UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS, 1920-1928.

DECISION OF THE HIGH COURT ON AN APPEAL UNDER SECTION 10 (1) PROVISIO (i) OF THE 1920 ACT.

Contributions Payable.

On the 13th January, 1930, Mr. Justice Roche gave judgment in the High Court on an appeal brought by the Southern Railway Company Limited, against the Minister's decision, given under Section 10 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, of the question whether a person employed in the following circumstances was or was not an employed person within the meaning of the Acts.

Caretaker or housekeeper employed by the Company at premises which included offices let by the Company, the person's duties being to clean the staircases, corridors and front hall, and to render certain services to the tenants of the offices, payment for these services being made by the tenants and not by the Company.

Mr. Justice Roche held that the employment of the person in question was not excepted either under paragraph (b) of Part II of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920, or under the provisions of Part VII of the First Schedule to the Unemployment Insurance (Subsidiary Employments) Special Order, 1925, and that he was an employed person within the meaning of the above Acts. Contributions were, therefore, payable in respect of the employment in question.
