

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices of Funtington and Sennicotts, based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Funtington is now full the Reverend Charles Wadham Lyne being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Sennicotts is at present vacant:

"And whereas the share in the Patronage of the United Benefice if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect which on a fair and just apportionment would be assignable in respect of the interest of the patron of the said Benefice of Sennicotts would in our opinion be negligible:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles Wadham Lyne (testified by his signing this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Funtington and the said Benefice of Sennicotts shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls, and one Parish for all ecclesiastical purposes, under the style of 'The United Benefice of Funtington with Sennicotts.'

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Funtington shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish.

"3. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect, and the said Charles Wadham Lyne if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Funtington shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Funtington shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"5. That after the said union has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the Patron of the said Benefice of Funtington.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Chichester has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme, and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.
