

Benefice; and if the said Benefice of Stansfield only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Hawkedon and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Hawkedon if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Stansfield shall have been instituted to Stansfield subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice and if the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich shall signify in writing his consent thereto, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Stansfield before that date and shall not so consent or if the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich shall not signify his consent as aforesaid, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Stansfield following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Hawkedon and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Hawkedon shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Stansfield shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

" 4. That after the said union has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, the right of presentation shall be exercised by the Patrons of the said two Benefices alternately, and if under any of the provisions of Clause 2 of this Scheme an Incumbent of the said Benefice of Stansfield shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice then the first turn of presentation or nomination to be made to the United Benefice after the union shall belong to the Patron of the said Benefice of Hawkedon, but otherwise such first turn of presentation or nomination shall belong to the Patron of the said Benefice of Stansfield.

" 5. That upon the union taking effect all the Tithe rentcharges Glebe lands and all other the endowments belonging to the said United Benefice or which may hereafter belong to the same United Benefice shall be charged and for ever after be chargeable in favour of the Incumbents for the time being of the two Benefices of Poslingford and Rede both in the said Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich with the annual sums or yearly rentcharges hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, (1) a clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of £100 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Poslingford and (2) a clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of £60 in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Rede; the same annual sums or yearly rentcharges to be as from the date of the said union taking effect due and payable to the Incumbents of the said Benefices of Poslingford and Rede respectively, and the said annual sums or yearly rentcharges to be apportionable in each case between any outgoing Incumbent of either of the said Bene-fices of Poslingford and Rede or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same Incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the Incumbents in whose favour they are charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and for the recovery of the said yearly rentcharges in each case the Incumbents of the said Benefices of Poslingford and Rede and their successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by Sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rentcharges to which those Sections apply. Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said United Benefice shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said Benefices of Poslingford and Rede or either of them, any part or parts of the endowments belonging to the said United Benefice which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for both or either of the said yearly rentcharges hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then in every case in which such equivalent provision shall have been made the corresponding annual sum or yearly rentcharge shall thereupon cease and be no longer payable.

" Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has
