The hours of service for the present are 1.30 p.m. to 10 p.m. (British Time).

Calls may be booked either:—

(a) as an ordinary call, i.e., for a specified telephone station, in which case only the telephone number of the station required should be given, or

(b) as a "person-to-person" call, i.e., from a particular person to a particular person, in which case the name of the person calling should be given as well as the name of the person required. In addition, the usual telephone number of the person required, and if possible the name associated with that number in the Telephone Directory, should be given. Where the telephone number of the person required is not known an effort will be made to trace it, if his name and address is given. Calling subscribers should, if possible, intimate at the time of booking a "person-to-person" call, the name of an acceptable substitute at the receiving exchange.

In the case of a "person-to-person" call, when communication with the number required is established, but further efforts to complete the call are abandoned, neither the particular person required nor an accepted substitute being obtainable, a "Report Charge" of 12s. (14s. in the case of the Isle of Man or Northern Ireland) will be made in place of the normal charge. The caller (or failing him his telephone station) will be notified of the impracticability of completing the call. When a "person-to-person" call matures, no "report charge" will be made.

Dated this 12th day of December, 1930.

Solicitor to H.M. Post Office.
