Civil Service Commission,

October 21, 1930.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT BY COMPETITIVE SELECTION OF INSPECTORS (MALE) UNDER THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS, 1894-1927.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration at any time.

1. Application for appointment shall be made in the first instance to the Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Ministry. When a vacancy occurs, the Ministry will cause notice to be given by an advertisement in the Press, which will include a statement of the last day fixed for the receipt of applications.

2. A candidate must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 32 on the last day fixed for the receipt of applications; provided that in reckoning age for this purpose a candidate who has served in the Army, Navy, or Air Force between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918, may deduct from his actual age any period of service between the 4th August, 1914, and the 31st December, 1919.

3. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made:—

(a) In the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

(b) In the case of natural-born British subjects who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces in the Great War between 4th August, 1914, and 11th November, 1918.

(c) In the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

4. Until further notice preference will be given to candidates who have served in His Majesty's Forces in the War between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918.

5. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy, or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. A candidate must have graduated as Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

7. The completed application forms will be scrutinized by the Ministry and selected candidates will be interviewed by a Board consisting of representatives of the Ministry and of the Civil Service Commissioners. The Board will recommend to the Ministry for appointment to the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, provided they find so many suitable.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's previous work.

8. The necessary number of candidates will be appointed on probation, subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners that they are eligible for appointment in respect of age, nationality, health, and character, and to the payment of a fee of £4.

9. Service as Inspector will be probationary for a period of two years, and the retention of an Inspector beyond that period will be conditional on his passing a prescribed examination after the expiry of that period.

10. An Inspector, after passing the examination, is eligible for consideration for appointment to the established staff. Appointment to the established staff is conditional on the issue by the Civil Service Commissioners of a certificate of qualification; a fee of £4, being the balance of the prescribed fee of £8, is payable before the certificate of qualification can be issued.

Civil Service Commission,

October 21, 1930.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT BY COMPETITIVE SELECTION OF FISHERY OFFICERS (MALE) IN THE FISHERIES DEPARTMENT OF THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. Application for appointment shall be made in the first instance to the Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Ministry. When a vacancy occurs, the Ministry will cause notice to be given by an advertisement in the Press, which will include a statement of the last day fixed for the receipt of applications.

2. A candidate for the post of Fishery Officer must have attained the age of 25 and must not have attained the age of 35 on the last day fixed for the receipt of applications; provided that in reckoning age for this purpose a candidate who served in the Army, Navy, or Air Force between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918, may deduct from his actual age any period of service between the 4th August, 1914, and the 31st December, 1919.

3. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the son of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made:—

(a) In the case of candidates serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners.

(b) In the case of natural-born British subjects who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces in the Great War between 4th August, 1914, and 11th November, 1918.

(c) In the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied, in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

4. Until further notice preference will be given to candidates who served in His Majesty's Forces during the War between the 4th August, 1914, and the 11th November, 1918.

5. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy, or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. A candidate must satisfy the Ministry that he possesses a sound general education and will be required to have had experience of fisheries, or of the fishing industry or of seamanship. Where special qualifications are required, particulars will be given in the advertisement.

7. The completed application forms will be scrutinised by the Ministry and selected candidates will be interviewed by a Board consisting of representatives of the Ministry and of the Civil Service Commissioners. The Board will recommend to the Ministry for appointment to the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, provided they find so many suitable.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's previous work.

8. The necessary number of candidates will be appointed on probation, subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners that they are eligible for appointment in respect of age, nationality, health and character, and to the payment of a fee of £4.

9. The retention of the Officer will be conditional on the Ministry being satisfied as to his conduct and capacity.

10. Service as Fishery Officer will be probationary for a period of two years, on the completion of which he will be eligible for consideration for appointment to the established staff. Appointment to the established staff is conditional on the issue by the Civil Service Commissioners of a Certificate of Qualification. A fee of £4, being the balance of the prescribed fee of £8, is payable before the Certificate of Qualification can be issued.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant out of our Common Fund to the Incumbent for the time being of the Benefice of Saint Augustine, Holly Hall, Dudley, in the County of Worcester and the Diocese of Worcester, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable for the period commencing on the twenty-ninth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and terminating on the first day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one unless at any time before the expiration of the said period the grant of such stipend shall have been cancelled or withdrawn by a resolution of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and to be payable so long as the same shall continue in four equal portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August and the first day of November in each year: Provided always that such yearly sum or stipend or any quarterly portion thereof shall be payable only upon the production to us on or after each of the said last mentioned quarterly days of payment of a certificate (in such form as may be required by us) under the hand of the Bishop of the said Diocese certifying that, during the quarter then ended an Assistant Curate has been employed within the Parish of the Benefice, duly licensed by such Bishop and in receipt of a stipend after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also that such yearly sum or stipend shall be and be taken to be in lieu of a grant of like amount formerly payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to certain conditions, towards the stipend of an Assistant Curate employed in the Parish of Saint John, Tipton, in the Diocese of Lichfield.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal this sixteenth day of October, in the year one thousand (L.S.) nine hundred and thirty.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, and of our Regulations established under the authority of the "Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Provision for Unbeneficed Clergy) Measure, 1928," and dated the 1st day of August, 1929, do hereby grant out of our Common Fund the yearly sums amounting in all to ten thousand two hundred and twenty-five pounds set out in the Schedules to Reports of our Estates Committee dated the twentieth day of February, the first day of May, the fifteenth day of May and the twenty-fourth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and adopted at our General Meetings of the thirteenth day of March, the eighth day of May, the twenty-second day of May and the thirty-first day of July in the same year respectively, each such yearly sum to be payable during our pleasure and subject to the conditions contained in the said Regulations and the special conditions (if any) set out in the said Reports or any of them to the unbeneficed clergyman indicated in the relevant Report or Schedule thereto, to commence from the date specified in such Report or Schedule and so long as it continues payable to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal this sixteenth day of October in the year one thousand (L.S.) nine hundred and thirty.

Board of Trade.—October 1930.

ALNWICK GAS.

(Application for Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 and 1929.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by the Alnwick Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") whose address is 16, Bondgate, Alnwick, for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts 1920 and 1929, for all or some of the following (amongst other) purposes (that is to say):—

To convert into stock whether ordinary or preference or partly the one and partly the other with such rights privileges and incidents as the Order may prescribe any class of stock in the existing ordinary capital of the Company, to provide for the creation and issue of stock in substitution for any existing ordinary stock of the Company and to make all necessary and convenient provisions for giving effect to such conversion.

To authorise and require Trustees and others to accept the stock so to be issued in substitution for stock held by them and to make provisions as to the transfers or other dispositions of the ordinary stocks of the Company converted under the powers sought by the Order.

To authorise the Company to raise by the creation and issue of consolidated ordinary stock or new preference stock or wholly or partly by one or more of those modes respectively any moneys which they are authorised to raise under the Alnwick Gas Act 1881 by the creation and issue of new ordinary shares or stock or new preference shares or stock.

To define the maximum dividend to be payable on any preference stock of the Company to be hereafter issued.

To make new or altered provisions as to the priority of interest on any debenture stock to be hereafter created and issued.

To make provisions prescribing the minimum holdings of stock and debenture stock of the Company.

To prescribe a new sliding scale for determining the authorised rates of dividend from time to time on the ordinary capital of the Company on the basis of the price charged by the Company for gas supplied by them in the several quarters of the year or half year.

To make new provisions as to the formation of a reserve fund a special purposes fund and a renewal fund and the application thereof respectively and the appropriation of the existing reserve and insurance funds of the Company.

To make new or altered provisions as to the sale of consolidated ordinary stock and preference stock in the capital of the Company by auction or tender.

To empower the Company to pay commission on or in connection with the offer for sale or subscription of consolidated ordinary or preference stock; and with the consent of the Board of Trade to offer capital for subscription by the holders of ordinary or preference stocks or debenture stock of the Company and by consumers of gas and employees of the Company without first offering the same for sale by public auction or tender.

To empower the directors of the Company to issue so as to be redeemable preference stock and debenture stock, to make provision with respect to the redemption of such stock either by a payment in cash or by the issue of other stock (redeemable or otherwise) and to authorise the creation and issue of new stock for any such purpose and the re-issue of any redeemable preference stock or debenture stock after redemption.

To define the rights of the Company in regard to the creation and issue of capital and the borrowing of money on mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock where stock is redeemed or other stock is substituted therefor.

To make further provision with reference to the Company's affairs including provisions as to the number time and place of the meetings of the Company, the closing of transfer books, the voting rights of stockholders and of joint holders of stock at meetings of the Company, the appointment of auditors, the appointment of proxies, directors holding office under or contracting with the Company, the payment of interim dividends without the sanction or direction of a general meeting and the preparation of the Company's accounts, and to relieve the Company from any obligation to see to the execution of trusts to which the stock or debenture stock of the Company may be subject.

To relieve the Company of the obligation to keep separately a register of shareholders and a shareholders' address book or to authenticate by the affixing of the common seal or otherwise the register of shareholders.

To make provisions authorising the Company or the directors to subscribe or make donations to institutions employed in scientific research or in carrying out objects or purposes likely to benefit the Company and to trade associations and industrial exhibitions and to infirmaries hospitals &c. and to grant superannuation and other allowances, gratuities, pensions and to make other payments to officers and employees and the widows, families and dependants of such persons, to enter into and carry into effect agreements with insurance companies or others for securing such gratuities, pensions and other payments and to apply the funds and revenues of the Company for all or any of those purposes.

To make provisions as to the appointment and remuneration of a treasurer and a secretary and of managing directors, the appointment of officers of the Company as directors, and the notice to be given of the candidature of and of opposition to the re-election of directors in certain cases.

To make provision with reference to the sale or leasing of any lands not for the time being required for the purposes of the undertaking of the Company.

To make new or further provisions as to the prevention of the improper use of gas and the giving of a supply of gas where the consumer has a separate supply; to empower the Company to lay down mains or pipes for ancillary purposes; to relieve the Company in certain circumstances from the obligation to supply gas; to empower the Company to break up streets not dedicated to the public use for the purpose of laying mains pipes and other apparatus; to prescribe and regulate the materials size and position and the laying of pipes fittings and appliances on the premises of consumers.

To make new or further provisions as to the mode of cutting off supplies in certain circumstances, the entry into and removal of fittings from premises where gas supply is discontinued and in other cases; the notice to be given by consumers before discontinuing the use of gas or leaving premises supplied with gas by the Company; the recovery of the cost of cutting off supplies and reconnecting disconnected supplies; the period of error in defective meters; and the provision of anti-fluctuators in connection with gas engines.

To empower the Company to refuse to supply gas to persons in debt for other premises; to provide that apparatus let on hire shall remain the property of the Company whether it be fixed to any property or not and to make provision as to the authentication and service of notices by the Company; the inclusion of several sums in one summons and the recovery of demands and of penalties.

To authorise the Company and any local authority, company or person to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements as to the supply to or by the Company of gas in bulk.

The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with its purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

To repeal alter or amend all or any of the provisions of the Alnwick Gas Act 1881 and the Alnwick Gas (Charges) Order 1922 and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

To incorporate with the Order, with or without modification, or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act 1871, and the Companies Clauses Acts 1845 and 1863.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, and despatched on or before the 20th day of November, 1930.

Any objection shall state:—

- (a) The specific grounds of objection; and
- (b) The omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must at the same time be forwarded to the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents.

A copy of the draft Special Order has been deposited at the offices of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Northumberland at his office at the Moot Hall, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and at the offices of the Company at 16, Bondgate, Alnwick.

Printed copies of the draft Special Order may be obtained at the offices of the Company as aforesaid and of the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling per copy.

Dated this 17th day of October, 1930.

2. To empower the Corporation to borrow further moneys for the purposes of their Transport Undertaking and mortgage or charge the revenue of that Undertaking and the Borough Fund or Borough Rate as security therefor and to confer upon the Corporation all other necessary financial powers.

3. To apply to the Undertaking authorised by the Order all or such of the provisions of the Darlington Light Railways Order, 1902, and the Darlington Corporation (Transport, &c.) Act, 1925, as may be deemed expedient, and especially all or some of the provisions of that Order and Act relating to:—

(a) The placing, erecting, laying down, maintaining, renewing, altering and repairing trolley vehicle equipment in, over or adjacent to the streets and roads aforesaid, and any bridges thereover, and the making and maintaining of openings and ways for the purpose of working the trolley vehicles by electrical power and of obtaining access to any lands, depots, sheds or property of the Corporation and the opening, breaking up, altering or otherwise interfering with the streets, roads and bridges aforesaid, and any sewers, drains, pavements, pipes, tubes, wires, and apparatus in, upon, over or under any such streets, roads and bridges;

(b) The rates and charges for passengers, dogs and parcels;

(c) The use of electrical power;

(d) The attachment of brackets to buildings; and

(e) The mode of raising money and the repayment of the same, the borrowing of moneys and the application of borrowed moneys and capital moneys and other financial provisions.

4. To vary or extinguish all rights, powers and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with any of the objects of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

The Draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Ministry of Transport on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Order when deposited and of the Order when made may be seen or obtained on payment of one shilling per copy at the Offices of the undersigned Town Clerk, at which Offices a map and diagram showing the proposed routes will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th of November next.

Every Company, body or person desirous of making any representation to the Minister of Transport or of bringing before him any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to The Secretary, Ministry of Transport, 6, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1, on or before the 15th day of January next, and a copy of all such objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned, and in forwarding to the Ministry such objections the objectors or their agents must state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Promoters.

Dated this 15th day of October, 1930.

(022) H. HOPKINS,
Town Clerk, Darlington.
