7.—(i) There shall be a Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Protectorate and appointments to the said office shall be made by Commission under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet.

(ii) The said Governor and Commander-in-Chief (hereinafter called the Governor) is hereby authorised, empowered, and commanded to do and execute all things that belong to his said office, according to the tenour of any Orders in Council relating to the Protectorate, and of such Commission as may be issued to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, and according to such Instructions as may from time to time be given to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or by Order in Council, or by His Majesty through the Secretary of State, and to such laws as are now or shall hereafter be in force in the Protectorate.

(iii) Every person hereafter appointed to fill the office of Governor shall, with all due solemnity, before entering on any of the duties of his office, cause the Commission appointing him to be Governor to be read and published in the presence of such of His Majesty's Officers in the Protectorate as can conveniently attend, which being done, he shall then and there take before them the Oath of Allegiance in the form provided by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Thirty-first and Thirty-second years of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Promissory Oaths"; and likewise the usual oath for the due execution of the office of Governor, and for the due and impartial administration of justice, which oaths the principal officer of the Protectorate Government or some other of His Majesty's Officers then present is hereby required to administer.

(iv) In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from the Protectorate of the Governor for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities by this Order granted to him shall, until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified through the Secretary of State, be vested in the Secretary to the Administration or other principal officer of the Protectorate Government for the time being in the Protectorate. Such officer shall, before assuming the duties of administrator, first take the oaths hereinbefore directed to be taken by the Governor and in the manner herein prescribed, which being done, the administrator as aforesaid is hereby authorised, empowered, and commanded to do and execute, during His Majesty's pleasure, all things that belong to the office of Governor according to the tenour of this Order, and according to His Majesty's Instructions as aforesaid, and the Laws of the Protectorate. Provided that the Governor during his passage by air or water to or from any part of the Protectorate, or when, in the exercise or discharge of any powers or duties by this Order in Council or otherwise conferred or imposed upon him, he is in any territories adjacent to or near to the Protectorate, shall not be considered to be absent from the Protectorate.

8. The Governor shall keep and use the Public Seal of the Protectorate for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Seal.

9.—(i) The Governor may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, by Proclamation define any boundaries of the territories for the time being within the limits of this Order, and divide those territories into provinces or districts in such manner and with such subdivisions as may be convenient for purposes of administration, describing the boundaries thereof and assigning names thereto.

(ii) If a question arises whether any place is or is not within the Protectorate, or within any province or district, and such question does not appear to be determined by any such Proclamation, or other evidence, it shall be referred to the Governor, and a certificate under his hand and seal shall be conclusive on the question, and judicial notice shall be taken thereof.

10.—(i) All rights of His Majesty in or in relation to any Crown lands shall vest in and may be exercised by the Governor for the time being in trust for His Majesty, or, if the Secretary of State at any time with respect to all or any such lands by order under his hand so directs, in such other trustee or trustees for His Majesty as the Secretary of State may appoint.

(ii) The Secretary of State may, when he thinks fit, by a like order remove any trustee so appointed, and may appoint any new or additional trustee or trustees.

(iii) The Governor, or such other trustee or trustees, may make grants or leases of any Crown Lands, or may permit them to be temporarily occupied, on such terms and conditions as he or they may think fit, subject to the provisions of any Ordinance.

(iv) All mines and minerals being in, under, or upon any lands in the occupation of any native tribe, or any members thereof, or of any person not possessed of the right to work such mines and minerals, shall vest in the Governor, or such trustee or trustees, in like manner as the mines and minerals being in, under, or upon any Crown lands.

11.—(i) The Secretary of State, or the Governor, subject to the directions of the Secretary of State, may, on behalf of His Majesty, appoint, or authorise the appointment of, such public officers for the administration of the Protectorate, under such designations as he may think fit, and may prescribe their duties.

(ii) The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss any public officer not appointed by virtue of a Warrant from His Majesty, whose pensionable emoluments do not exceed two hundred pounds sterling a year, provided that in every such case where the officer has not been convicted on a criminal charge the grounds of intended dismissal are definitely stated in writing and communicated to the officer in order that he may have full opportunity of exculpating himself, and that the matter is investigated by the Governor with the aid of the head for the time being of the Department in which the officer is serving. If such an officer is convicted on a criminal charge, the Governor may call for the records of the trial and form his decision thereon, with the assistance, if necessary, of the officer who tried the case.

(iii) The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office in the Protectorate any public officer, which suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be made known and signified to the Governor. 12. In all cases, civil and criminal, to which natives are parties, every Court (a) shall be guided by native law, so far as it is applicable and is not repugnant to justice and morality, or inconsistent with any Order in Council or Ordinance, or any regulation or rule made under any Order in Council or Ordinance; and (b) shall decide all such cases according to substantial justice, without excessive regard to technicalities of procedure and without undue delay.

13. The production of a grant of probate or of letters of administration shall, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any Indian Act or Law in force in the Protectorate or in the Principal Order, be necessary to establish the right to recover or receive any part of the estate or effects of any deceased person situate in the Protectorate.

14. In the event of the Governor having occasion at any time to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government, or, in the exercise or discharge of any powers or duties conferred or imposed upon him by His Majesty, or through the Secretary of State, to visit any territories adjacent to or near to the Protectorate, he may by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Protectorate, appoint any person to be his Deputy within any part of the Protectorate, during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform and execute for and on behalf of the Governor during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in the Governor as shall in and by such instrument be specified and limited, but no others.

Every such Deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as the Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided, nevertheless, that by the appointment of a Deputy as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected otherwise than His Majesty may at any time hereafter think proper to direct.

PART III.—LEGISLATION.

15.—(i) The Governor may make Ordinances for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons in the Protectorate. In the making of any Ordinances the Governor shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations, and directions in that behalf contained in any Instructions under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet.

(ii) The Governor shall observe any general or special instructions of the Secretary of State with respect to the previous submission to the Secretary of State of draft Ordinances, to the making of Ordinances for particular purposes, to the amendment of Ordinances or draft Ordinances, and to other matters in relation thereto; but nothing in this provision shall affect the validity of any Ordinance.

(iii) In making Ordinances the Governor shall respect existing native laws and customs except so far as the same may be opposed to justice or morality.

(iv) The Governor shall sign every Ordinance made by him, and shall at the first available opportunity transmit an authenticated copy thereof to the Secretary of State.

(v) His Majesty may disallow any Ordinance, wholly or in part, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified, the provisions so disallowed shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done or suffered thereunder.

(vi) The Ordinances of each year shall be numbered consecutively, and each may be cited by its number and year, or by its short title, if any.

(vii) Where a date for the commencement of an Ordinance is not fixed in the Ordinance, it shall come into force on the day on which it is promulgated by the Governor.

(viii) An Ordinance may apply to the Protectorate any Act or law of the United Kingdom or of any legislature of India or of any Colony, subject to any exceptions and modifications.

(ix) The Governor may by Ordinance repeal or amend with respect to the Protectorate any enactments, Acts, laws or ordinances which are made applicable or have been brought into operation in the Protectorate by or under any of the provisions of any Order in Council by this Order repealed.

(x) Every Ordinance shall, unless a contrary intention appears, extend to natives and may in relation to natives comprise such special provisions, modifications and penalties as the Governor may think fit.

(xi) The Governor shall, at the first available opportunity after any rules or regulations are made under any Ordinance by any person or body authorized, transmit an authenticated copy thereof to the Secretary of State.

(xii) An Ordinance shall not be repealable by any rules or regulations made under an Ordinance.

(xiii) An Ordinance varying or affecting any Order in Council relating to the Protectorate shall not come into force unless it has been previously approved by the Secretary of State, and such approval shall be recited therein.

PART IV.—APPLICATION OF LAW OF BRITISH INDIA AND OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

16.—(i) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, and to any Treaties for the time being in force relating to the Protectorate, His Majesty's criminal and civil jurisdiction in the Protectorate shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of, and in conformity with, the enactments for the time being applicable as hereinafter mentioned of the Governor-General of India in Council, and of the Governor of Bombay in Council, and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by, and before, the Courts in the Presidency of Bombay beyond the limits of the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay according to their respective jurisdiction and authority, and so far as such enactments, procedure, and practice are inapplicable, shall be exercised under, and in accordance with, the Common and Statute Law of England.

(ii) The enactments mentioned in Schedule II to this Order shall continue to be applicable to the Protectorate.

(iii) Any Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, or of the Governor of Bombay in Council, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Order, amending or substituted for any Act of either of those Legislatures which has been made applicable to and brought into operation in the Protectorate shall, subject to the provisions of this Article, also apply to the Protectorate.

(iv) For the purpose of facilitating the application of any such enactments as before mentioned—

(a) The Court may construe any such enactment, with such alterations not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt the same to the matter before the Court;

(b) The Secretary of State may by order direct by what authority any jurisdiction, powers, or duties incident to the operation of any such enactment, and for the exercise or performance of which no convenient provision has been otherwise made, shall be exercised or performed;

(c) Any order of the Secretary of State made in pursuance of this Article shall be published in the Protectorate and in India, in such manner as he directs, and shall have effect as from a date to be specified in the order.

17. The enactments described in the first Schedule to "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," shall apply to the Protectorate as if it were a British Colony or possession, but subject to the provisions of this Order and to the exceptions, adaptations, and modifications following, that is to say—

(i) The Governor is hereby substituted for the Governor of a Colony or British possession, and the Protectorate Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court or Supreme Court and for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of a Colony or British possession.

(ii) For the portions of the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 and 1867, referred to in the said Schedule shall be substituted Part XIII of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894."

(iii) In section fifty-one of "The Conveyancing (Scotland) Act, 1874," and any enactment for the time being in force amending the same, the Protectorate Court is substituted for a Court of Probate in a Colony.

(iv) With respect to "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881"—

(a) So much of the fourth and fifth sections of the said Act as relates to sending a report of the issue of a warrant, together with the information, or a copy thereof, or to the sending of a certificate of committal and report of a case, or to the information to be given by a Magistrate to a fugitive, shall be excepted, and in lieu of such information the person acting as the Magistrate shall inform the fugitive that in the British possession or Protectorate to which he may be conveyed he has the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or other like process.

(b) So much of the 6th section of the said Act as requires the expiration of fifteen days before issue of warrant, shall be excepted.

(c) The Governor shall not be bound to return a fugitive offender to a British possession unless satisfied that the proceedings to obtain his return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that possession.

(d) For the purposes of Part II of the said Act, the Protectorate, Aden, Zanzibar, the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, and the Uganda Protectorate, and British India shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

PART V.—JUDICIAL.

(a) Criminal Matters.

18. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the other enactments relating to the administration of criminal justice in India, for the time being applicable to the Protectorate, shall have effect as if the Protectorate were a Presidency of India.

For the purposes of those enactments—

(i) The Protectorate Court established in pursuance of the Somaliland Order in Council, 1899, shall continue to exercise jurisdiction. The said Court shall be held either by the Governor or, at the Governor's discretion, by the Secretary to the Administration and shall have all the powers of a Sessions Court in India.

(ii) The Protectorate Court shall in relation to all Courts within the Protectorate have the same appellate jurisdiction and the same powers of revision as are possessed by a High Court in India; and

(iii) The powers both of the Governor-General in Council and of the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor.

19.—(i) In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened in the Protectorate, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any person charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor, as if both the criminal act and the death had happened in the Protectorate.

(ii) In the case of any offence committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any person who at the time of committing such offence was on board a British ship, or by any British subject on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, a Court acting under this Order shall have jurisdiction as if the offence had been committed within the Protectorate.

(iii) In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the offence were tried there.

20. The Governor may, if he thinks fit, by general order prescribe the manner in which, and the places in the Protectorate at which, sentences of imprisonment are to be carried into execution.

21. When any crime or offence has been committed within the Protectorate, or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime or offence who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders, if more than one; and further, may grant to any offender convicted in any Court, or before any Judge or other Magistrate, within the Protectorate, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission or commutation of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence, for such period as the Governor thinks fit, and may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures due or accrued to His Majesty.

22.—(i) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the Governor, that any person subject to this Order has committed, or is about to commit, an offence against this Order, or is otherwise conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in the Protectorate or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of the Protectorate and His Majesty, or is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority in the Protectorate, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand and official seal, prohibit that person from being in the Protectorate, during any time therein specified, not exceeding two years, or may order him to be deported in manner provided by this Order.

(ii) If the person named in the order of prohibition fails to obey, or acts in contravention of the order—

(a) He shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, without prejudice to the operation of the order of prohibition.

(b) Whether the offender has been convicted of, or imprisoned for, that offence or not, the Governor may, if he thinks fit, order him to be deported.

(iii) The Governor, by order under his hand and official seal, may vary any order of prohibition (not extending the duration thereof), and may at any time revoke the same.

(iv) The Governor shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order made by him under this Article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

23.—(i) Where a person is convicted of an offence the Court before which he is convicted may, if it thinks fit, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, cause him to come or be brought before the Court.

(ii) If any person required by an order under this Article, or under the law relating to criminal procedure for the time being in force, to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace, fails to do so, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from the Protectorate.

(iii) Any order of deportation not made by the Governor must be approved by him.

24.—(i) Any person ordered to be deported under this Order shall be, as soon as practicable, and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence, or while it is in course of execution, removed in custody, under the warrant of the Governor, to the place named in the warrant and there discharged from custody.

(ii) The place shall be a place in that part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom to which the person belongs or in some other part of those dominions the Government whereof consents to the reception therein of persons deported under this Order, or a place under the Protectorate of His Majesty, or in the country out of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs.

(iii) The Court, on making an order of deportation, may, if it thinks fit, order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to be fixed by the Court in the order.

(iv) The Governor shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order of deportation made under this Order, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

(v) If a person deported under this Order returns to the Protectorate without permission in writing of the Governor or Secretary of State, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

(vi) He shall also be liable to be again deported under the original or a new order, and a fresh warrant of the Governor.

(vii) The Governor may at any time revoke or vary any order or warrant of deportation.

25.—(i) Where, under this Order, a person is to be sent, or removed, or deported from the Protectorate, he shall, by warrant of the Governor under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody, or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then, if he is to be deported beyond sea, be put on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(ii) The warrant of the Governor shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the Commander or master of the vessel, to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to send or remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(iii) In case of sending or removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Governor shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police, or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

26. The Governor and every officer for the time being exercising the powers of a Magistrate, shall have in and for the Protectorate, province, or district, as the case may be, all the power and jurisdiction appertaining to the office of a Justice of the Peace.

27. A sentence of imprisonment under this Order, or any Ordinance made under this Order, may be with or without hard labour, in the discretion of the Court, unless it is expressed to be without hard labour.

(b) Civil Matters.

28. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure, "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869," and the other enactments relating to the administration of civil justice for the time being applicable to the Protectorate, shall have effect as if the Protectorate were the Presidency of Bombay.

(i) For the purposes of these enactments the Protectorate Court shall be deemed to be the High Court, and the Court authorised to hear appeals from and to revise the decisions of District Courts;

(ii) District Courts shall be established under the provisions of "The Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869," as applied by this Order; and

(iii) The powers both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor.

29. The following enactments of "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890," that is to say, section 2, sub-sections (2) to (4), sections 5 and 6, section 16, sub-section (3), shall apply to the Protectorate Court as if in the said sections the said Court were mentioned in lieu of a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and the Protectorate were referred to in lieu of a British possession.

30.—(i) Every District Court shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the death of every British subject or foreigner dying leaving property to be administered, and all such information as may serve to guide the Court with respect to the securing and administration of his property.

(ii) On receiving notice of the death of such a person, the Court shall put up a Notice thereof, at the Court-house, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Court that probate or administration will not be applied for, or cannot be granted, for such time as it thinks fit.

(iii) The Court shall, where the circumstances of the case appear so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property in the Protectorate of the deceased, or put it under its seal (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

(iv) All expenses incurred by the Court in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Court shall, by sale of the property, or part thereof, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

31. Where a British subject or foreigner dies intestate, his property in the Protectorate shall, until administration is granted, vest in the Governor.

32. If a person named executor in a will, to the establishment of whose title, as such, it is necessary to obtain probate of that will, takes possession of, and administers or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

33. If any person other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or a person entitled to represent the deceased; without obtaining probate or letters of administration, or an officer of the Court, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the District Court, and shall furnish to that Court all such information as the Court requires, and shall conform to any directions of the Court in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property, or the proceeds thereof, and in case of any contravention of this article, he shall be liable to be punished with fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

34.—(i) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear so to require, for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the District Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an officer or practitioner of the Court.

(ii) The person so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby; and, if he is a practitioner, he shall not act otherwise than as administrator in relation to the estate.

(iii) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit in the Protectorate, Aden, the United Kingdom, and elsewhere.

(ii) Any bill of sale or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with the view of avoiding such attachment or sale, shall not be effectual to defeat the provisions of this Order.

(ii) The order may be enforced as an order directing payment of money.

41.—(i) If a clerk or officer of the Court, acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court, is charged with extortion, or with not paying over money duly levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may, if it thinks fit, inquire into the charge in a summary way, and may for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons as in an action, and may make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the payment over of any money levied, and for the payment of such damages and costs as the Court thinks fit.

(ii) The Court may also, if it thinks fit, on the same inquiry, impose on the clerk or officer a fine not exceeding 50 rupees for each offence.

(iii) A clerk or officer punished under this Article shall not, without the leave of the Protectorate Court, be liable to an action in respect of the same matter; and any such action if already or afterwards begun, may be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(iv) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other law for any act or omission punishable under this Article, or for being liable under that other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Article: Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

42. The Governor, or any other officer of the Protectorate Government appointed by him in that behalf, may exercise any power conferred on any Justices of the Peace within His Majesty's dominions by any Act of Parliament, for the time being in force, regulating merchant seamen or the mercantile marine.

44. His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Council, may from time to time revoke, add to, alter, or amend this Order.

45. This Order shall be proclaimed within the Protectorate and shall thereupon commence and come into operation.

Privy Council Office, 25th March, 1930.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, in the University of Oxford, on the 17th day of March, 1930, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923."

ALL SOULS COLLEGE, OXFORD.

AMENDMENT TO STATUTES.

WHEREAS the University of Oxford Commissioners under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923, did, by an Instrument under their Seal, dated the 4th day of February, 1925, approve certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners who are therein described as "The College of the Souls of all Faithful People deceased in the University of Oxford."

And whereas such Statutes were approved by His Majesty King George the Fifth in Council on the 25th day of June, 1925:

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for that purpose, and held on the 27th day of June, 1929, it was unanimously resolved, by those present and voting at the Meeting, that the alterations in and additions to the said Statutes hereinafter specified should be made (that is to say):—

In Statute VIII there shall be inserted immediately after Clause 7 thereof the Clauses following (that is to say):—

8. Except as hereinafter provided the Warden and Fellows shall effect a policy or policies of assurance upon the life of each Fellow elected after the 31st July, 1930, under Statute III, Clauses 1, 9, 12 and 13, within four months of his election under the scheme known as the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Universities. The Warden and Fellows shall deduct from the annual emolument as hereinafter defined of each assured person five per cent. of such emolument and shall pay this sum annually, together with a sum out of the revenues of the College appropriated to the purposes of these Statutes equal to ten per cent. of the said emolument, as the premium on the said policy or policies, and shall conform in regard to the effecting of new policies from time to time and in all other matters concerned with the assurance to the regulations of the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Universities, except in so far as anything in such regulations may be repugnant to any provision in these Statutes. Provided that the transference to the College of a policy or policies effected under the Federated Superannuation Scheme by some other Institution upon the life of a Fellow shall be deemed to be equivalent to the effecting of the policy by the College.

9. If it shall appear to the Warden and Fellows that owing to his age at the date of his election or to any other special circumstances no adequate provision for the pension of a Fellow can be made by means of a policy or policies of assurance effected by them as aforesaid, they may with his consent instead of effecting such policy or policies, deduct each year from the emoluments of his fellowship a sum equal to five per cent. thereof and invest it for his benefit, together with a sum equal to ten per cent. of his emolument contributed from the revenues of the College appropriated to the purposes of these Statutes, in any securities in which trust funds may legally be invested. The income arising therefrom shall be accumulated and invested from time to time in like manner, in accordance with the provisions of the Federated Superannuation Scheme, and all sums invested under this clause shall be dealt with under the provisions of that Scheme.

10. (i) For the purposes of the two preceding clauses the annual emolument of an assured person shall be deemed to include the emoluments of any Fellowship or College Office held by him.

(ii) The two preceding clauses shall cease to apply to a Fellow elected under Statute III Clause 1 after the expiration of two years from the day of his election unless he is re-elected under Clause 6 (ii).

(iii) A Fellow who was elected to a Fellowship under Clauses 1, 6 (ii), 9, 12 or 13, of Statute III prior to the 31st July, 1930, may with his consent but not otherwise be brought under the provisions of the two preceding clauses.

(iv) No pension shall be granted under Clause 7 of this Statute to any person benefitting under this and the two preceding clauses.

In Statute VIII the existing Clauses 8 and 9 shall be renumbered as Clauses 11 and 12 respectively.

Now, we, the said Warden and College, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923, do hereby submit the aforesaid alterations and additions made by us in the Statutes governing our said College to the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, and humbly pray that the same may be approved and confirmed.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Corporate Seal this seventeenth day of March, 1930.

The Corporate Seal of the above named Warden and College was hereunto affixed in the presence of (L.S.)
