(2) All employment after 12 noon on a Saturday or such other day (not being Sunday, Good Friday or Christmas Day) in every week as may be agreed between the employer and the worker, other than the hours (being part of the 12 hours mentioned below) spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock.

(3) All employment in excess of 43 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) with an addition of 12 hours on weekdays and 3 on Sunday spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock in the week in which Good Friday falls.

(4) All employment in excess of 39½ hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) with an addition of 12 hours on weekdays and 3 on Sunday spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock in the week which Christmas Day falls.

(5) All employment in excess of 52½ hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) with an addition of 12 hours per week on weekdays and 3 on Sunday spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock in any other week in summer.

(6) All employment in excess of 48 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) with an addition of 12 hours per week on weekdays and 3 on Sunday spent on work in connection with the care of and attention to stock in any other week in winter.

C. In the case of female workers:—

(1) All employment on a Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day.

(2) All employment after 12 noon on a Saturday.

(3) All employment in excess of 36 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in the weeks in which Good Friday and Christmas Day falls.

(4) All employment in excess of 44 hours (excluding all hours which are to be treated as hours of overtime employment) in any other week.

11. For the purpose of the application of the above minimum rates of wages the East Riding of Yorkshire Agricultural Wages Committee have by Order dated 1st October, 1926, defined the following as the benefits or advantages which may be reckoned, as payment of wages in lieu of payment in cash and the values at which they are to be reckoned for the purpose:—

(1) Benefits or Advantages:—

(a) Milk.

(b) Potatoes.

(c) Lodging, except in any case in which the Committee may determine that the lodging accommodation is so defective as to be injurious to health.

(d) Board, including any meals, but not including intoxicating drink.

(e) A cottage, including any garden hitherto given or let with the cottage except where the cottage is one in regard to which the Medical Officer of Health has reported that it is in a state so dangerous or injurious to health as to be unfit for human habitation.

(2) Values:—

(a) Milk—2d. per pint.

(b) Potatoes—6d. per stone.

(c) Board and Lodging—15s. per week of which 12s. 8d. shall be for board and 2s. 4d. for lodging.

(d) In the case of a cottage with two bedrooms 2s. per week, and in the case of a cottage with three or more bedrooms 3s. per week.

BIRKENHEAD CORPORATION GAS.

(Application for Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 and 1929.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of Birkenhead (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") whose address is the Town Hall, Birkenhead, intend to apply to the Board of Trade for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 and 1929, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorise the Corporation to construct and maintain gasworks and to manufacture and store gas and residual products and manufactured products upon the land hereinafter described and to deal in such products. The said land is:—

A piece of land situate in the County Borough of Birkenhead containing 521 square yards or thereabouts bounded on the north-east by Hind Street on the east by Thomas Street and on the south and west by the existing gasworks of the Corporation.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the intended Order and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate and apply, with or without modification any provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and the Lands Clauses Acts and to repeal or amend any provisions of the Birkenhead Corporation Gas Acts and Orders, 1881 to 1926, the Birkenhead Extension Act, 1927, and any other Act or Order affecting the Corporation.

A copy of the draft Order and of the maps relating to the application have been deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Chester at Chester and also at the offices of the Corporation where printed copies of the draft Order may be obtained at the price of 1s. per copy.

Any local or other public authority, company, or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, and despatched on or before the 10th day of December, 1929.

Any such objection shall state (a) the specific grounds of objection; and (b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must be forwarded to the undermentioned Town Clerk or Parliamentary Agents at the same time as it is sent to the Board of Trade.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1929.

No. 00425 of 1929.

In the Matter of CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was, on the 24th day of October, 1929, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above-named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution passed and confirmed respectively at Extraordinary General Meetings of the said Company, held on the 27th day of June, 1929, and the 12th day of July, 1929, respectively, whereby it was resolved as follows:—

"That the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with respect to its objects be altered by inserting in Clause 3 thereof immediately after the existing sub-clause (E) thereof the following new sub-clause (EE), namely:—

"(EE) To carry on the business of carriers of goods, merchandise, passengers, stock, produce and mails in all its branches by land, water or air, and by any method of transport or communication, and either as incidental or ancillary to the Company's railways or as a separate business, and for that purpose to purchase, lease, erect or construct buildings, piers, docks and works, and to acquire or manufacture any equipment, including trams, motors, motor omnibuses, motor lorries, ships, aircraft and rolling stock generally, and to promote or hold interests in or to invest in any other corporation or body having power to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and to enter into arrangements with, or to acquire, undertake and carry on all or any part of the business property and obligations of any person, corporation or body possessed of property suitable for any of the Company's purposes, or carrying on any such business as aforesaid, and any reference in this Memorandum to railways shall be deemed to include any method or lines of transport or communication."

And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Romer, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday, the 18th day of November, 1929.

Any person interested in the assets of the said Company (whether as creditor, Debenture stock holder, noteholder, shareholder or otherwise) desirous of opposing the making of an Order confirming such alteration of objects may appear, in person or by Counsel, for that purpose.

A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Dated the 31st day of October, 1929.

(1) The 6 per cent. Cumulative Participating Preference shareholders, and

(2) The Ordinary shareholders respectively of the above named Company to be convened for the purpose of considering, and, if thought fit, approving with or without modification, a scheme of arrangement proposed to be made between the said Company and the holders of its 6 per cent. Cumulative Participating Preference shares and Ordinary shares respectively, and that such Meetings will be held at the registered office of the Company, 88, Kingsway, London, W.C. 2, on Monday, the 25th day of November, 1929, at the times below mentioned namely: The Meeting of the said holders of the said 6 per cent. Cumulative Participating Preference shares at 11.30 o'clock in the forenoon, and the Meeting of the holders of the said Ordinary shares at 11.45 o'clock in the forenoon (or as soon thereafter as the preceding Meeting shall have been concluded) at which place and respective times all the aforesaid 6 per cent. Cumulative Participating Preference shareholders and Ordinary shareholders are respectively requested to attend.

A copy of the said scheme of arrangement can be seen and forms of proxy obtained at the registered office of the said Company, 88, Kingsway, W.C. 2 aforesaid, and at the office of Messrs. Sydney Morse & Co., Alder House, Aldersgate-street, London, E.C. 1, the Solicitors of the said Company, during usual business hours on any week-day prior to the day appointed for the said Meetings.

The said shareholders may attend the Meetings of the classes to which they respectively belong and vote thereat either in person or by proxy.

In the case of joint holders of shares the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.

All proxies must be lodged with the Secretary of the said Company at its registered office, No. 88, Kingsway, W.C. 2 aforesaid, not later than 5 o'clock in the afternoon, on Thursday, the 21st day of November, 1929.

By the said Order the Court has appointed Percy Marmaduke Rosedale or failing him Thomas Bower to act as Chairman of the said Meetings, and has directed the Chairman to report the results thereof to the Court.

The said scheme of arrangement will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.

Dated this 2nd day of November, 1929.

SYDNEY MORSE and CO., of Alder House, Aldersgate-street, E.C. 1, in the city of London, Solicitors to the above named (124) Company.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Romer.

No. 00437 of 1929.

In the Matter of the GLOBE TELEGRAPH AND TRUST COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was, on the 30th October, 1929, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company passed and confirmed at General Meetings of the Company, held respectively on the 25th June, 1929, and the 11th July, 1929, whereby it was resolved as follows:—

"That the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to its objects be altered by substituting for the existing sub-clause (M) of Clause 3 of such Memorandum the following new sub-clause, namely:—

"(M) Acquiring by purchase, subscription, underwriting or otherwise, and holding shares, stocks, Debentures, Debenture stocks, bonds, obligations and securities of all kinds of or guaranteed by any Company or corporate body constituted or carrying on business in any part of the world, whose objects include any of this Company's objects, as stated in the foregoing paragraphs of this clause, or the owning or operation of land, or submarine, telephone lines or cables, or wireless or telephone stations, or any other means of transmitting, reproducing, distributing or receiving messages, words, music, sounds, signals or pictorial or other matter, or the generation, accumulation or distribution of electricity for any purpose, or the manufacture, supply, laying or erection of cables, wires, plant, machinery, equipment instruments, apparatus, articles or things of any kind necessary or useful for or in connection with any of the businesses aforesaid, or the carrying on of any business or undertaking of a similar nature to, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with, all or any of the foregoing businesses."

And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Romer, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday, the 18th day of November, 1929.

Any person interested in the assets of the Company, whether as creditor, shareholder or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said alteration of objects should appear at the time of hearing, in person or by Counsel, for that purpose.

A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Dated the 5th day of November, 1929.

BIRCHAM and CO., 100, Old Broad-street, (092) London, E.C. 2, Solicitors for the Company.
