At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of January, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Viscount Cecil of Chelwood.

Sir Charles Trevelyan.

WHEREAS Her Majesty Queen Victoria, being satisfied that by the law of the Province of Quebec, in the Dominion of Canada, no duty was leviable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom when passing on death, was pleased by an Order in Council bearing date the 15th day of January, 1897, to apply the twentieth section of the Finance Act, 1894, to the said Province:

And whereas by virtue of Article 14 of the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of the Taxing Acts) Order 1922 and of Article 2 of the Irish Free State (Consequential Adaptation of Enactments) Order 1923 reference to the United Kingdom in the said section is to be construed in the application of the provisions of that section to Great Britain as a reference to Great Britain:

And whereas by the said section it is, amongst other things, enacted that His Majesty in Council may revoke any Order issued under the said section applying its provisions to any British possession when it appears that the law of such British possession has been so altered that it would not authorise the making of such an Order:

And whereas the law of the Province of Quebec has been so altered as aforesaid, and it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the power by the Finance Act, 1894, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Order of the 15th day of January, 1897, which apply the twentieth section of the Finance Act, 1894, to the Province of Quebec in the Dominion of Canada, are hereby revoked.

2. This Order shall be deemed to have come into operation on the date of its publication in the London Gazette.
