

the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Churches and Cures (hereinafter called 'the said Benefices') of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey, both in the County of Devon and the Diocese of Exeter:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Right Honourable William Henry, Viscount Hambleton:

"And whereas the said William Henry, Viscount Hambleton, is desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Exeter for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Lord William Gascoyne Cecil, now Bishop of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, has executed this Scheme as herein-after mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefices of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parishes or Districts in or in respect of which the rights of Patronage or Advowsons so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arise or exist, that is to say, in the Parishes of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Henry, Viscount Hambleton (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Moretonhampstead and North Bovey now vested in him, the said William Henry, Viscount Hambleton, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Gascoyne Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 27th day of November, 1930, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate District for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the New Parish (sometime Consolidated Chapelry) of All Saints, Branksome Park, and partly out of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Osmund, Parkstone, both in the County of Dorset and in the Diocese of Salisbury:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said New Parish of All Saints, Branksome Park, and the said New Parish of Saint Osmund, Parkstone, are Cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said New Parish of All Saints, Branksome Park, and of the said New Parish of Saint Osmund, Parkstone, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate District in the manner which is hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas there has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of £2,000 towards providing an endowment for the said proposed separate District:

"And whereas we have agreed to make and pay out of our Common Fund a grant of £200 per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate District so soon as the Minister
