And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said Scheme has, under the provisions of the said Pluralities Act, 1838, by his Report dated the 9th day of April, 1930, certified the same and the Consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council to the intent that an Order may, if His Majesty in Council so think fit, be made for carrying the Scheme into effect:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

Colin Smith.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of June, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 8th February, 1855, directing the discontinuance of burials in certain places within the City of Canterbury, from the time specified in such Order:

And whereas the said Order in Council of the 8th February, 1855, was varied by Orders in Council of the 26th February, 1897, the 16th February, 1903, the 28th March, 1903, the 25th June, 1903, the 13th April, 1915, and the 6th February, 1925, so far as it affected burials in Canterbury Cathedral:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Orders in Council be further varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, notwithstanding anything in the said Orders in Council of the 8th February, 1855, 26th February, 1897, 16th February, 1903, 28th March, 1903, 25th June, 1903, 13th April, 1915, and 6th February, 1925, in the grave now existing in the Cloisters of the said Cathedral in which the body of the late Archbishop Lord Davidson has been buried, the burial may be allowed, at her decease, of the body of his widow, subject to the condition that the coffin will be wholly and permanently embedded in and covered with a layer, or layers, of good cement concrete not less in any part than six inches in thickness.
