

Patents, &c., p. 5), Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased to declare that the provisions of Section 103 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (46-7 V. c. 57), should apply to France and Tunis and to the other foreign countries named therein:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the 12th February, 1918 (S.R. & O., 1918, No. 250), His Majesty was pleased to declare that the provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, should apply to that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection:

And whereas it is expedient, on the making of this Order, that the Orders dated the 26th June, 1884, and the 12th February, 1918, should be revoked:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The laws of France, of that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection, and of Tunis confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the said foreign countries or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall be applicable to France, to that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French Protection, and to Tunis.

3. The Orders in Council dated the 26th June, 1884, and the 12th February, 1918, are hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (France, Morocco (French Zone) and Tunis) Order, 1930.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Chelmsford.

Mr. Secretary Adamson.

Hon. J. H. Scullin.

Hon. R. B. Bennett.

Hon. G. W. Forbes.

Hon. Sir R. A. Squires.

WHEREAS by Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928 (7 E. 7. c. 29; 4-5 G. 5. c. 18; 9-10 G. 5. c. 80, and 18-9 G. 5. c. 3), it is provided that the said Section shall apply only to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of a foreign state with respect to which His Majesty, by Order in Council, declares that the laws thereof confer corresponding rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the foreign state or the territorial waters thereof:

And whereas by Section 91 of the said Acts it is provided that the provisions of that Section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty, by Order in Council, declares them to be applicable:

And whereas at The Hague on the 6th November, 1925, His Majesty and the heads of certain foreign states having deemed it expedient to make certain modifications in and additions to the International Convention of the 20th March, 1883, for the creation of an International Union for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, and at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, agreed upon a Convention (Treaty Series No. 16 (1928)) comprising the said International Convention as revised at Brussels and at Washington with the said modifications and additions, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other foreign states:

And whereas Turkey has acceded to the said Convention:

And whereas by reason of the accession to the said Convention of Turkey the laws thereof confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into Turkey or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in the said Section 48:

And whereas the said Convention is an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 91:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the 12th October, 1925 (S.R. & O. 1925, No. 1015), His Majesty was pleased to declare that the provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1919, should apply to Turkey, and it is expedient, on the making of this Order, that the said Order should be revoked:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The laws of Turkey confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into Turkey or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall be applicable to Turkey.

3. The Industrial Property Convention (Accession of Turkey) Order, 1925, dated the 12th October, 1925, is hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (Turkey) Order, 1930.
