

SCHEDULE.

FIRST COLUMN.	SECOND COLUMN.
Powers parties to the Convention.	Territories to which the Convention applies.
The Federal President of the Austrian Republic His Majesty the King of the Belgians The President of the German Reich H.R.H. The Grand Duchess of Luxemburg ... The President and Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation.	Austria. The Belgian Congo. The Mandated Territory of Ruanda-Urundi. Germany. Luxemburg. Switzerland.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of December, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend James, Lord Bishop of Wakefield, has, under Section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, made a Representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York, in the following terms:—

"I, The Right Reverend James, Lord Bishop of Wakefield, in pursuance of the 26th Section of the Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd Victoria Chapter 106 hereby represent to your Grace that there are in the County of York and my Diocese of Wakefield certain isolated portions of the Parish of Sandal which have become entirely separated therefrom by other parishes which have from time to time been formed between them and such portions are coloured pink on the plan attached hereto.

"That there are also in the County of York and my Diocese of Wakefield certain isolated portions of the Parish of Silkstone which have also become entirely separated from the ancient parish of Silkstone by other parishes which have from time to time been formed between them and such portions are coloured blue on the plan attached hereto.

"That the said portions of Sandal and Silkstone form together one Township known as the Township of West Bretton.

"That the said portions of the said parish of Sandal coloured pink as aforesaid are five miles distant from the Parish Church of Sandal and have a population of one hundred and twenty people. There is a Private Chapel within the said township of West Bretton which the public are allowed to attend.

"That the said portions of the parish of Silkstone coloured blue on the said plan are six miles distant from the Parish Church of Silkstone and have a population of eighty people. There is a Private Chapel within the said township which the public are allowed to attend.

"That adjoining the said Township of West Bretton is the Parish and Vicarage of Darton in the County of York and my Diocese of Wakefield.

"That the population of the said Vicarage and Parish of Darton is five thousand five hundred people or thereabouts for whom there is a Church affording accommodation for five hundred people and which is situated within two miles of the said Township of West Bretton and Baptisms Churchings Marriages and Burials are performed therein.

"That the gross annual value of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Darton is Four Hundred Pounds per annum.

"That the inhabitants of those portions of the Parish of Sandal which are coloured pink on the said plan are liable (subject to the provisions of the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act 1868) for the repair and maintenance of the Parish Church of Sandal and have a right to accommodation therein but they do not customarily resort thereto.

"That the inhabitants of those portions of the parish of Silkstone which are coloured blue on the said plan are (subject to the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act 1868) liable for the repair and maintenance of the Parish Church of Silkstone and have a right to accommodation therein but they do not customarily resort thereto.

"That the Reverend Arthur Audley Parry, Clerk, the Vicar and The Right Reverend Bishop John Taylor Smith K.C.B., C.V.O., D.D., formerly Chaplain General to the Forces The Reverend Herbert Dudley Lampen, Clerk, Master of Arts and Honorary Canon of Chelmsford Cathedral Henry Thomas Alexander Dashwood Esquire the Reverend Vernon Faithfull Storr, Clerk, Master of Arts and Canon of Westminster and John Henry Buxton Esquire the Patrons of the Vicarage and Parish Church of Sandal and the Reverend Walter Burns Graham, Clerk, the Vicar of the Vicarage and Parish Church of Silkstone, I, the Bishop of Wakefield being the Patron thereof and the Reverend Charles Randolph Purser, Clerk, the Vicar and The Right Honourable Wentworth Henry Canning Viscount Allendale the Patron of the Vicarage and Parish Church of Darton are respectively consenting parties to the foregoing Representation and to the Scheme hereinafter set forth.

"That it appears to me that the said portions of the Parishes of Sandal and Silkstone may under the provisions of the before mentioned Act be advantageously separated from the parishes to which they belong and be annexed to the said Parish and Vicarage of Darton.

"That pursuant to the direction of the before mentioned Act of Parliament I have drawn out a scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it