*Crown Office,
House of Lords, S.W. 1,
10th February, 1930.*

MEMBER elected to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

Parliamentary Borough of Sheffield, Brightside Division.

Fred. Marshall, Esquire, in the place of Arthur Augustus William Harry Ponsonby, Esquire, now Baron Ponsonby of Shulbrede, called up to the House of Peers.

Whitehall, February 11, 1930.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 6th instant, to appoint William George Earengay, Esq., B.A., LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, to be Recorder of the Borough of Tewkesbury.

Whitehall, February 8, 1930.

The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto the undermentioned gentlemen His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear Decorations conferred upon them by His Majesty the King of Norway, in recognition of valuable services rendered by them:—

Insignia of Chevalier (First Class) of the Order of Saint Olav.

John Denholm, Esq., Honorary Vice-Consul of Norway at Greenock,
Boswell Laird Nairn, Esq., Honorary Vice-Consul of Norway at Dundee.

Whitehall, January 29, 1930.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Joseph Wilson in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the 19th of April a fall occurred at the Murton Colliery of the South Hetton Coal Company which resulted in the complete burial of one man Ralph Chisholm and the partial burial of another David Stevenson. Joseph Wilson heard the fall and immediately hurried to the place and protected Stevenson from further falls by standing over him and shielding him with his body, while others attempted to free the imprisoned man. Stevenson was liberated after 35 minutes, during which the whole roof in the locality was "working" and further falls were continually taking place. When the rescue operations were completed, Wilson himself was buried above the knees and
