The Patent Office.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of benefactions consisting of, firstly, certain land which was conveyed to us by a deed dated the twenty-first day of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine as a site for a Parsonage House for the Benefice of Shalfleet, in the Isle of Wight and in the Diocese of Portsmouth, and secondly, a sum of seven hundred pounds which was paid over to us on the nineteenth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty, towards the provision of a Parsonage House for the said Benefice, and in respect of which capital sum interest after a rate of three pounds per centum per annum is allowed by us, Do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, Grant out of our Common Fund to the Incumbent of the said Benefice, and appropriate for the benefit of such Incumbent and his successors Incumbents of the same Benefice, to meet such benefactions, one capital sum of eight hundred and five pounds towards the provision of a Parsonage House for the Benefice, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, commencing from the nineteenth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty, such interest to be accumulated by us and added to the capital sum: Provided always that the capital sum of eight hundred and five pounds hereby granted shall be and shall be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the capital sums of one hundred and five pounds and of seven hundred pounds which were secured to the said Benefice by other Instruments which were sealed by us and were published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine and the twenty-eighth day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty respectively.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal this eleventh day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, Do hereby Grant and convey to the Incumbent of the Benefice of Holy Trinity, Habergham Eaves, in the County of Lancaster and in the Diocese of Blackburn, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same Benefice, the house and premises which were acquired by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, by Deed dated the fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, for the purpose of providing a Parsonage House for the said Benefice and which are now vested in us in trust for the same Benefice: To have and to hold the said house and premises to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.
